NYT Bestseller Maggie Stiefvater Coming to Greenwood Library

Maggie Stiefvater is coming to GPL! Entertainment Weekly has called Maggie, “one of the finest YA novelists writing today.” She is a writer, artist, musician, and author praised for her beautifully written, poetic prose that is a perfect indulgence for readers of all ages.

The Raven Cycle, Stiefvater’s latest New York Times bestselling series, has received over a dozen starred reviews across four books. She also writes for middle grade readers including Hunted, the second book in the Spirit Animals series, and a collaborative novel, Pip Bartlett’s Guide to Magical Creatures, with author Jackson Pearce.

Maggie Stiefvater will be presenting an author talk and book signing on Thursday, December 8th. Barnes and Noble will be selling copies of Stiefvater’s work the night of the event. Anyone interested in attending is encouraged to register on the Library’s event calendar.
