A MOMENT OF YOUTH . . .

Youth is a period of time when one must accept the challenge presented by life. It is a time which reveals the onward motion or the sudden departure of our thoughts . . . the majestic victory—or the lost dream. It is a time as eternal as the ocean, yet swift as violent storms. It is a time between a dream and fulfillment; dawn and dusk; victory and defeat; hope and despair. It is a time of never-ending responsibility, loneliness, and confusion; at the same time it is an interlude of fun, activity, and excitement.

Yet youth is not merely a dream, but reality. It is a day at school, a dance, or even a quiet night of study. It is the "flighty Freshmen" or the "sophisticated Senior".

But youth is ours just for a moment. Like time, it shall never cease nor slow down; but shall travel on forever.

THE HOMECOMING PARADE . . .

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Joyce Jones, Beverly Bryant, Janie Rawlings, and Linda Rawlings.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: Cheryl Steele, Joyce Adams, and Marcy Sluss.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT: Bob Buchanan.

THE HOMECOMING FLOATS . . .

Sophomores took first in the float competition.

Juniors came in second with "Ole Plugs Lost Their Spark."

The Senior class nominee won the queen competition this year. The Sophomore class brought in a first in the float contest with the Juniors coming in second.

Something new this year was the Bachelor-of-the-year contest with four nominees from the Senior class. The winner this year was Randy Ferrand.

THE HOMECOMING QUEEN . . .

AND THE HOMECOMING GAME.

Randy Ferrand carries the ball.

Coach Scotten gives the players a few pointers.

The Homecoming game, normally played on a Friday night, was rained out and played the following night, but the Pigskin Prom still took place that Friday. Greenwood's opponent was Speedway, and the final score was twenty-eight to zero in Speedway's favor.

HARVEST MOON BALL CLOSED AUTUMN ACTIVITIES

King and queen candidates Kevin Kroger and Patty Setser, Everett Parrish and Jane Rawlings, Arnold Kroger and Linda Nicely, Randy Ferrand and Janet Robertson awaited the exciting announcement of the king and queen.

Randy Ferrand and Janet Robertson looked thoughtful as the photographer caught them unaware of his presence.

Don Morning and Elaine Stevens did not want the evening to come to an end.

LeeEllen Sympton enjoyed a laugh with her escort as the magic of the dance cast its spell.

On the evening of November twelfth, approximately 200 students danced to the dream music of "The Sensations" in the G.H.S. cafeteria. Blue and white crepe paper streamers adorned the candle lighted tables. Climaxing the Ball was the crowning of queen Linda Nicley and king Evertt Parrish. Starry eyed couples left the Ball carrying their printed dance programs as mementoes of a delightful evening.

MELODRAMA PRESENTED AT CHRISTMAS CONVO

"The Trials of Santa—Past and Present" was the title of the annual Christmas convocation presented by the Hi-Y. Narrator George Koch delighted the audience by his serious attitude as the melodrama unfolded. The first scene was that of a gangster war; the second scene satirized the Christmas truce in Vietnam. Mike Neely, dressed as Santa Claus, concluded the convo with the traditional presentation of gifts to club sponsors. The program ended on a note of hilarity as Mike offered several renditions on his guitar.

Jim Freeman shakily attempted to aim his gun at gangster Larry Falconberry.

Mr. Keith Conrow was very amused at Mr. Melvin Smith's unusual gift.

Santa Claus besought the U.S. soldiers and Viet Cong to lay down their weapons for the Christmas truce.

Steve Peak used a little friendly persuasion on Dave Neal.

PEP SESSIONS INCREASED SPIRIT AND ENTHUSIASM

Woodman Jim McGuire fought to the finish . . .

and won.

Senior varsity cheerleader, Joyce Jones, led the school in a yell.

Pre-game pep sessions helped boost the team spirit and increase enthusiasm among the students. At most of the pep sessions different classes put on skits; the coaches talked to the student body; and the varsity and reserve cheerleaders led the students in yells and songs.

HISTRIONIC EFFORTS REQUIRED ABILITY

Gary Morrison, portraying the king in the one-act play "The Ugly Duckling", did a soliloquy before the student audience.

Jon Hoffman listened intently as Miss Lint gave some pointers on acting during rehearsal for the three-act play "Pillow Talk."

Linda Rawlings rehearsed the female lead for the play "Pillow Talk."

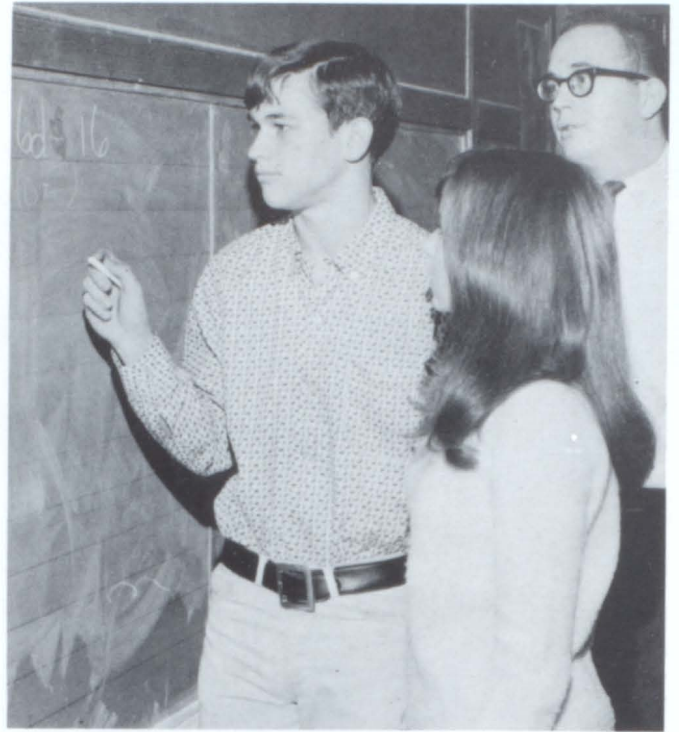

A MOMENT OF ACADEMICS . . .

is a period of time in life in which the student cultivates his mind and furthers his search for knowledge. It is a serious moment, intermingled with hope, pride, laughter, and enthusiasm. It is a moment which may pave the way to college or to an important role in life. It is a moment in which leaders are formed and the future shaped. This moment is important—this moment is ours.

MATH STUDENTS TESTED HYPOTHESES

Both Mr. William Mellencamp and Rick Burton questioned Ama Graves' mathematical efforts.

Phil Mize showed Debbie Robbins an equation as Mr. John Irons looked on approvingly.

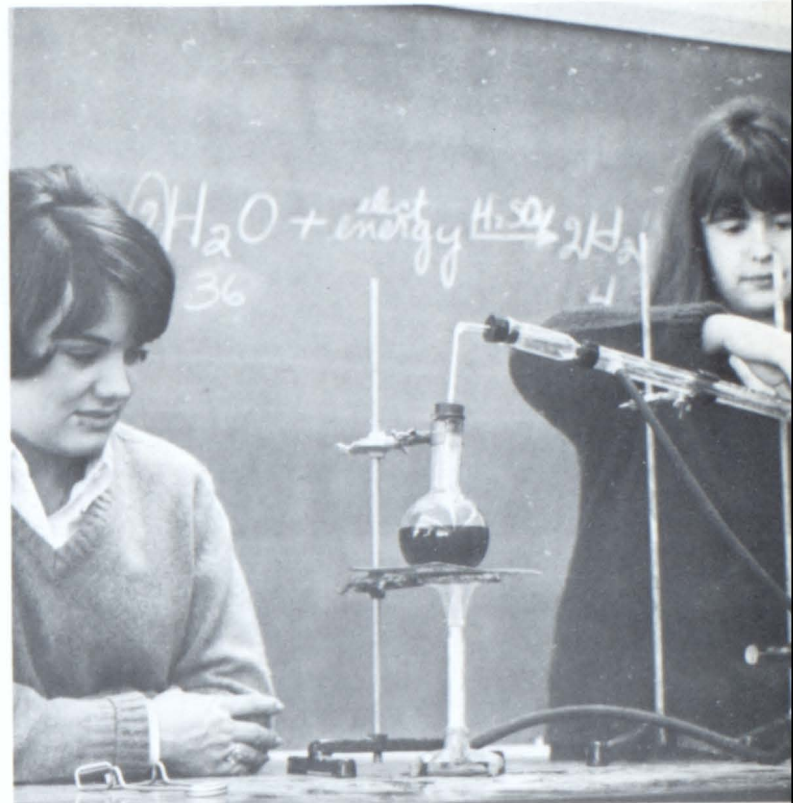

Susan Hiatt, Karen Hodges, Steve Heining, and Steve Adwell displayed the geometrical instruments necessary in their study of geometry.

