HISTORY
OF THE
CLASS OF '50

In September, 1938, forty-nine timid and bewildered children entered the doors of Greenwood Schools for the first time. Many of the pupils were excited and enthusiastic about their first day at school, while others were frightened and astonished at the thought of being left alone with their future school-mates. The mothers' and children's fears and regrets were about equal. The feeling many mothers experience upon first starting their youngsters in school is very well-expressed in the following poem entitled "The First Day":

I watched him starting off to school,
He felt important, calm, and cool.
I tried to smile and hide my tears,
And wished I could erase the years,
Thus bring the babe within my arm
That I might keep him safe from harm.

This being our mothers' feelings you can imagine what ours were. However, with such firm-minded, self-protecting children I don't think our parents had anything to worry about. Never-the-less, through the ceaseless and untiring efforts of our parents and teachers we finally reached high school.

As "Green Freshmen" in 1946, we received the usual initiations and pranks thought of and planned by our upper-classmen. This first year of our high school career proved to be an exciting and informative one. We were allowed to attend more school functions and of course, we learned the general plan to which our high school days would conform. In this first high school year we elected the following officers:

Bill Tarter, President
Jerry Thurston, Vice-Pres.
Phyllis Sego, Sec. and Treas.

Some of us were lucky enough to be passed on to the Sophomore class. We were known as "Silly Sophomores" and we enjoyed it. Anything but "Green Freshies"!! Now it was our turn to take part in the initiations and other mischievous events and affairs. Now we were really a part of high school and, just think, practically upper-classmen. For the few dances and parties we held this year our well-chosen advisory board were the following officers:

Shirley Kinser, President
Bill Tarter, Vice-Pres.
Phyllis Sego, Treasurer
Charlotte Morgan, Secretary

At last we have attained that longed-for position of upper-classmen. During this year we really did some worth-while and enjoyable work. The main event of our Junior year was the "Jr.-Sr. Reception". We shall long remember the troubles and difficulties we encountered in this project, along with the fun and enjoyment we received from it. The officers who led us along the paths of this eventful and important year were:

Fay Martin, President
Jerry Thurston, Vice-Pres.
Charlotte Morgan, Secretary
Charlotte Arbuckle, Treasurer

Now we are Seniors. It seems incredible that we are the Seniors of Greenwood High School. All through our school years we have known that one day we would be the Sophisticated Seniors, but now that the fact is actually accomplished it is hard to believe. We hope we have chosen the right subjects for our preparation to enter the big, wide world. We will miss coming to school and we shall always remember the many good times we have shared together here at old G.H.S. So at this time we leave you. We leave with a few regrets but with many wonderful memories. We leave carrying high hopes for our success in the future.

Our officers for this, our last and most memorable, year were:

Phyllis Sego, President
Dean Duvall, Vice-Pres.
Rose Ann Peavler, Secretary
Morris Todd, Treasurer
Fay Martin, Historian

There are twelve of the beginning students of the "Class of '50" who are graduating with us today. They are as follows: Dean Duvall, Bill Ferrell, Bill Tarter, Clifton Thompson, Jerry Thurston, Jim Wood, Charlotte Arbuckle, Fay Martin, Charlotte Morgan, Rose Ann Peavler, Phyllis Sego, and Shirley Kinser.

The students who have joined us during our twelve year school career are Claud Beckner, Ray Neal Carlyle, Katie Cochran, Charles Fletcher, Zane Harmon, Reginald Harrison, Ralph Richey, Bob Thompson, Morris Todd, and Woodine Woodgate.

The Senior Dinner

The Senior Annual Dinner was held Thursday, May 25, at the school. All students who wished to attend were welcome. The mothers prepared the food and we wish to thank them very much.

Our gift was then presented to the school by the Class President, Phyllis Sego. Following the dinner the Annual was read by members of the class.

CLASS POEM
1950

We're the class of nineteen-fifty
All brains! did we hear you say?
Well, the teachers must have thought so
For they've sent us on our way.

And as we go our separate ways
We'll remember things we've done
The fun we had, the tears we shed
Will be remembered one by one.

On our first day at G. H. S.
We stormed and raged and cried,
And now we wish that we could stay
Forever, by its side.

