DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five, do humbly dedicate this Homines Silvae to Janiece Ross. Janiece was a member of our class for eight years and when she passed away in June, 1953 we all lost a very dear friend. Janiece led our class as president and cheerleader in her freshman year. She was to have served as secretary when we returned in our junior year. Therefore, we feel it fitting to leave this annual in memory of one who has been so near to us.

"Think not the longest life the happiest; that which is best employed, doth man the most honor....

--From an Indian manuscript

Even if we didn't win, we surely had team spirit as is shown in this picture. Coach Harner urges the boys on from the bench.

Here is our newly formed Booster Club which seems to be praying for a victory for the Woodmen.

Dave Lasiter, Greenwood's star forward, emerges from the hoop at the dedication ceremonies.

DEDICATION

On November 7, 1954, the fulfillment of a dream that Greenwood had held in abeyance for twelve long years was finally accomplished. On that date, most of the citizens of Greenwood, along with many others from the surrounding territory, gathered in the new gymnasium to watch and participate in the dedication of the new Greenwood Junior-Senior High School. Allan P. Dreyer, Chairman of the Dedication Committee and Treasurer of the Greenwood School Building Corporation's Board of Directors, presided during the dedication program.

Preceding the program, the Greenwood High School Band gave a short concert as the townspeople filed into the huge gymnasium and took their seats. Many had never seen the building's interior before, and all were pleased, proud, and a bit wide-eyed. As Mr. Jarrold Holeman and the Band finished their part of the program, the Color Guard of the Greenwood American Legion Post 252 presented the flag on the stage in a very impressive military manner. The band played the National Anthem, and Rev. Robert L. Marlett gave the invocation.

Next, Mr. Dreyer commented on the absence of Stanley Porter, Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Porter was recovering from injuries suffered in an automobile accident a few days before. Chairman Dreyer read a letter from Mr. Porter in which he asked that the dedication not be postponed because of his accident, since he felt that no one man was of such importance.

Mr. Dreyer introduced the guests on the stage, commenting on the part each had played in the planning and building of the school. Mrs. Lowell B. Springer sang "Bless This House" by Brahe, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Todd.

Marley A. Lasiter, President of the Greenwood School Building Corporation, spoke on the work involved in this accomplishment and the future of it. He then presented the "key," symbolic of building ownership, to Mrs. Agnes Tilson Adcock, who, as President of the School Board, was the official representative of the town of Greenwood. Mrs. Adcock, Mr. M. Dale Baughman, the High School Principal, and Robert Garris, President of the Student Council, all commented on the importance of this accomplishment to the school system, citizens, and community at large.

Robert W. Demaree sang "The Builders' by Cadman, accompanied by Miss Geraldine Bagby.

On behalf of the Greenwood School Foundation, Mrs. Robert W. Demaree, Vice-Chairman of the Foundation, presented Mrs. Adcock, with the equipment and furnishings which the Foundation had purchased with funds donated by the community. Mrs. Adcock received this presentation with thanks. Mr. Wilbur Young, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, spoke for a few minutes on behalf of his department. Mr. Dreyer next invited all present to attend the open house, which was to take place immediately following the close of the dedication program.

REV. ROBERT E. GREEN gave the benediction.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1955:

Hearty congratulations are extended on your many achievements and especially on the publication of your very fine yearbook "Homines Silvae."

Your years with us have been interesting, challenging, productive years, during which you contributed much to the life of both our school and community, as you advanced steadily toward graduation.

The rich and varied talents possessed by your group can be used with greater effectiveness and we of Greenwood know you will use them in this manner as you assume the responsibilities of active adult life.

You are a part of Greenwood and we hope you will have a continuing interest in our affairs down through the years that march toward us with increasing rapidity.

We of the Greenwood Public Schools want you to know that we are happy to have been associated with you and that we wish you success and satisfaction.

Stanley Porter, Superintendent

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The terse statement has often been made, "Nothing is more permanent than change." Meditation upon the succinctness of this quotation leads one to accept its implications.