THE WORLD OF DISCOVERY LOOKED BRIGHT

Jerry Small and Teresa Browning experimented with sound waves in physics class as Mark Loveless and Jeff Dawson looked on.

Ginger Alvey and Lana Critchfield purified water in chemistry class.

Larry Edwards and Gary Falconbury dissected a grasshopper in Mrs. Wood's biology class.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AIDED CULTURAL INTEREST

Apparently, these Spanish students were pleased with their test grades.

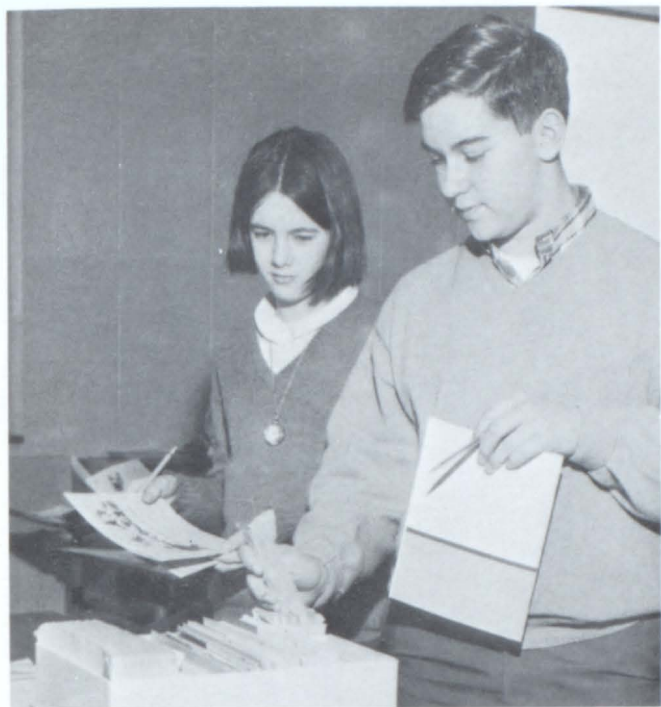

French translation posed questions for Billy Allen, Sally Kingery, and Sheila Johnson.

The study of ancient Roman life was meaningful to Debbie Hinkle and Kim Murphy.

ENGLISH CLASSES STRIVED FOR COMMUNICATION

Eighth graders Stanley Minnick and Mary Young were only two English students from the many who tried to improve their reading skills by using the SRA laboratory.

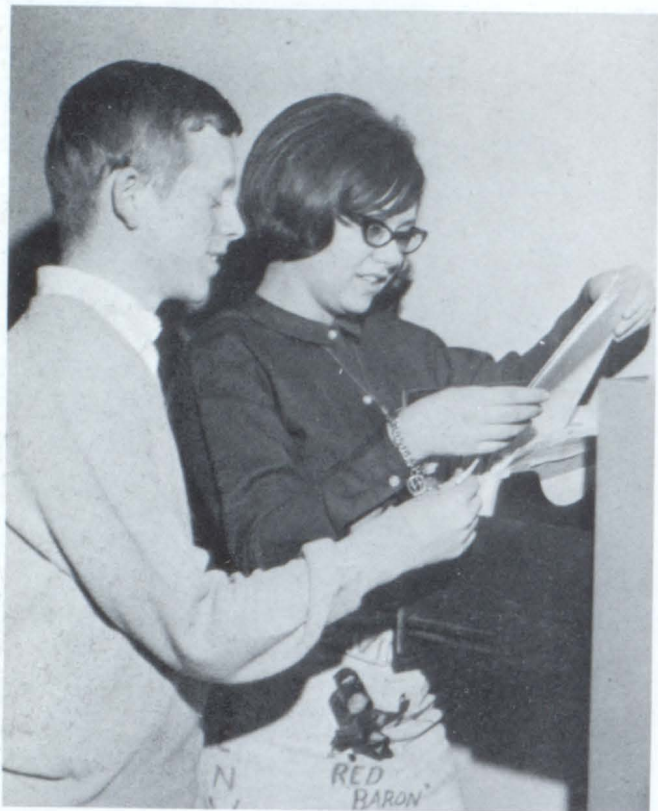

Mrs. Sandra Thomas made vocabulary lessons exciting to her students by playing "Password."

Emily Burdsall appeared forlorn as she received a graded composition from instructor, Mrs. Betty Mellencamp.

JOURNALISM HELPED PREPARE FUTURE WRITERS

Dan Niles and Cindy Strange looked over news copy in anticipation of an upcoming presentation on WIFN radio.

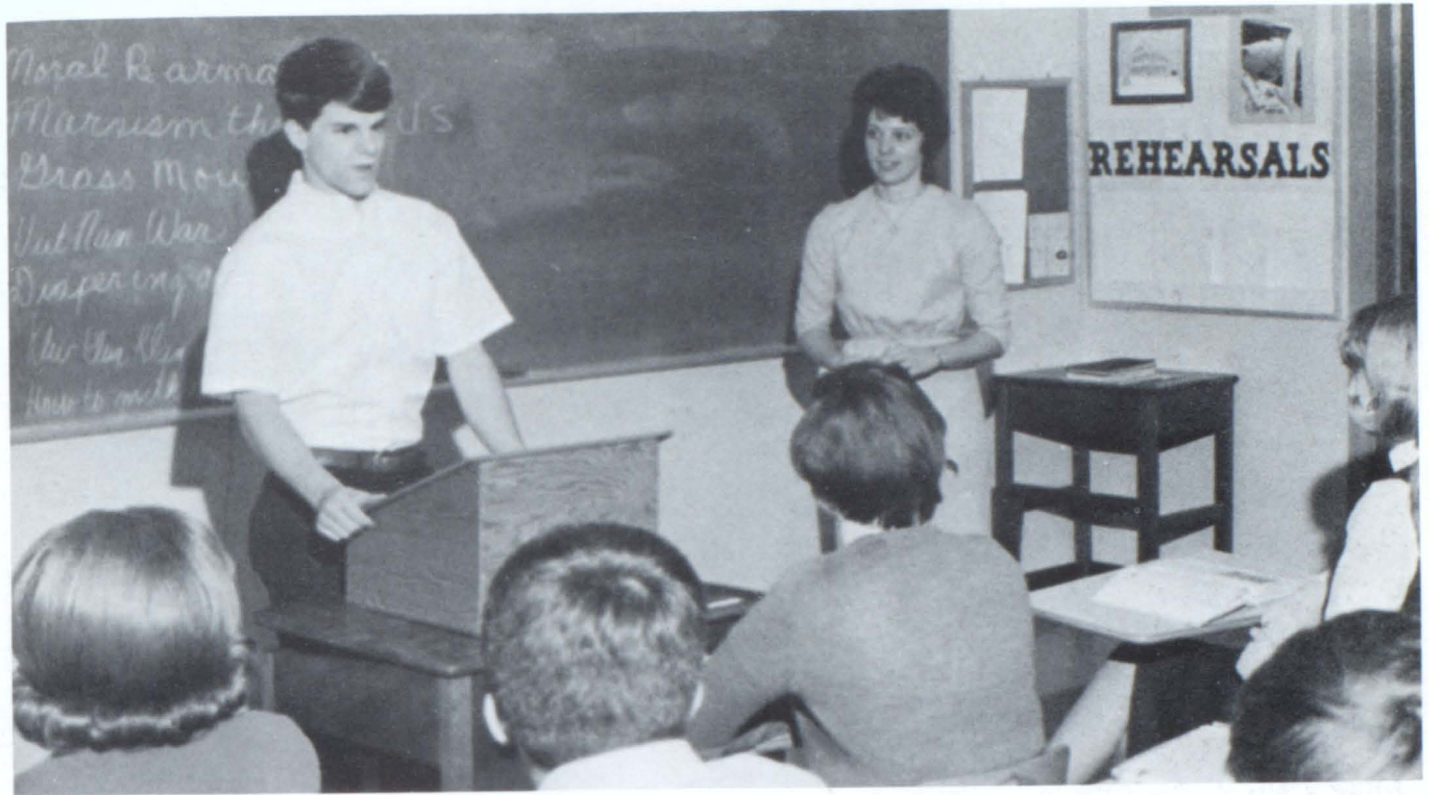

Betty Roth, Cindy Strange, and Marvin Thompson looked over the page balance on the school newspaper mimographing stencil.