But we realize this cannot be
For others are coming fast,
So, remember, won't you, the class of '50
When our school-days have passed.

And when you read these verses
Which, we know, are rather silly,
Don't take them wrong, they're just a joke
From Woodine, Phyllis, and Billy.

* * *

We'll top our list with Charlotte,
Now here is quite a gal,
She sure is loyal to Greenwood High
And, golly, what a pal.

Next comes Claud Beckner
The guy from Tennessee,
He charms the girls at Greenwood
With his cute personality.

The good looks of our class, it seems
Belong to Ray Carlyle,
We know the girls all think so
When they see him flash that smile.

Katie Cochran is a cute girl
With that gorgeous red hair,
She's in love with the Greenwood Drive-In
Say you don't like it--if you dare!

Dean Duvall is our musician
He sings and plays a horn,
And when he leaves old Greenwood High
Many a girl will mourn.

Bill Ferrell is our Romeo
He gives the girls a nod,
But his look rather lingers
We think, on Doris Todd.

Chuck Fletcher, our football hero,
Is really one swell guy,
He is well-liked by everyone
In good old Greenwood High.

Reggie, our sports manager
Has a swell personality,
But he's often very discreet, you see
He won't tell who the lucky one will be.

Zane, our man of science
Tries to be very mysterious,
But we know a certain girl in town
Over whom we think he's serious.

Shirley Kinser is her name now
One of the brains of Greenwood High,
And soon Mrs. Albin Vleck
Is the name you'll know her by.

Fay Martin is a cute girl
She could have her pick,
But sometimes we wish she'd hurry
And decide on Bill, Bob, or Dick.

Charlotte Morgan is a sweet girl
Who loves Bill more each day,
But she's also very dangerous
When in that speedy Chevrolet.

Rose Ann, alias the Pygmy
Has made Melvin Hudson care,
But when she loses her temper,
We warn him to beware.

The Thin Man, you all know
Ralph Richey is his name,
His favorite loves are: Money,
Snooker, Girls, and Fame.

Phyllis, is the girl, whom we
Chose, as our class president,
And there's a boy named Charlie Peavler
To whom her heart is lent.

Jerry Thurston is our artist
And he's also a swell kid,
We wonder who the girl will be
Who will finally get his bid.

Bob Thompson is a gallant boy
Brand-new Buick and all,
Over him, Kay and others
Have taken quite a fall.

Next on the list comes Clifton
A fightin' Kentuckian is he,
And a certain little Freshmen girl
Has him tied up, we see.

Bill Tarter, one of our poets
Is as handsome as can be,
But still, he's not a Romeo
He says, only Betty Webb for me.

Morris Todd is a swell guy
The same, day after day,
We wonder how many girls
He's sent a' weeping on their way.

Jim Wood, the giant of our class
The girls for him all fall,
But Jim says he's the roaming type
None special, he just loves them all.

Woodine is the girl that we
Know as the Wisconsin kid,
She came from there, to join our class
And we're really glad she did.

Well, this finishes, our poem
And please don't be mad, you guys,
If in our jolly kidding
We told a few white lies.

* * *

So now that we've slurred the students
And brought them grief and shame,
You teachers don't feel badly
If we happen to mention your name.

Betner teaches us our English
Our verbs, our nouns, and such,
She's almost never crabby
And we like her very much.

Our music loving teacher
Decker is his name,
And when we seniors do depart
He'll never be the same.

Gralia puts the domestic touch
On all the Greenwood girls,
She teaches them to cook and sew
And fix their hair in curls.

Trigonometry and geometry
Grigsby knows it all,
Formulas, he knows by heart
That guy is on the ball.

Isom is the principal of
Dear old Greenwood High,
I'm sure that he will be relieved
When he says that word--"Goodbye".

Next is Mr. Porter
A swell superintendent is he,
He gives us advice and is always jolly,
None better, could there ever be.

Mr. Rhude is one of the best
Who teaches at Greenwood High.
But he didn't know what he got into
Or he would have passed us by.

Miss Todd, our art teacher
Dresses so nice and neat,
She sings and plays so very well
To us, she's hard to beat.