It is inevitable, therefore, that Greenwood and Greenwood High School will change. The nature of the changes will depend quite naturally upon school administrative policies, student reactions to such policies, and community mores.

Educational philosophers advance the belief that the school can change the community. If that is true, then it seems only too clear that students, administrators and teachers must continue to work together to bring about desirable changes.

A constant flow of graduates into a community affects significantly the nature of that community. Your experiences in co-operating with schoolmates and school officials in school and community living will better equip you to be a good citizen with a forceful and positive influence.

M. Dale Baughman, Principal

CLASS POEM

As we, the Seniors of fifty-five, do our future plans derive,
 We hope to be among the best to leave the new G. H. S.

At the top of the list, naturally,
 Appears the name of ROBERT FEE.
 A man among men
 Stout hearted and free.

JUDY JORDAN, who's everyone's pal,
 Is our yell leader, what a gal!
 On the annual staff, she made her fame.
 All in all she's quite a dame.

BOB DEMAREE, is a great musician,
 To that we'll all agree.
 When he turns on his great big smile,
 He reminds us of Liberace.

To BEV JEWELL, who's quite a gal
 And to everyone is a pal,
 We wish her the best of luck
 With her boyfriend Chuck.

Look who's coming down the Avenue,
 With a ten shot gun and a twenty-two.
 Watch out bunnies, you'd better make haste,
 Here comes PAUL FISHEL with that look on his face.

EVELYN HINKLE, who's quite a girl,
 Has a very hard name to rhyme.
 When we want her, we know where to find her,
 She's with Charlie most of the time.

DONALD STRETCHBERRY, loves to debate,
 On Uni. training or dining at eight.
 And as a student, Don's quite a star,
 If he doesn't get shot first, he'll go far.

In fiction we know her as Miss Chandler,
 She's quite the secretary.
 That's our gal, CAROL BRINKMAN,
 She's quite merry.

ROBERT HILTON, is the man's name,
 Throughout Greenwood is his fame.
 With the girls he does star,
 Because of his little red car.

There's a redhead in our class,
 She's quite a lass.
 She goes steady with Joe Twyman.
 That's our gal, BEV MARTIN

Say good-by to RICHARD BOAZ,
The wit of the senior class.
With all that charm and personality,
We knew he'd have to pass.

Who is it that never frowns,
And is the artist of our class.
Why, PHYLLIS BROWN; we hope
She makes good fortune fast.

EUGENE CROUCH, our football star,
Was king of the Pigskin Prom.
We hope he stays up to par
In the years to come.

Our deacon, PHIL JACKSON,
With his home spun humor,
Says things without any reason,
No matter what the season.

BESSIE ANN'S hide-away,
Is a place for George to stay.
With a nice small family,
We're sure they'll be happy.

The "Pleasant Run Kid" is his name,
Falling in creeks brought him fame.
He's the best on the team,
That's our boy DEAN.

The studies were always done,
And then they went to heck.
You see, Kenny had captured
The studios ROSELLE VLCEK,

The call of the wild,
A jeep is near,
A cloud of smoke,
RONALD DALBY is here.

RAE ACHENBACK in the office,
Sorting out the mail,
Watches out the window
For her favorite male.

Last year's team was on the beam,
And IRIS DENNIS was their queen.
Over the Pigskin Prom she did rule,
With the king she's quite a jewell.

The splitting of the atom,
Gives JAMES COFFMAN great delight,
And inventing brand new bombs
To fill us with fright.

DON ABELL, our "Hot Rod King,"
He drives an old Ford
That has that certain ping,
Soon he'll have to pull it with a cord.

This little ditty has Something for Kansas City.
ROBERTA would really go far,
If she only had a car.

A guy I know whose name is DAVE,
With a junior, is quite the rave.
When he's driving, he's not so slick,
Cause he backed off into a creek.

ROY VORIS, who's known as "Buckeye,"
Down in shop is quite the guy.
From fixing a car to building a chest,
Buckeye Voris can tellyou best.