While preparing for an actual situation, Jim Freeman interviewed journalism cohorts Pat Williams and Mackie McNeal.

FUTURE ORATORS AND ACTORS REHEARSED

David Zimmer delivered an inspiring speech to his classmates as Miss Lint listened attentively.

Mrs. Jill Miller's freshman literature class was exciting when students volunteered to interpret dramatically the stories which they had read.

Marcia Bandy, Billie Benefield, and Larry Brown demonstrated their acting ability during dramatics class.

HISTORY BROADENED SOCIAL PERSPECTIVE

Junior Class members paused for a "breather" after a vigorating, but knowledgeable day at the Indiana State House in Indianapolis.

Mr. Melvin Smith's sociology class discussed and researched current problems of today's societies.

Connie Russell and Alan Thomas, under the supervision of Mr. Vaino Grayam, were two of the many students who observed the threatening progress of Communism.

NATION'S HERITAGE INSPIRED STUDENT IDEALS

Megan Price, Marion Young, Connie Brock, and Debbie Neal prepared to hang pictures depicting early American life.

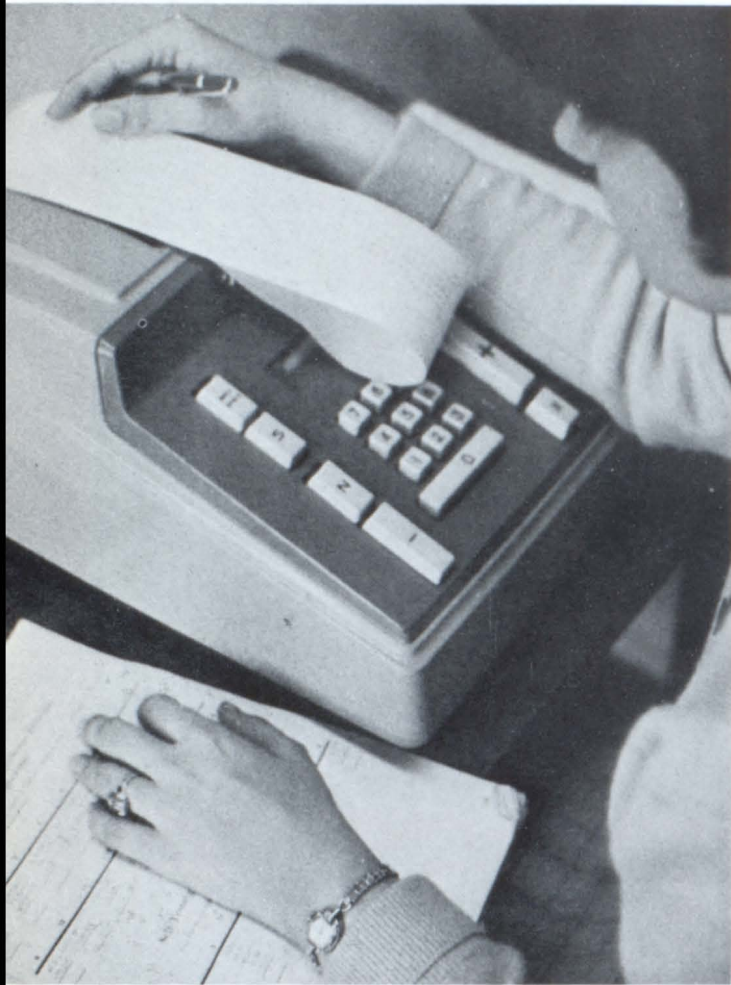

Mr. Oswalt handed out the new Indiana history books to his seventh graders.

Diane Woempner pointed out the coast of Africa as Mr. DeHart and Dave Richardson looked on.

BUSINESS CLASSES WERE METHODICAL

The long-hand method of adding was solved by Diana Jameson as she employed the service of an adding machine.

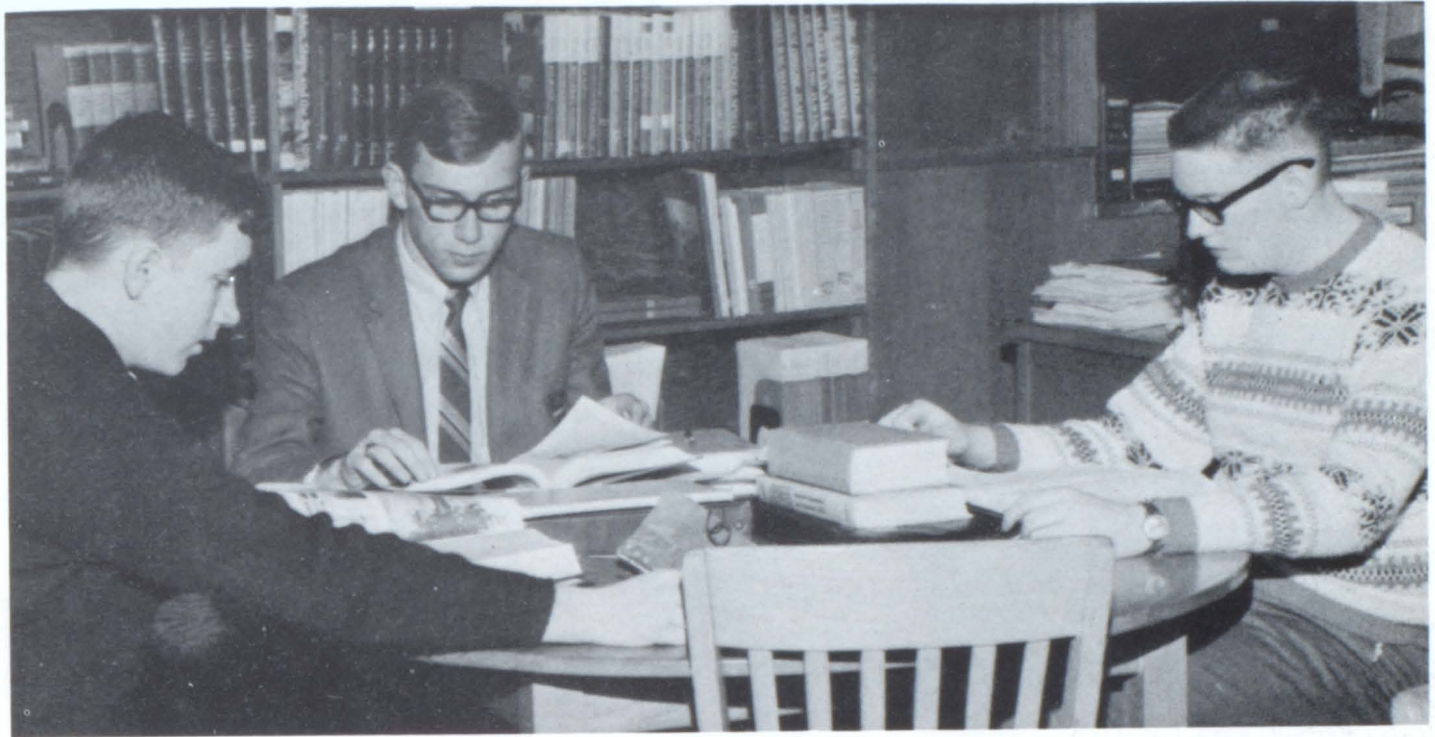

Mrs. Ann Hays set the alarm clock while the girls made ready for a timed writing.

Kenny Apel sampled a piece of cake at the Commerce Club's bake sale. Proceeds of the bake sale were used for the business scholarship.

SCHOOL LIBRARY PROVIDED KEY TO THE ARTS

Bob Buchanan, Steve Summers, and Steve Peak used the reference section of the library in writing their term papers and in preparing their speeches.

Varieties of sketchings, water colors, and origami were placed on display by art students Zane Harley, Kathy Wiggins, and Gail Kramer.