Waymire is the able coach
He sure does know the rope,
To win a regional tourney
That's his favorite hope.

Martha Jane is our commercial teacher
She says, "Girls, take a letter",
And this year, Mrs. Wolf, we've noticed
That your shoes are getting better.

* * *

OUR MASTERPIECE IS FINISHED
WE SADLY SAY ADIEU,
SO GREENWOOD HIGH, WE SAY "GOODBYE,
AND THE BEST OF LUCK TO YOU".

* * * * *

CLASS SONGS

GOODBYE G. H. S.
(To the tune of "Smiles")

There are dances to be remembered,
There are football games galore,
Don't forget the sectionals and tourneys
And the Prom that we all waited for.
Yes, we had our senior pictures taken,
And we struggled through Commencement, too.
There were smiles and tears all mingled
And the brave boys' jolly jokes were few.
We are leaving G. H. S. forever,
There'll be times we'll wish we were back, too.
Now we hope that everyone will miss us,
Because we'll sure be missing you.

* * *

FAREWELL GREENWOOD HIGH
(To the tune of "White Christmas")

We're the Seniors of old Greenwood High,
And we are leaving you today.
We will laugh and cry, through our Commencement,
We wish we could come back to stay,
(We Seniors really mean it.)
We have had a lot of good times,
A few heart-breaks along the way.
We will cherish and remember
Old Greenwood High forever,
Thus, we 1950 Seniors bid farewell.

* * *

OUR MANAGER

Our manager Reginald Harrison, of whom we are very proud, was the first student manager of Greenwood High School to receive a trophy from the boys whom he has managed throughout their athletic career. The boys awarded the trophy to Reginald to show their appreciation for his fine spirit and service.

WISTFUL WILLS

On this the 26th day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty, being of unsound minds and insane bodies, denying anything that has been said before or up to this day, we the Seniors of the Class of Fifty, knowing this to be the soul and undivided truth, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

Claud Beckner, a southern aspect of Greenwood High, wills and bequeaths his ability to play foot-ball to Tommy McClain.

Katie Lou Cochran, a fiery redhead, wills her pepsodent smile to Doctor Lyons.

Bill Ferrell, a brother of Tali Ferrell, wills his good looks to Alan Ladd.

Zane Harmon, an Einstein fan, wills and bequeaths his brains to Kenny Emberton.

Chuck Fletcher, a man about town, wills his Durock Hot-rod to the one Connie Fisher.

Shirley Kinser, leaves all her fun and enjoyment of "going steady" to Barbara Gossman.

Dean Duvall, wills his rhythmic mind and "ought-a-been" hair to Gorgeous George.

Ray Carlyle, wills his stubby beard and hairy legs to Bill Segoe.

Charlotte Arbuckle, wills her snappy short-hand to Joan Stone.

Fay Martin, a popular young girl, wills her slender beauty to Doris Davis.

Rose Ann Peavler, better known as "Rose Bud", leaves her stature and quiet ways to Carol Knight.

Charlotte Morgan, wills her insane driving ability to Doris Todd.

Ralph Richey, does will and bequeath his manly physique to Atlas.

Phyllis Segoe, wills her ways and shortcomings to the one and only Shirley Peters.

Bob Thompson unwillingly leaves his miniature nose and small feet to Mary Lou Wanning.

Bill Tarter, wills and bequeaths his freckles to Betty Teater.

"Cliff" Thompson, leaves his yodeling technique to any available southerner.

Jim Wood, leaves his respect and recognition for teachers to Jimmy Covert.

Morris Todd, leaves his muscles and hairy chest to Mr. Porter.

Woodine Woodgate, leaves her unlimited personality to any wellbred horse.

Jerry Thurston wills his vast wealth to Alcatraz for future liability.

Reginald Harrison, wills his ability to leave the girls alone, to Jimmy Wright.

To the Junior Class the Seniors leave all their unrecognized ambitions and provoking personalities.

The Senior Class wills and bequeaths to the Sophomores their will to study and methods of getting out of school.

To the "Green Freshmen" the Seniors leave nothing but the desire to be in their place.

The Seniors leave to Mr. Porter all the good food, and the ability to open his mouth every time his elbow moves.