Look around and what do you see?
DONNA GIBSON, cute as can be.
She'll always be teased,
With that accent from the East.

These two guys, though they came late,
Have left their mark on us.
DON HOLDERFIELD and KENNY OLSON,
We wish them back or bust.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: "When I Was A Lad" from H. M. S. Pinafore)

When I was a lad (lass) I started to school
With two black pencils and a six inch rule.
My shoes were shined, my hair was combed, and
An apple for the teacher in my fist I held
And an apple for the teacher in my fist I held.

Well, I polished up that apple so carefuller
That now I am a senior at the top of the tree
We polished up that apple so carefuller
That now we are seniors at the top of the tree.

The years went on as year's will do,
And now we must say good-bye to you
For we've all been measured for Mortar Boards
and Academic Furbelows
And Academic Furbelows.

So if you want to be a wheel, you don't have to bother with themes and things,
Just polish up an apple and you'll soon be
Another senior at the top of the tree.
Just polish up an apple and you'll soon be
Another senior at the top of the tree.

CLASS HISTORY

We entered school on a warm autumn day in 1943 with forty-five members in the class. After six long years of childhood we finally reached our first important step into adulthood, we moved upstairs into Junior High! This was a very new system to us. The changing of classes was quite confusing and it wasn't unusual to be found in a freshman class rather than one of our own.

We girls had quite a knack for note writing but Mr. Isom finally caught up with us and we had a session in the office. He told us if we ever did it again he would take some very drastic measure.

We soon closed our seventh year with no more encounters with Mr. Isom, but quickly found ourselves eighth graders only to be students in Mr. Grigsby's science class. He really made an effort to make scientists out of us but instead he almost blew us up with his homemade fire extinguisher. We finally finished the eighth grade and became "Green Freshmen." Mr. Isom had a time trying to protect the boys from the belt line in front of the school. Paul Fishel ran all the way home just to escape this horrible ordeal. Our officers for this year were:

President- - - - - Janiece Ross
 Vice President- - - - - Don Stretchberry
 Secretary- - - - - Beverly Jewell
 Treasurer- - - - - David Lasiter
 Historian- - - - - Judy Jordan

We entered our tenth year as "Silly Sophomores" and the name certainly fit; especially for the girls, since Roberta Steenberger had developed quite a giggle and used it at every opportunity.

In this year Mrs. Betner tried so very hard to teach us the history of Greenwood, but it just wasn't interesting enough, so the boys threw paper wads at the girls instead. Our officers were:

President- - - - - Phyllis Brown
 Vice President- - - - - Don Abell
 Secretary- - - - - Roselle Vicek
 Treasurer- - - - - Don Stretchberry
 Historian- - - - - Rabon Baxter

We were now "Jolly Juniors" and planning for the big Junior-Senior Reception in the spring. It was very amazing how Phil Jackson and David Lasiter found excuses to stay out of Study Hall to work on prom decorations. We made murals for the Prom only to be cut up by Mr. Kersey's shop class the next year. Our officers for this year were:

President- - - - - Bob Demaree
 Vice President- - - - - Bob Hilton
 Secretary- - - - - Beverly Jewell
 Treasurer- - - - - Don Stretchberry
 Historian- - - - - Rabon Baxter

Then came the fall of 1954 when we began our last mile-stone in education as high school students. We, the "Dignified" but sad seniors, realized that we were going to part and go our separate ways. Only ten persons in the class had started together in 1942, they are Paul Fishel, Phil Jackson, Beverly Martin, David Lasiter, Roy Voris, Bessie Skaggs, James Coffman, Don Stretchberry, Judy Jordan, and Eugene Crouch. We shall always remember our last year as happy but mixed up.