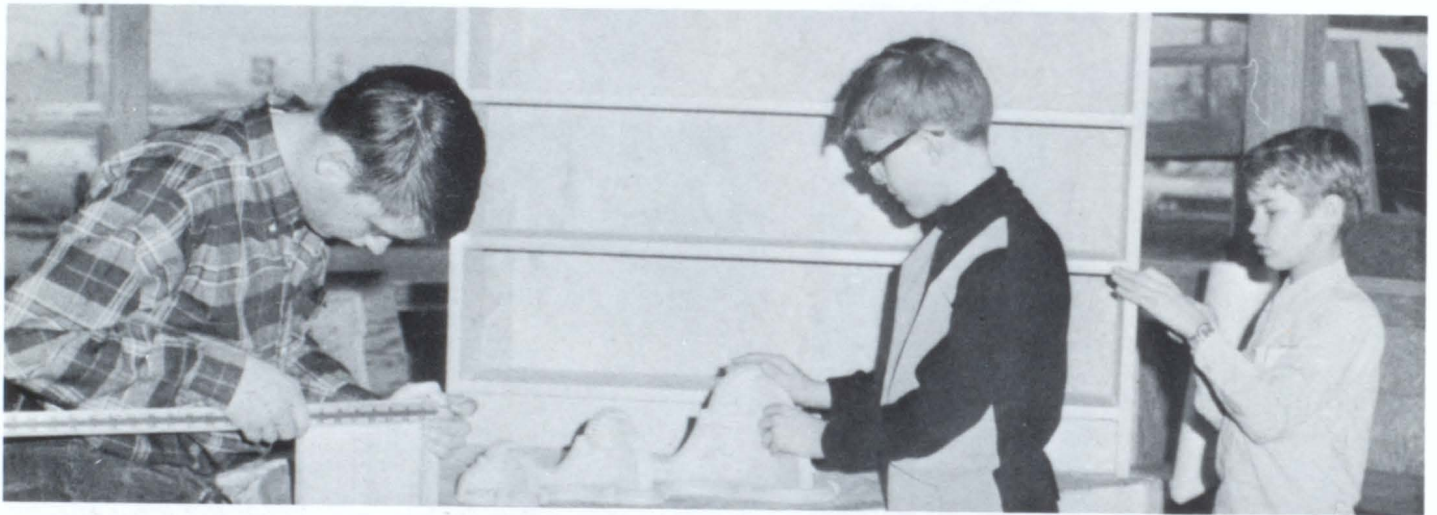

Mauna Murray was attired appropriately as she cheerfully sculptured a frog.

CREATIVITY WAS THE GOAL OF SHOP STUDENTS

Mike Davidson attempted to be creative in GHS' newly formed ceramics class.

Jim Davis measured his soon to be completed book end, while Mark Woodworth and Steve Bornhorst put the finishing touches on their ornament shelf and bookcase.

T-squares and triangles were employed by Gary Griffin and Keith Brownlee as they constructed a three dimensional drawing of a model car.

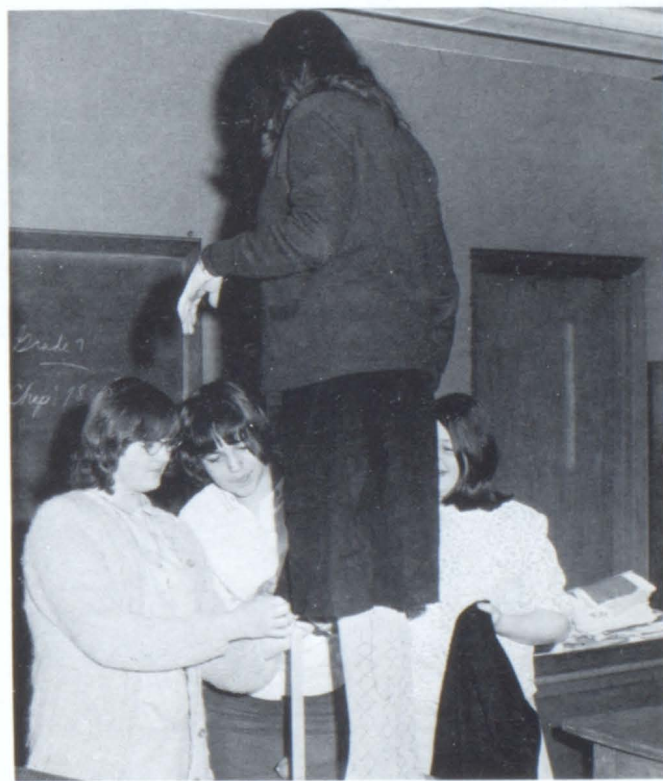

HOME ECONOMICS TAUGHT PRACTICAL SKILLS

Miss Helen Schafer showed Debbie Harrison and Sue Cox the correct way to use an electric stove.

Mrs. Alice Wood and Miss Elizabeth Yackish, a student teacher, assisted Janet Peavler in matching plaids.

Debbie Stanley stood patiently while Della Reading, Kay Milburn, and Vickie Whitaker measured the length for her new skirt.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION REACHED NEW HORIZONS

Perhaps, these young ladies may become the first women astronauts!

Mr. Jack Nay gave pointers to Mike Ray during a session in driver's education.

The art of tumbling posed a topsy-turvy problem for this young man.

GYMNASTICS KEPT STUDENTS IN SHAPE

"One, Two, Three, all together now," shouted the captain for the seventh grade physical education class.

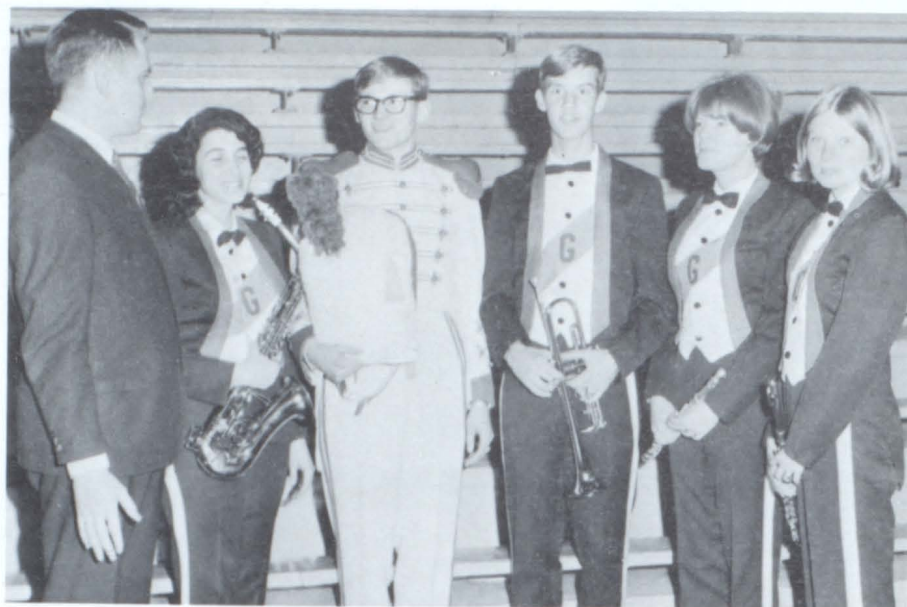

This would be student found his way to the gym. Mrs. Carolyn Nay's love for animals would not let this little fellow go thirsty.

This young man would not be eligible for the Miss America Contest, but he did know how to do a cart wheel.

G.H.S. MUSIC DIGNITARIES WERE BUSY PEOPLE

Band officers, Mr. David VanVeld, Teresa Browning, Mike Bandy, Warren Miller, Linda Kelly, and Cyndi Crump posed with their instruments.

Head Majorette Elaine Stephens and Drum Major Mike Bandy went over a song arrangement for a half-time show.

Choir officers Tom Johnson, Ginger Alvey, Norm Crail, Jon Hoffman, and Linda Retz leafed through the Indiana State Choral Festival List.

MELODIES ECHOED THROUGH THE HALLS OF G.H.S.

A MOMENT OF CLUBS

This was a moment apart from the academic life during school. It was a moment when the student shared with others while he learned how to participate and shoulder new responsibilities. By participating actively, students gained new interests and took part in social activities, money-making projects, and student services.