To Mrs. Gralia, the Seniors leave all of their tested recipes for making good grades.

We leave our left-over funds to Mr. Rhude to finish the payments on his Studebaker.

To Mr. Grigsby, the Seniors leave respect and gratitude for a swell teacher.

To Mr. Decker the Seniors leave their appreciation of good music.

The Senior Class bequeaths to Mr. Waymire, the art of keeping the boys in training.

To Mrs. Betner, we leave our unique etiquette and excellent vocabularies.

To Mrs. Wolf, the Seniors leave a stop watch, so she may continue her speed tests.

To Mr. Isom, THE SENIOR CLASS LEAVES.

The Junior-Senior Reception

The Junior-Senior Reception was held May 20, 1950 at the Antlers Hotel. The Juniors voted it to be a surprise and it still remains a surprise. Everyone enjoyed the fine food and music and the Seniors wish to express their appreciation for such a romantic and fulfilled evening.

THE FUTURE OF THE CLASS OF '50

Hello-o-o-o everybody!!! This is Radio Station S-T-I-N-K in New York. Now this program today is brought to you with the compliments of Cough Away Cold Tablets. The tablets that either chase away whatever ails you or know the reason why. Today Cough Away brings you the fifth in a series of tales known as "Tales of Famous Persons".

Back in the year 1950, twenty-two young stalwart men and women graduated from a small high school in a midwestern Indiana town named Greenwood. In this year 1970, they decided to have a reunion in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. Since leaving high school they all have reached far beyond their expectations. So-o-o-o it is our privilege here at Station S-T-I-N-K to bring you the supper from the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria!!!

Well, here we are in the dining room of one of the world's largest hotels, the Waldorf-Astoria, where our guests haven't yet arrived but are expected at any time.

The guests are now beginning to enter the magnificent dining room. The first one to enter is none other than the great Clifton Thompson, better known as Clifton Q. in his school days. Mr. Thompson is now a great movie actor and has already won ten Oscars for outstanding performances in the "Fighting Kentuckian", "Last of the Kentuckians" and "Kentuckian's Last Stand". He is now so rich and famous that Fort Knox was moved to Kentucky in honor of him. He has donated money for the seventh grade room to add on the first six that are now being built on the park hill. (This is 1970)

Another brilliant celebrity now entering is Mr. Jerry Thurston who now owns all the banks in the United States and is being called moneybags. Mr. Thurston's desire for money started some twenty years ago and since that time he has let nothing stand in his way. Mr. Thurston has spotlights all around his home, twenty burglar alarms, 150 padlocks and forty-four vaults. He leaves lights burning all night and often he doesn't get more than two or three hours' sleep at night. He is either counting his treasure or sitting on the roof watching for burglars the whole night. Oh well, that's life!!!!

Now entering the ballroom is one of the famous mystery women of our group, Fay Martin. Boy, is she a hard person to find. Through the grapevine I found out that she is Mayor of Boystown, Inc. She has had many wonderful jobs offered her on behalf of her wonderful high school records that she made in the study hall class. These jobs are rack-girl in Frank's Pool Room, jerk of the soda in the drugstore, and the clown that everybody throws baseballs at in the circus. Oh well, Fay, since you are now Mayor we'll let politics take care of you.

The next person stepping into the room is the great Reginald Harrison better known as "Reggie" to all of his close buddies. Mr. Harrison is still on his fabulous career of none other than carrying milk on Sullivan's Milk Route. He is praying for the day when he can throw Sullivan out of business and own his own route. He will then give Sullivan a job for a change. He can sit back and take it easy just like Sullivan does. Harrison's motto will be, We just deliver it,
You have to drink it.

Everybody's eyes are now turned toward the entrance where the famous Rose Ann Peavler has just stepped in. Miss Peavler, alias the Pygmy, has joined Ringling Brothers' Circus. She is the only woman in the history of the world to swing 1000 feet above the earth without a rope on her back. She has just recently accepted a job with Rubby-Dubby Washtubs, diving 500 feet into 1 inch of water.