The highlight of the year, naturally, was the moving to our new building. Of course, the walk was a little longer and steeper but all the energy used was worthwhile when we considered how much more we had than before. Having our Senior pictures taken, ordering our announcements and name cards were only a few of the thrilling experiences we encountered throughout the year. Our most remembered times, though, will be the events of the last week of school starting with Honor Day and leading through the Prom, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the Senior Dinner. We finally reached adulthood and went our separate ways. Our officers who led us this year were:

President- - - - - Don Stretchberry
 Vice President- - - - - Ronald Dalby
 Secretary- - - - - Roselle Vleck
 Treasurer- - - - - Judy Jordan
 Historian- - - - - Bessie Skaggs

Front row: Mrs. Waymire, Sponsor; Phil Jackson, Iris Dennis, Paul Fishel, Donna Gibson, Beverly Jewell, Dean Fasig, Beverly Martin, Don Stretchberry, Jim Coffman, Carol Brinkman, Bob Hilton, Evelyn Hinkle. Back row: Eugene Crouch, Richard Boaz, Don Holderfield, Bessie Skaggs, Roselle Vleck, Rae Ann Achenback, Kenny Olson, Roy Voris, Roberta Steenberger, Judy Jordan, Phyllis Brown, Ronald Dalby, Robert Demaree, David Lasiter, Bob Fee. Absent, Don Abell.

Curtain call at dress rehearsal.

Don Stretchberry shows the senior girls the art of stage make-up.

The members of the class play cast take time out from practice to have a bottle of milk and relax for a minute.

Roberta Steenberger follows the script so she can get the sound effects in at the right time.

This is an example of some of the action that went on in our class play. Cluck saves Gabby from Speed's wrath.

Gabby receives a tongue-lashing from Mr. Birch as Miss Chandler and Miss Ross look on.

SOCIAL STUDIES

MATHEMATICS

Working out problems at the board are a few of the Geometry class members. Mr. Grigsby, the teacher, seems to be doing a good job as all of the kids are working diligently.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The photographer slipped in to take this picture of the second-year typing students at work. This was one of the rare moments of labor. Mrs. Waymire, the typing and shorthand teacher, surveys the scene with satisfaction. Mr. Hays, not pictured, teaches bookkeeping and general business.

HOME ECONOMICS

The eighth grade Homemaking girls are earnestly trying to learn and solve the complications involved in sewing. This department is made up of a combined kitchen, sewing room, and fitting room, all with modern equipment. Mrs. Borkowski is the Home-making instructor.

SCIENCE

ENGLISH

The members of the Senior English Class are listening to Paul Fishel as he records his voice on a tape recorder. Mrs. Edith Betner also teaches Sophomore and Eighth Grade English. Mr. John McKinney teaches Junior, Freshman and Seventh Grade English.

LATIN

DRIVER TRAINING

Instructor Norman Harner checks on Phyllis Brown's techniques behind the wheel as Carolyn Hagy and Richard Thompson look on. This is the first year this course has been offered at G. H. S.

