German dance group performs at Greenwood library

die Fledermäuschen Tanzgruppe join GPL's Winter Reading events

Dance group die Fledermäuschen Tanzgruppe from the German American Klub will be at Greenwood Public Library (GPL) on Saturday, February 16th to demonstrate traditional German dancing. Dance group members will be dressed in costume and show a few different styles of traditional dance before encouraging audience members to participate as well.

This Traditional German Folk Dancing event is part of GPL's Winter Reading program which is challenging the Greenwood community to read 15,000 hours between January 2 – February 28. GPL's Winter Reading program is themed around fairy tales in connection with their upcoming Fairy Tale Literary Tour to Germany.

More information about GPL's Literary Tour, Winter Reading, and the Traditional German Folk Dance event can be found at GPL's website www.greenwoodlibrary.us