Here comes one of the most outstanding persons of our well-known group, Jim Woods. Woodsey, the distinguished founder of Wood's toothpicks, whose motto is "We pick anything" has found time now to start another busy firm, that of dancing. Among Mr. Wood's clients there are Fred Astaire, Gene Kelly, and Arthur Murray. His latest dancing star is none other than one of our fellow graduates, who is now entering,

Charlotte Arbuckle. Miss Arbuckle has had 10,000 proposals in twelve hours but she still insists that she is going to stay true to Mr. Porter who is now President of the United States. Miss Arbuckle is also a registered nurse in the largest hospital in the world, and is still chasing all the good-looking internes in the hope that one of them will break down and marry her.

Glancing toward the door, we now see the shadow of a former class-mate Ralph Richey. Ralph while in school, was called the "thin man", and after twenty years, what do they still call him----"The Thinner Man". Richey, soon after leaving school, was captured by Ringling Brothers Circus. He was advertised as the world's thinnest man as he weighed only twenty pounds in his 7'3" frame. His attraction is this! He is in the first line of fifteen chorus girls but is the only one hiding behind a tooth-pick.

Now arriving is Mrs. Albin Vleck, the former Miss Shirley Kinser. Mrs. Vleck is now quite a lady of society. She has dinner every Wednesday with Hedda Hopper to discuss all the available millionaire men. Mrs. Vleck now has fifteen children. Her husband is the owner of the Tiny Tot Di-dee Service, Inc.

Suddenly all of the guests are startled by the touch of hot air. Looking up, they see Bob Thompson---what a let-down. Bob, alias "Big Feet" Thompson, has just recently opened a new shoe factory. His greatest new discovery, due to his personal appearance, is none other than a shoe equipped with a foot-reducing apparatus for special customers like himself. His most regular customer is the great,

Morris Todd. Mr. Todd, otherwise known as Jack Smart, and Hot Toddy, is now president of the salesmen for Hot Toddy's Inc. Due to the shortage of bottle caps at the time he graduated he has now invented the Hot Toddy safety cap whose motto is:

Bottles, Bottles everywhere,
And not a drop will leak;
If you think these caps will hold--
Brother, you will need a sink.

Ray Neal Carlyle was the first one in our outstanding group to own property. He bought Kingrow's Billiard Parlor and has just recently taken over Red Smock's position as latest timekeeper for trains. Ray, who, around Greenwood is called Mr. Carlyle, has recently taken on the job of teaching young people in love, the techniques of dating. He is being requested by his many admirers who wish to acquire the reputation he had in his younger days of being the greatest casanova of Greenwood.

Bursting into the room in her old vivacious manner is Katie Lou Cochran, alias "Bombshell" and "Red Head". She has just recently bought out the Greenwood Drive-in Theater. Instead of having boy ushers she has girls who sing to you as you arrive, "Love Me a Little Bit More". She has set a world record for making a $1,000,000 in a single night.

The person of our class who has acquired the most success in these twenty years is Charles Fletcher, who has just arrived. Mr. Fletcher, who is now president of the Spic and Span Sewer Company with the motto of "We clean what everybody leaves", has recently purchased a string of laundries called the Do-It Laundries. These laundries are guaranteed to do anything that is detrimental to clothing, but the amazing thing is that his heart is still set for Stockberger-Seastrom Company. Instead of driving Cadillacs around he drives road graders.

Quietly slipping into the midst of the noise and confusion is the beauty of the class, Woodine Woodgate. Woodine, commonly known to her former classmates as Woo-o-o-odine has accomplished much since leaving our fair school. The first accomplishment was to enter Jeckle and Hyde Surgeons, Inc., where she studied surgery---if you can call it surgery. Showing true class spirit she let nothing stand in her way in obtaining her goal. She married J. Rockefeller and bought twenty-five hospitals for her own practical use. Her record now is 3,000----Dead or Alive!!!!

Mr. Zane Harmon has just entered and we probably have more to say about him than anyone else. He, first of all, said recently before he graduated from high school that the world would blow up before 2,000,000 years were up. Secondly, he has revolutionized the sale of tooth picks and perhaps the most amazing body that he discovered was himself. For years of battling with himself over women and whom he should give a break, in his twenty-year high school career he has finally put himself in Craigmont in Madison where he is now on the verge of another wonderful discovery, that of introducing for the first time in history of the world!!! ---the Schmo.