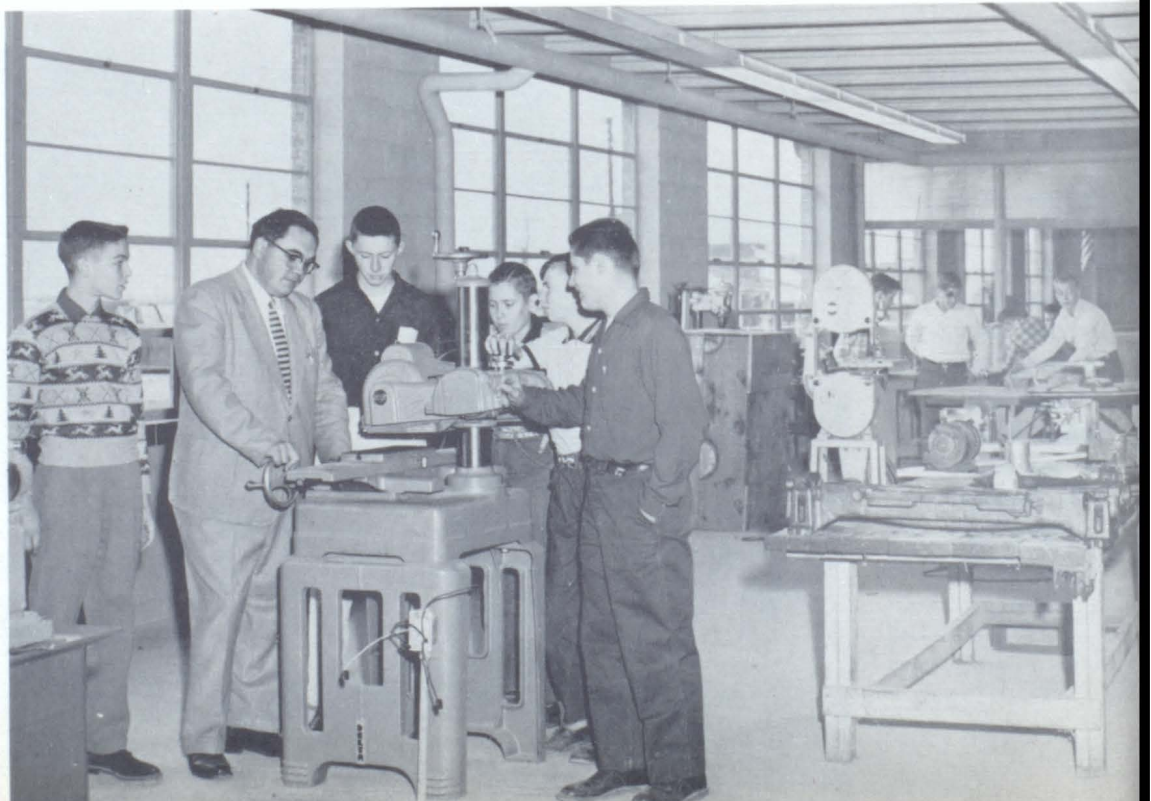

ART

Miss Todd, the high school art teacher, leafs through some art work while the other students continue their work.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Mr. Kersey explains one of the new machines in the shop to members of the Freshman class. Our new shop has a score of new equipment never had before at Greenwood.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The Sunshine Society was organized in Crawfordsville High School in 1901. It has grown to about two hundred chapters with a membership of about twelve thousand girls. The Greenwood Sunshine Society was reorganized in 1945. It stands ready to do anything for home, school, and community that will carry out its purposes and build character through work and play.

The emblem is the rising sun; the song, "My Sunshine Girl"; the flower, Yellow Rose; colors, yellow and white; and the motto, "Others."

The creed of Sunshine expresses its purposes: "With love in my heart, forgetting self, and with charity for all, I will make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others. I shall try to fit myself to give intelligent service in making my community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live. Thus, will my own life become rich and complete."

The Greenwood Chapter is very active and one of its projects for the year is combined with the Hi-Y in giving the Senior Dinner.

SCIENCE CLUB

Our Science Club was organized to create more interest in Science. Interesting experiments and scientific films are shown at the meetings. These meetings are held once a month. Trips are taken each year to places of scientific interest.

Our Club holds a charter from the Science Clubs of America. Any student in the high school is eligible to join and hold office.

This year the Science Club chartered a bus and thirty-nine students and two sponsors visited the Field Museum, Planitarium and the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America brings together state groups interested in and working toward better home and family living, provides opportunities to share in solving problems important to home life, and sponsors group projects, local, state and national in scope; it increases opportunities for the development of leadership and intelligent participation so much needed in a democratic society.

Future Homemakers of America is an incorporated, non-profit youth organization. It came into being through the cooperative efforts of youth enrolled in homemaking in secondary schools in building a national organization of their own in which they may develop social qualities and promote better home life for themselves and their families.

It is a national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools of the United States and Territories. As an integral part of the program of home economics in the schools of America it offers opportunity for the further development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

Our local organization sponsored the Valentine Sock Hop this year and was host to six hundred Future Homemakers for the Spring Meeting of the Southeast District. Highlights of the District Meeting were the luncheon, served by the churches; election of officers; style show; exhibits of scrap books and Human Relations.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club is a newly organized club. This was its first year and had a membership of fifty-three. Our cheer leaders were: Judy Jordan, Barbara Burton and Bonnie Farley.