INDUSTRIAL ART CLUB SERVED SCHOOL

First row: Larry Falconbury, Rex Edwards, Dennis Marsh, Bill Phelps, Ray Beckner, Eddie Frederick, Terry Bowden, Jerry Rowe, Mr. Robert Thomas.

INDUSTRIAL CLUB OFFICERS: Mr. Robert Thomas, sponsor; Rex Edwards, Larry Falconberry, Ray Beckner, and Rex Boner.

To offer additional enlightenment for the students was the primary objective of the Industrial Arts Club.

The group became acquainted with the world of industry by taking several field trips to nearby factories.

Membership was limited to the top ranking students in the classes who were interested in the field.

HONOR SOCIETY RECOGNIZED ACHIEVEMENT

First row: Kathy Hakes, Steven Dilk, Cheryl Stiver, Frances Thompson, and Mr. Melvin Smith, sponsor. Second row: Steve Peak, Cindy Yenowine, Linda Rawlings, Janet Lazor, Cindy Strange, Jeanette Kingery, Diane Jameson, and Becky Miller. Third row: Bob Buchanan, James Reynolds, Andy Richey, David Neal, Janet Jones, Sharon Shrock, and Anne Lee.

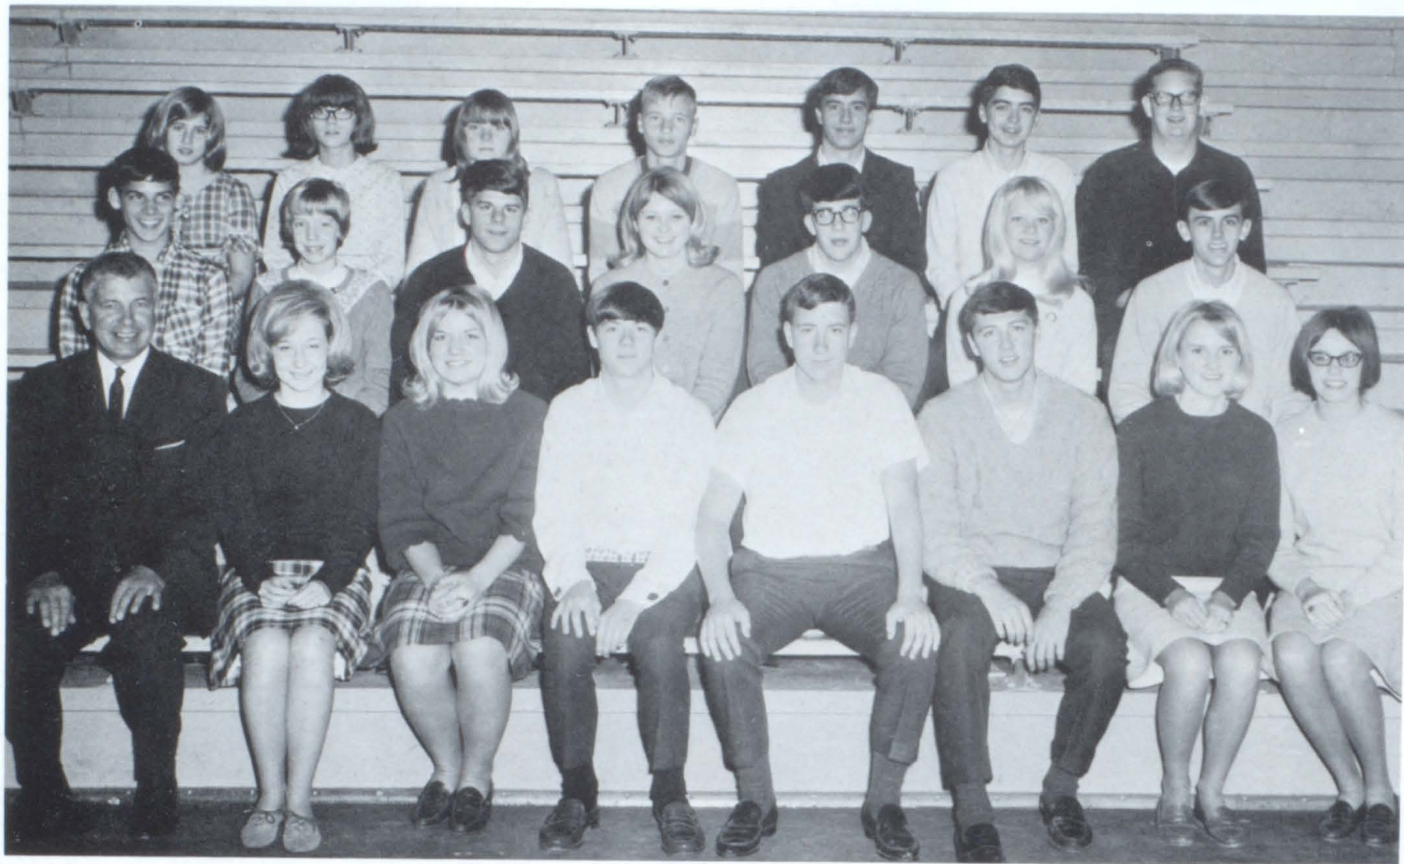

Mr. Thomas Jordan, Indiana University representative, spoke to interested students at the annual college night program.

Members of the National Honor Society set a new precedent by having a coat check at home basketball games. GHS supporters welcomed this innovation.

New initiates of the National Honor Society were taken into active membership during an impressive convocation at the end of March. The initiates were selected on the basis of character, scholarship, service, and leadership.

COUNCIL PROMOTED CONSTRUCTIVE PROJECTS

The Student Council strived to create a well-informed student body. The Council also sought students with sound ideas by periodically sending class Council representatives into the homerooms. The Council members then discussed various activities and listened to student comments.

A Gestetner duplicating machine was purchased for the office by use of Council funds. They also proposed a new honor roll system and planned convocations for the on-coming year.

CHOIR AND CHORALAIRES PLACED FIRST

LETTERMEN DEVELOPED NEW AWARD SYSTEM

First row: George Koch, Mike Neely, Jeff Dawson, Jeff Mitchell, Bob Buchanan, Dave Neal, Andy Richey. Second row: Ron Morning, Rex Edwards, Rex Boner, Randy Ferrand, John Abell, Gary Gaede, Ron Morning, Rick Beason, Dean Finecy. Third row: Larry Falconbury, Kenny Apel, Bill Watters, Marv Thompson. Fourth row: Mike Layton, Mike Bandy, John Fisherkeller, Stephen McGrew, Wes Downton, Mackie McNeal. Fifth row: Norman Crail, John Gunn. Sixth row: Michael Davidson, Rick Allen. Seventh row: Jim Winegar, Scott Groff. Eighth row: John Roberts, Duke Woolen. Ninth row: Larry Edwards, Bob Beason. Tenth row: Gary Falconbury, Larry Jackson, John Birdcell, Steve Snyder, Everitt Parrish, John Bass, Charles Treadwell, Jeff Dougherty. Eleventh row: Jim Rankin, Marty Richey, Larry Cooper, Kenny Hudson, Bob Whiteside, Pat Williams, Tony Collins.

Lettermen, Mike Neely and George Koch, look over the new awards system with sponsor, Mr. Scotton.

Inaugurating a new award system demanded much time and considerable effort on the part of G.H.S. lettermen. In the past, an athlete earned several letters in different sports. Because his letters were not in the same sport, he was not eligible for a jacket. Under the new system a boy earns only one letter. After he has his letter, he accumulates a specified number of points which allow him to receive a jacket. Juniors are now able to have jackets. The new jackets do not differentiate one sport from another. All lettermen jackets are now exactly alike.