Now here comes another famous celebrity from the class of '50, Phyllis Sego. Miss Sego, the owner of a chain of drugstores, now has enough stores to keep all of her ex-lovers in jobs. Charles Peavler, one of her most ardent admirers, is the head manager, with the guidance of Miss Sego. She has never married because she is afraid that the shock of her marriage would leave her without any managers for her drugstores. They would all die of a broken heart!

One of the wealthiest classmates that our class has ever had is none other than the well-known William Tarter. He has just arrived in the most rich-looking attire of all the persons here. I would like to tell you about an experience I had with Bill one day while convening in Chicago at a mass meeting of all the men who had made in the last year, an average of $1,000,000,000.01. Here's what he told me he was doing. Bill is now a model of women's hosiery in the biggest hosiery factory in the world. Also Mr. Tarter is assistant Under Secretary to the Secretary of the Upper Secretary to the Under Secretary of the Secretaries Company, Inc. Complicated isn't it???

Mr. Claud Beckner has just now arrived. Ah---h what a man' of mystery!!! While in high school "Beck" was carrying on one of the most amazing love romances in the history of Greenwood High School. In the last of his Senior year a girl by the name of Patricia Clark came to our fair school. Of course, Claud and Clifton Q. both fell madly in love with her. This great feud was carried on until Patty decided she would be true to Cliff. There is a rumor going around town though that she still slips out of the mansion every night to meet her secret lover-----"Beck".

At this time there is a great commotion outside. It is deafening. Aha! a face appears and is none other than the great Dean Duvall. Mr. Duvall, alias Hot Lips, who has become very famous for his trumpet arrangements of "I Love You So Much It Hurts Me", "Rye Whiskey", and "Home On The Range", has just recently returned from the dark jungles of Africa where he was playing with the tom-toms for new arrangements. He has come back especially for the alumni-get-together. He will reside here in New York but he has a great problem, which is, where he will put all the women in his harem that are still back in Africa. He might have to rent the Waldorf-Astoria to hold all of them. He always had more than one!

At last we have come to the end of our journey. We have brought to you all the distinguished people of the world today. Oh, no!!!! We have forgotten one person. Through the screeching of tires and the roar of the engine we see in the cockpit of the car none other than Crash Crockett or Bill Ferrell. Mr. Crockett is now world famous for racing feats. Crash has recently set a world record for wrecking the most cars in one race. Through amazing skill twelve started the race and none finished. Mr. Ferrell is president of Speedway 500 Mile Race in Indianapolis, where he has won the race twenty times.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening, May 21, at eight o'clock, at the Methodist Church. Reverend Robert S. Marlett of the Baptist Church delivered the sermon entitled "The Foundation of a Good Life". Music was furnished by the high school Music Department.

Commencement

Commencement exercises were held May twenty-third, nineteen hundred and fifty, when twenty-two seniors received their diplomas. Mr. Carl Porter, Superintendent of Schools, presented the diplomas.

Dr. John S. Benson, of Indianapolis, the speaker of the evening spoke on the subject "The Marks of an Educated Man".

Dr. Benson is a lecturer, interpreter, humorist, writer, and world traveler. He was for many years superintendent of the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. He is also a member of the International Platform Association.

Edinburg Cagers Face Greenwood On Friday Night

Of four scheduled county games this weekend, the most closely watched will be the Edinburg at Greenwood tilt on Friday night. The Woodmen of Dan Waymire have the first chance of ruffling two offensive leaders. With the son and Jimmy Wood, Bob Thompson and Jimmy Wood, carrying the fight, the Woodmen will put up a high front against the Maroons.

Left to right: Kay Ephlin, Fay Martin, Charlene Isom.

"A Cheerleader's Plea"

Old Greenwood High, you might guess
 Drew Whiteland, our old foe!
 The second game on Thursday night--
 And everyone must go.
 To cage those Warriors--That's our cry--
 "Woodsey", Todd, and Ferrell...
 With Thompson in there along with Ray
 We'll know the answer right away.
 To get behind our team is next
 With victory at our door--
 To show those Warriors who is best
 And beat them JUST ONCE MORE!!!