This group was headed by Roselle Vicek and its purpose is "Organized Yelling at ball games." The members and cheerleaders are to be complimented on the fine work they have done.

SERVICE CLUB

The Service Club was formed in Greenwood High School in 1951. This first year was mainly used in setting up the organization. Towards the last of the year the club was getting started and was of much service to the School. In the years following, the Service has provided a regular stage crew and motion picture operators.

During this past year the Service Club has done three important things. Of the most importance was the ratifying of the constitution. The next project was the organizing of an Arbor Day program, which we hope will take place annually. One of our money making projects was the operation of the "hat and coat check." This was used at basketball games and many other activities in the school and was a big success.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Greenwood High School Student Council was organized this year and is still in its infancy although it has made much progress for one short year.

Its purposes are: to prepare for future citizenship; to provide for cooperation and participation in the management of school affairs; to regulate extra class activities; to promote school spirit; to establish the proper relationships among students of this school and with students of other schools; to promote respect for necessary rules and regulations.

Any student of the High School, who is doing passing work in three solids and was enrolled as a student for the spring semester of his election, is eligible for membership. The student council is composed of twenty members, ten boys and ten girls.

The council members for 1954-55 were: Eighth grade, Bill Threlkeld and Sandra Thompson; Seventh grade, Stephen Barnaby and Ginger Martin; Ninth grade, Eddie Akard, Mike Stretchberry, Bernice Burton and Kathleen McCartney; Tenth grade, Bob Garris, President; Stanley Wood, Bonnie Farley and Barbara Rahn; Eleventh grade, Charles Tinkle, Roberta Potts and Diane Millsbaugh; Twelfth grade, Bob Demaree, Phil Jackson, Roselle Vlack, Secretary; and Bessie Skaggs, Treasurer.

One of this year's projects was the donkey basketball game.

A group of friends relaxing and talking between dances at the FHA Sock Hop.

King, Phil Jackson, has the honor of the first dance with Queen, Roberta Steenberger, after the crowning ceremony.

ACTIVITIES

The Dancers at the Pigskin Prom Seem to be Enjoying Themselves.

The Sock Hop is an annual Valentine dance sponsored by the F. H. A. A King and Queen were chosen to reign over the celebration. Prizes were given for the prettiest, ugliest, most original, and cutest socks.

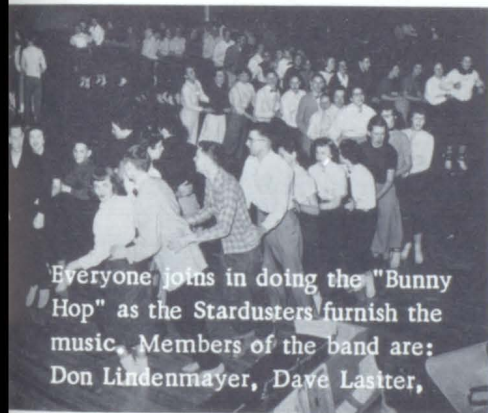

SOCK HOP

King Phil Jackson, crowned by Rae Achenback, and Queen Roberta Steenberger, crowned by Carol Brinkman, reigned over the Sock Hop.

Humorous entertainment was provided by Phil Jackson and Larry McIntire as everyone relaxed with a coke.

Everyone joins in doing the "Bunny Hop" as the Stardusters furnish the music. Members of the band are: Don Lindenmayer, Dave Laster,

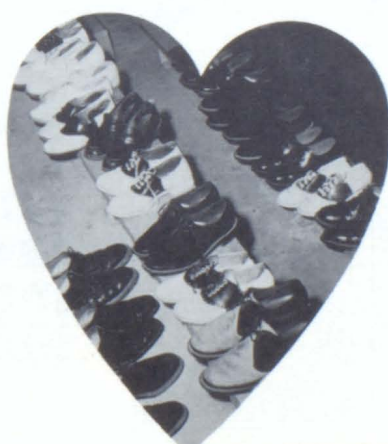

Carl Horne from Greensburg, and Bob Demaree. Music for entertainment was provided by the Saxophone

Quartet consisting of: Jane Betts, Alice Barnard, Nancy Porter, and Roselle Vicek.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of prizes for the winning socks to: Roberta Potts, David Sheek, Chuck Wheat, Dotty Ross.