G.A.A. PROVIDED FOR GROUP PARTICIPATION

First row: Brenda Woempner, Arita Westlake, Cindy Yenowine, Sandy Willoughby, Linda Retz, Cathy McClain, Elaine Stephens, Frances Thompson, Diana Towles, Nancy Colwell, Sue Stretchberry, Ginger Alvey, Marsha McClain, Jill Fisher, Pam Miles, Becky Perry, Bev Bryant. Second row: Marcia Youmans, Jodi Beville, Carol Lee, Glenda Logan, Marcia Bandy, Linda Rawlings, Betty Roth, Kea Hardisty, Susan Scheib, Janet Jones, Becky Miller, Patti Riggles, Dixie Jackson, Joyce Jones, Linda Carter, Debbie McNulty, Suzy Surina. Third row: Debbi Threlkeld, Joyce Adams, Adele Montgomery, Linda Herrin, Jan Morrow, Elizabeth Jackson, Chris Neese, Trudy Small, Cindy Irwin, Linda Kelly, Cyndi Crump, Dannette Hakes, Sandy Sanders, Cheri Gordon, Ava Graves, Kathy Hakes. Fourth row: Debbie Jones, Joan Morrow, Karen Sowders, Sheila Johnson, Sherry Garrett, Brenda Daugherty, Jean McCartney, Linda Petty, Kathy Hacker, Sharon Coleman, Pam Gwynn, Jane Weaver, Donna Cave, Brenda Lee, Vici McGrew, Sherry Carr, Betty Wheat. Fifth row: Sandy Metzler, Jerry Reynolds, Freida Reisner, Debbie Daugherty, Annie Koch, Carole Ferrand, Kathy Noland, Micheale Raphaffmann, Pam Tovey, Shelley Browder, Debbie Robbins, Charlotte Davis, Betty Halsey, Marty McCammon, Jane Mathews, Janie Rawlings, Myrna Allen. Sixth row: Karen Smith, Dee Hacker, Sandy Lakes, Karen Hamilton, Peggy Smith, Sheryl Tindal, Jan Brunner, Marcy Sluss, Debbi Hinkle, Susan Hiatt, Loretta Owen, Vickie Clephane, Gayle Unger, Christi Groff, Bonnie Horton, Deborah Thompson.

Good sportsmanship and interschool activities were again stressed by the Girls' Athletic Association. High school girls were able to participate in such activities as tumbling, tennis, bowling, and badminton.

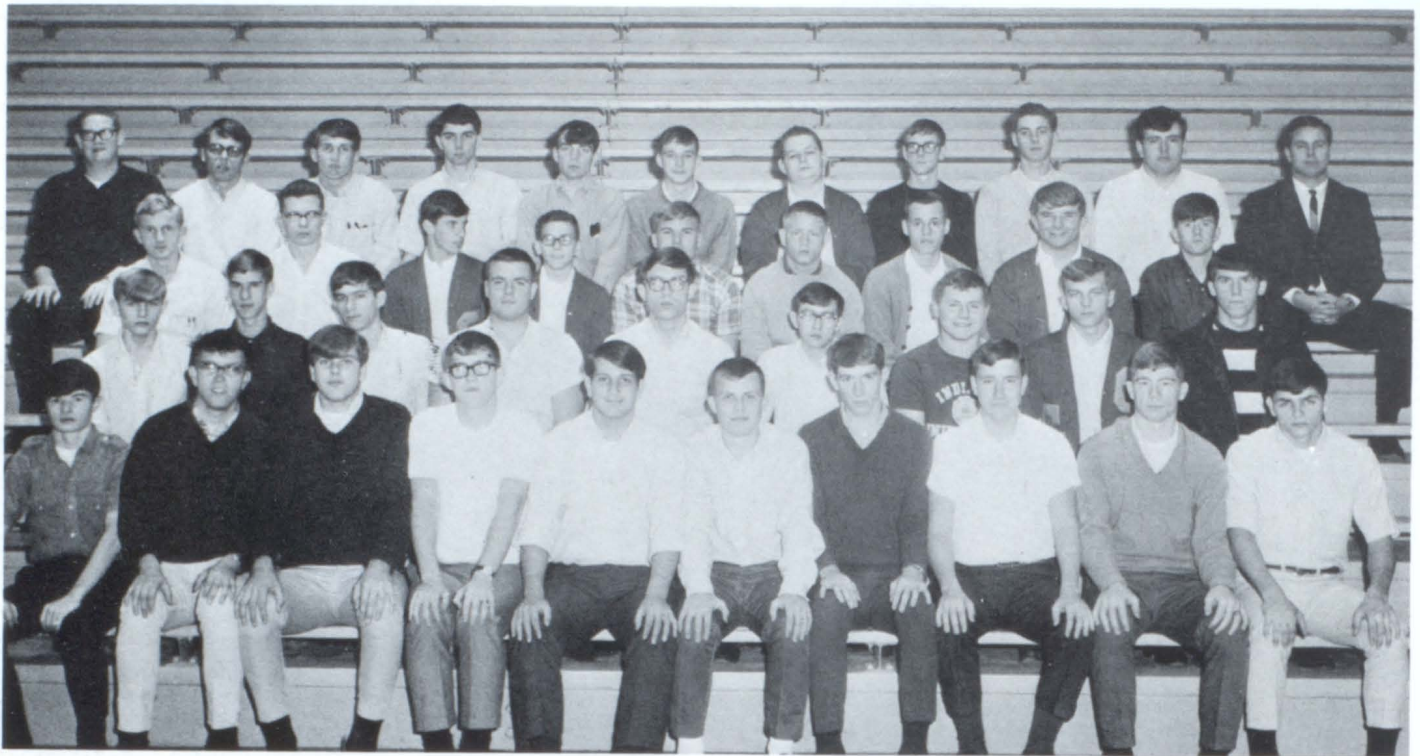

GAA girls held their annual camping trip at McCormick's Creek. Horseback riding, boating, and hiking highlighted their two day stay.

Members brought honors to the halls of G.H.S. as they placed an honorable third in the district volleyball match at Southport.

First row: Kathy Hacker, Frances Thompson, Miss Walker, Carole Ferrand, Annie Koch.

HI-Y PURCHASED NEW WRESTLING MATS

Everything from miniature foot-balls and basketballs to candy sales and dances helped the Hi-Y purchase a new $3,000 wrestling mat.

The initiates were properly inducted into the organization by becoming shoe-shine boys.

One of the most brilliantly planned and entertaining Christmas programs in G.H.S. history was executed by the Hi-Y boys.

Led by President Mike Neely and Mr. Harold Lawson, sponsor, Hi-Y members also participated in "individual effort" exercises, such as cave exploring and friendly athletic competition.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY SERVED COMMUNITY

Community service was the watchword of the Sunshine Society in the past few months.

They brightened many lives at Christmas time by decorating the upper hall and Christmas trees at G.H.S. A bit of cheer was also created at Muskatuk as they sent gifts to their adopted ward. The presentation of gifts to five elderly Greenwood ladies complete SSS's Christmas project.

February saw their annual contribution to the State Sunshine Riley Fund. With April came the trip to their 45 adopted Muskatuk ward patients. They spent the day playing games and taking a train ride with their "children."

The Ideal Woman of the Year was chosen from Greenwood women at the Sunshine Mother and Daughter Banquet. Sunshine charm bracelets were also awarded to the graduating seniors.

The G.H.S. faculty was not forgotten as they were presented their traditional birthday flowers

The Homecoming mums sale, which was the largest ever, and the jewelry sale in February added funds to the SSS treasury.

Through the expert advice of Miss Mary Kaye Wright, sponsor, the SSS observed a busy and rewarding year.

STAFF ADVANCED 'WOODMAN' DELIVERY TO MAY

A small but dedicated WOODMAN staff broke all previous GHS records for advertising and delivery. An energetic sales campaign during September and October served as a stimulant to the yearbook staff.

In spite of earlier deadlines, staffers managed to attend the Inter-Collegiate yearbook conference in September and the Indiana High School Press Association Conference in October. Both of these conferences were held at Franklin College.

It was the sincere hope of the 1967 WOODMAN staff that a May yearbook, rather than a September one, would become a precedent at Greenwood High School.

TIMBERLINES COVERED SCHOOL NEWS

First row: Cindy Strange, Sandi Day, Donna Pottschmidt, Betty Roth, Becky Miller, Tim McClain, Cliff McNulty. Second row: Dan Niles, Jan Strange, Sam Taylor, Judy Nielsen. Third row: Bruce Miller, Pat Williams, Suzy Surina, James Allen, Philip Loos, Mr. Lawson, Marv Thompson, Gerald Herrin, Jim Higdon.

The Timberlines took on a new face as a Gestetner duplicating machine was purchased. Hours of character counting, typing, and laying out sheets were spent by the small, devoted staff. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold Lawson, sponsor, the Timberlines strived to keep its circulation informed of various school functions and subjects of interest to them.

First row: Betty Roth, Cindy Strange, Sandy Day, Jan Strange. Second row: Danny Niles, Bruce Miller, Marvin Thompson, Gerald Herrin.