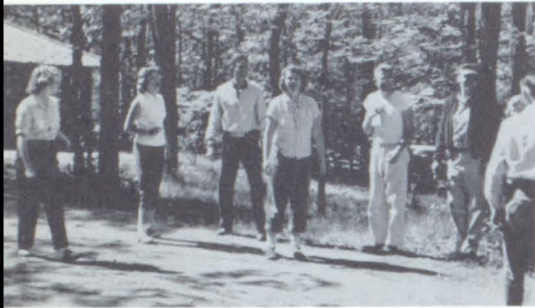

These lonesome soles are cast aside for the evening in favor of dancing.

THE PICNIC

The boys are examining the bright new Dodges.

Left: A group of us enjoying the raw egg-throwing contest.

Right: The seniors busily trying to get coke out of a nipple in the bottle contest.

The Senior Picnic is sponsored by Fobes-Fadely, Dodge and Plymouth dealers of Greenwood. This is their second year in Greenwood and the second year they have taken the seniors on an all day picnic to the park of their choice.

They chose May 8 at Turkey Run this year and were transported in a fleet of 1955 hard-top Dodges.

The weather man came up with a cool, sunshiny day so the seniors could enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. After a sumptuous lunch of ham, potato salad, baked beans, tomatoes, potato chips and all the trimmings they hiked on some of the many trails for which Turkey Run is noted. Upon their return, and after a refreshing soft drink - of which there was a plentiful supply, games and contests with prizes were enjoyed.

After a hamburger fry the party regrettably headed home with full stomachs, sore muscles and happy memories.

THE TRIP

For the past seven years Mr. Harvey Davis, Ford dealer in Greenwood, has sponsored a trip to Southern Indiana and Kentucky.

A greyhound bus with signs on each side reading: "Seniors of 1955, Greenwood, Indiana," headed south on Friday, May 13 with twenty-six seniors, two sponsors, Mr. Davis and Mr. Dove, the bus driver.

Songs and laughter whiled away the traveling time and before long Clifty Falls State Park loomed in sight. After a delicious dinner at the Inn they returned to North Vernon for an afternoon of skating and bowling.

In the evening after dinner a drive into Kentucky and around the park was enjoyed. Upon returning to the Inn, dancing playing cards, and scrabble were enjoyed. After all this activity the over-stimulated adrenal glands kept working and sponsors were kept busy suppressing giggles for many hours.

On Saturday a tour of the Hanover Campus, a visit to the Lanier Home in Madison, and dinner at the Inn completed the two-day excursion and a bus of half exhausted but still-eager-for-a-good-time seniors headed for Greenwood.

Left: Snapped as the seniors gathered for dinner in the dining room of the Inn.

SENIOR

DINNER

What can you say about a cake except that it looked fancy and very delicious.

These are the moms who prepared the food for our Senior Dinner. The food was the best.

The Seniors line up at the chow line and the food really begins to disappear.

The Seniors paused long enough for this picture to be taken. From all of the smiling faces you can see that a grand time was had by all.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The group enjoys the first dance to the tune of the theme song.

The Seniors were feted with the annual Reception this year by members of the 1956 class. The Junior-Senior affair was held at the I. U. Medical Center in Indianapolis.

After a well-prepared dinner everyone enjoyed hearing short talks by the Junior and Senior class presidents and Principal, M. Dale Baughman.

Moonlight and Roses, the theme of the evening was carried out through decorations and music by Earl Newports Band.

Dancing until midnight was enjoyed by all.

Chico Tinkle, President of the Junior Class, gives the welcome to Seniors and guests. Donna Gibson, his date, sits quietly by.

Connie Adams, Don Stretchberry's date, listens as he responds to the welcome on behalf of the Senior Class.

Bob Fee, Judy Jordan, Rick Haugh, and Alice Thompson are the first to be served punch in the ballroom.

Music this year was furnished by Earl Newport and his nine piece band. Rosemary Hinkle served as vocalist.

BACCALAUREATE

Rev. Cook, Minister of the Greenwood Christian Church, gave the principal address at Baccalaureate services on Sunday, May 22, 1955. The title of his remarks to the Class of 1955 was "Tomorrow is Yours."

The Greenwood High School Chorus, under the direction of Jerry Holeman, rendered two numbers during the Sunday night services. The first was "Halls of Ivy" and the last was "Show Me Thy Way, O Lord."

The Seniors have just marched in to the processional music and are awaiting the start of services. Four different church ministers participated in the Baccalaureate Exercises. All members of the class listened intently as Rev. Cook challenged us to take advantage of all opportunities offered us in the world of tomorrow.

COMMENCEMENT

The Senior class of 1955, in their royal blue robes, have just received their diplomas from Superintendent Stanley Porter and are ready to end their high school careers by changing their tassels to the left side.

Dr. Robert B. Pierce of the Broadway Methodist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana delivered the Commencement Address, titled "Bring Me A Dream." White carnations, the class flower, were furnished by Abbott's Men's Shop to the seniors, their mothers, and all honored guests.

Don Abell gets a little help getting his tie straightened and his robe put on by his classmates.

Dave Lasiter pins a carnation on his mother.

Donna Gibson and Eugene Crouch walk their last steps as seniors of G. H. S.

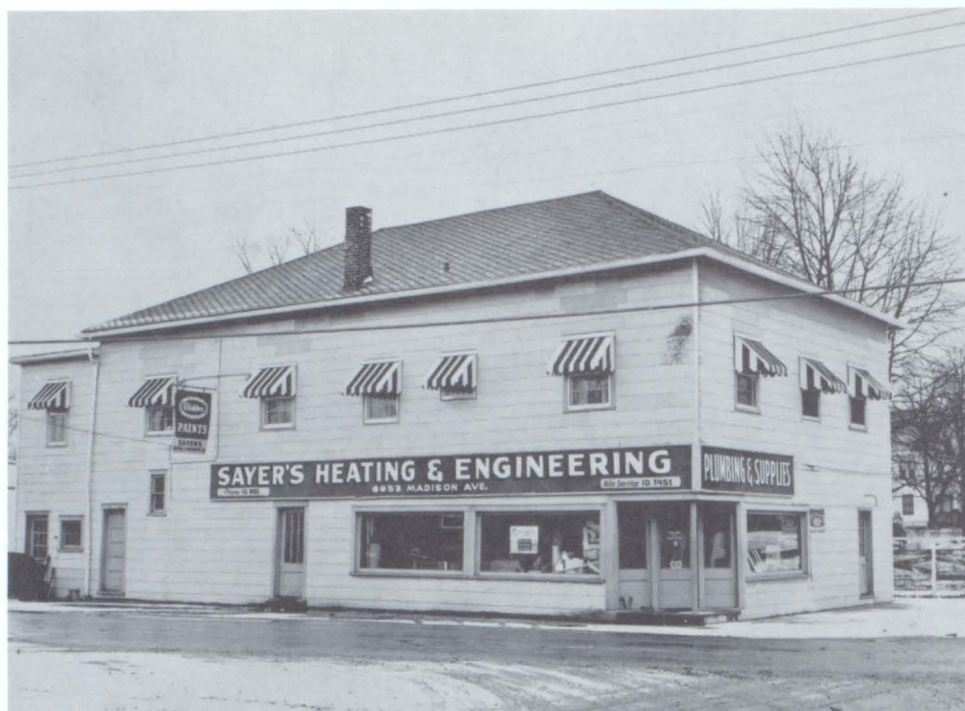

ADVERTISEMENTS

The Senior Class of 1955 wishes to express its appreciation and thanks to the Merchants whose contributions made this annual possible.