1968 STUDENT PUBLICATIONS LEADERS NAMED

Dan Niles added a post card communique to the already crowded yearbook bulletin board. Dan will be well prepared to assume the editorship of the 1968 WOODMAN after his year's experience as a 1967 staff member.

Sandra Day, 1968 TIMBERLINES editor, got in practice for her editing duties by typing TIMBERLINES copy.

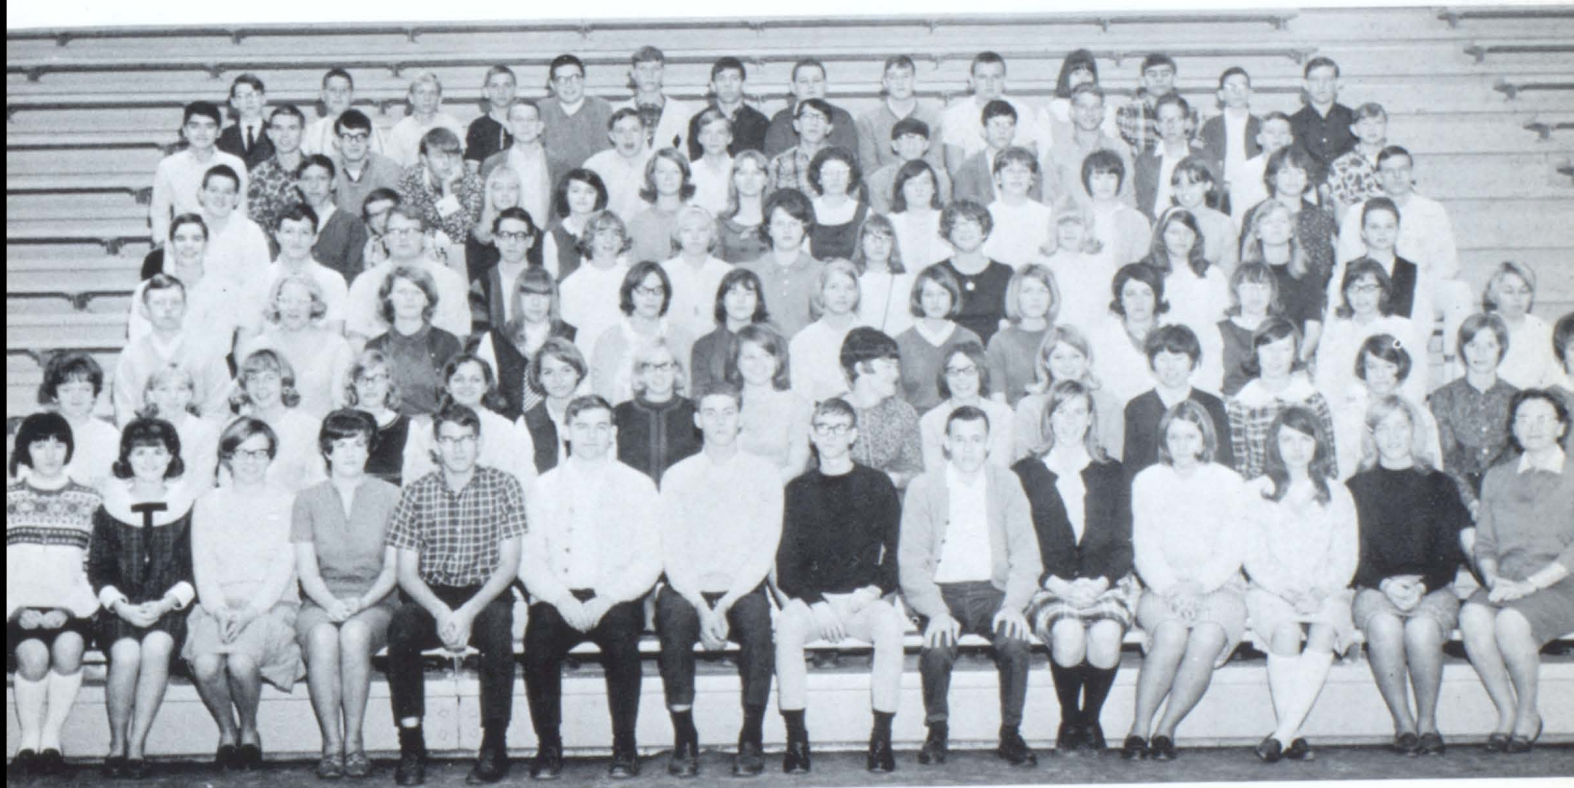

Jim Allen, 1968 student photographer, took advantage of the opportunity to pose for Mr. Byron Nash. Jim hoped that his photography skills would produce "the sweet smell of success" for the 1968 WOODMAN.

LATIN CLUB HELD TRADITIONAL BANQUET

Carrying books, dusting off chairs, wearing hilarious signs, and pushing peanuts with their noses added excitement and humor, not only to the lives of Latin Club members, but to the student body and the faculty as well. The annual slave sale, followed by the Roman Banquet, was the highlight of the Latin Club's activities.

First row: Mrs. Peterson, John Abel, Suzi Surina, Patty Setser. Second row: Gary Gaede, Debbie Robbins, Dannette Hakes.

First row: Sue Lankford, Linda Vanatta, Janet Lazor, Paula Windisch, John Gunn, Tom Jones, Rex Boner, John Abell, Gary Gaede, Suzy Surina, Dannette Hakes, Debbie Robbins, Patty Setser, Mrs. Peterson. Second row: Donna Pottschmidt, Joyce Adams, Linda Herrin, Adele Montgomery, Donna Lasiter, Bechy Miller, Anne Lee, Linda Retz, Cindy Yenowine, Annie Koch, Janie Rawlings, Caroline Randall, Brenda Hume, Jan Brunner, Carole Ferrand, Kathy Noland. Third row: Danny Niles, Jan Steffen, Jan Morrow, Judy Thompson, Jo Ellen Jennings, Sherry Ramsey, Joann Downs, Susan Hiatt, Debbie Hinkle, Loretta Owens, Judy Nielson, Caren Conners, Mary Ann Royce. Fourth row: David Steele, Gordon Crail, Bob Phelps, Kevin Keller, Dee Hacker, Debbie Daugherty, Deborah Thompson, Janet Boren, Karen Sowders, Melinda Burkhart, Peggy Beason, Karen Andrew, Tandra Todd. Fifth row: Mike Schwab, Gary Adams, Bruce Flora, Cheryl Snyder, Debbie Jones, Elaine Bensheimer, Dorothy Phillips, Phyllis Patterson, Joyce Luttrell, Debbie Reese, Brenda Nicely, Martha McCammon, Janice Nielsen, Gary Knott. Sixth row: Kevin Kroger, Greg Morrison, Rick Burton, Lyle Smith, Phil Loos, Bert Kite, Steven Windisch, Greg Thompson, Steve Adwell, Dennis Loveless, Frank Asplund, Mark Fyffe, Denny Gaede, Carl Pendleton. Seventh row: William Howard, David Freshour, Kim Murphy, Steven Heininger, Brent Smith, Sherrill Klutts, Gary Day, Jonathan Byrd, Tom Hayes, Danny Schwab, Lana Critchfield, Scott Groff, Gary Falconbury, John Retz.

MEMBERS OF FRENCH CLUB GAINED POISE

First row: Miss Starr, Jill Fisher, Marsha McClain. Second row: Beck Perry, Sheila Johnson.

The beauty of Paris and the thrill of a Mardi Gras celebration were enjoyed by the members of the French Club this fall. Slides of scenic Paris were shown by Marsha McClain.

The French-speaking students also enjoyed a delicious meal along with a relaxing evening in a French restaurant.

Miss Jacqueline Starr, sponsor, helped pave the way to a truly successful year.

SPANISH CLUB STUDENTS FOLLOWED TRADITION

Active members of the Spanish Club gave their prospective members a full schedule of initiation chores to perform in September. Initiates spent an entire day wearing Spanish garb and speaking Spanish phrases. At the conclusion of that long day, the actives treated the initiates to a party. For the first time in the history of the Spanish Club, the members chose to order membership pins which were shaped like Mexican sombreros. After the Speedway football game, the club sponsored a dance which featured the "Fifth Street West" combo.

First row: Jeff Mitchell, Nancy Hepner, Sandy Metzler. Second row: Mr. Dubbs, Scott Groff.

F.T.A. PROMOTED HIGH IDEALS IN EDUCATION

First row: Mrs. Mellencamp, Wanda Donson, Donna Lasiter. Second row: Daniel Niles, Cindy Strange, Miles Mitchell.

"A Valentine from Your WIFE" highlighted a busy year for the Future Teachers of America. Jay Reynolds, WIFE deejay, helped G.H.S. students and their sweethearts enjoy Valentine's Day 1967. Posters were constructed by the FTA members for National Education Week. These signs were displayed in the halls of G.H.S. and in the stores around Greenwood. The traditional Teacher Appreciation Day made its debut in April. Gum, candy, tiny gifts, and special favors were showered on the G.H.S. faculty. A spring field trip ended the educational and worthwhile year of the FTA'ers.

F.H.A. ENCOURAGED HOMEMAKING GOALS

First row: Cathy McClain, Jean McCartney, Cheryl Stiver, Janet Lazor, Bonnie Parrish, Susie Brown, Debbie Wilcoxon. Second row: Cheri Gordon, Linda Sims, Linda McMillin, Elaine Henard, Pam Hoskins, Alice Wood.

First row: Cheryl Stiver, Janet Lazor, Mrs. Wood. Second row: Jeannie McCartney.

Members of the Future Homemakers worked diligently to promote "further interest in Home Economics and F.H.A." An active membership drive in the fall kept the energetic members occupied. The Senior Homemakers, under the capable guidance of Miss Helen Schafer and Mrs. Alice Wood, undertook the formation of a Junior High F.H.A. Chapter. The new chapter became one of the junior high's most active groups.

Attending the fall and spring district F.H.A. conferences enabled the GHS Homemakers to keep abreast of the latest happenings. F.H.A. members showed their willingness to socialize by sponsoring a sock hop after the Center Grove football game and the Harvest Moon Ball in November. Going to the Home Show in February was the highlight of the second semester's activities.

POLITICAL SCIENCE VIEWED GOVERNMENT

First row: Janet Lazor, Lyle Smith, Cheryl Stiver, Jeff Mitchell, Paul Jones. Second row: Jerry Small, E. O. Davisson, Melinda Burkhardt, Suzi Surina, Lewis Piercey. Third row: Miss S. Peyton, Miles Mitchell, Steve Summers, Bucky Kroger, Mr. M. Smith.

Patriotism was actively promoted throughout the year by the Political Science Club members. A series of intercom programs and convocations helped the club achieve its goal. A better understanding of our country and its government was achieved by studying a series of informative pamphlets and taking a trip to the Indiana State Legislature.

FIELD TRIPS INTERESTED FUTURE SCIENTISTS

First row: Gary Morrison, Andy Richey, George Koch, Jerry Small, Bob Buchannan, Steven Peak, Steve Dilk, Marsha McClain. Second row: John Birdcell, E. O. Davisson, Miles Mitchell, Mark Loveless, Teresa Browning, Cindy Yenowine, Jill Fisher, Becky Perry. Third row: Mr. K. H. Conrow, Dean Finecy, Steven Heinger, William Howard, Jeff Mitchell, Steve Summers, Warren Miller, Adele Montgomery, Donna Lasiter.

Field trips kept the Science Club on the move. They traveled to Weir Cook Airport, Indiana Central Observatory, the Butler Planetarium, and Western Electric. Despite these many activities, the annual Science Fair still remained the club's most important activity.

First row: Marcia Bandy, Janie Rawlings, Linda Rawlings. Second row: Bev Bryant, Miss Lint.

Members of the dramatics club were kept busy both semesters as they prepared for three productions. Their first display of acting ability was presented as a convocation for the student body during the fall semester. It was A. A. Milne's one act comedy "The Ugly Duckling." The screen's adaptation of the three act comedy "Pillow Talk" was the group's major production for the year. It was given in March and was open to the public. The year's final production was the one-act melodrama, "The Pot Boiler." The group presented this melodrama at the April P.T.O. meeting.

LIBRARIANS AND ARTISTS DEVELOPED TALENTS

First row: Kathleen Marmaduke, Brenda Woempner, Marianne Snively, Linda Garrett, Patricia Butrum. Second row: Linda Crowe, Mrs. Sue Herron, Barbara Reynolds, Karen Sowders, Teresa Workman, Sharon Judd, Becky Wood, Lynn Marmaduke, Mrs. Beryl Myers.

From weekly workshops emerged special school projects and other various exhibits assembled by the Greenwood High School Art Club. A special field trip to the John Herron Art Museum was also a part of the club's busy year.

The special project of purchasing new transparencies for the overhead projectors was undertaken by the Library Club. The members, composed of library workers, used past and present club dues to buy the much needed equipment. Occasional staff meetings to discuss library procedures, a Christmas party, and a field trip were a few of the activities on the club's busy schedule.

COMMERCE CLUB SET NEW GOAL

First row: Mrs. Hays, Diane Jameson, Donna Isenthal, Mr. Rosenbaum. Second row: Bonnie Parrish, Sandy Willoughby.

Under its new scholarship program, the Commerce Club gave the most outstanding business student a financial boost through business college. The hard working club raised money for its scholarship by having a cake sale in January and a junior high dance in May. Under the expert guidance and help of business teachers, Mrs. Doris Scroggins and Mr. Morris Rosenbaum, the Commerce Club had a successful year.

DEBATE TEAM HAD EXCITING BEGINNING

Members of the Debate Team were senior high students who devoted much time to sharpening their convincing powers. Under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Carolyn Lint, the Debaters made an impressive debut at G.H.S.

A series of interscholastic debates and a trip to Purdue University for a debate workshop shaped the group's main activities. When given a chance to show its skills, the Team came through with a striking 3 to 1 victory over Indianapolis' Warren Central. At an equally challenging meet the Team tied with the debaters of Ben Davis High School. In January the Team made a good showing at the New Castle Debate Tournament. The affirmative team turned in a 1 and 3, while the negative team tied 2 and 2.

A MOMENT OF COMPETITION

In the course of one year many sports activities took place. From the first football practice to the last baseball game, the joy of winning was great. But even in defeat one found many great assets. In defeat the teams learned from mistakes and reset their goals to higher levels. The teams learned how to accept defeat and how to become greater in spirit. Through athletics men were built resulting from hard work and dedication.

First row: Larry Edwards, George Koch, John Fisherkeller, Steve McGrew, Charlie Treadwell, Mike Neely, Norm Crail, Andy Richey, Randy Ferrand, Wes Downton, Marvin Lee Thompson, Jim Rankin. Second row: Bob Beason, Duke Wollen, Dean Finecy, Larry Falconbury, Don Morning, Kenny Apel, John Layton, Bob Massengale, John Birdcell, Bob Whiteside, Gary Waltz, Mr. Scotten. Third row: Mr. Vandergriff, Kenny Hudson, Mike McNeal, Pat Williams, Dave Neal, Mike Davidson, Larry Cooper, Larry Jackson, Jeff Dawson, Bucky Kroger, Tony Collins, Coach, "Hurricane" Lawson.

THE HARD WORKING VARSITY SQUAD.

Mr. Scotten, Andy Richey, and Mr. Vandergriff plan team strategy.

THE FRESHMEN AND THE 8TH GRADERS

First row: Jim Boren, Guy Groff, Doug Murphy, Rick Burkhart, Terry Friel, Mike McMullin, Doug Pond, Rick DeVore, Dave Fewell, Mike McClain, Mickey James, Steve Hart. Second row: Dave Herrin, Drew Staley, Gary Richards, Mike Robertson, Perry Need, Bill Hensley, Homer Downie, Tim Dilk, Rick Traver, Roger Wood, Mr. DeHart. Mr. Keene not pictured.

THE 7TH GRADE—ONE DAY THE VARSITY

ENDURANCE, FORTITUDE, AND

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM — First row: J. Small, R. Morning, M. Richey, J. Abell, J. Dougherty. Second row: Mr. Doyle, M. Mitchell, J. Gunn, T. Hays, G. Knotts, R. Boner, J. Roberts

The Cross Country team had record breaking runners who helped the team to a fine 7-2 record. Junior, John Gunn broke the individual two mile run with a time of 10:21. An amazing feat of the team was that three other runners also broke the school record of 10:49.

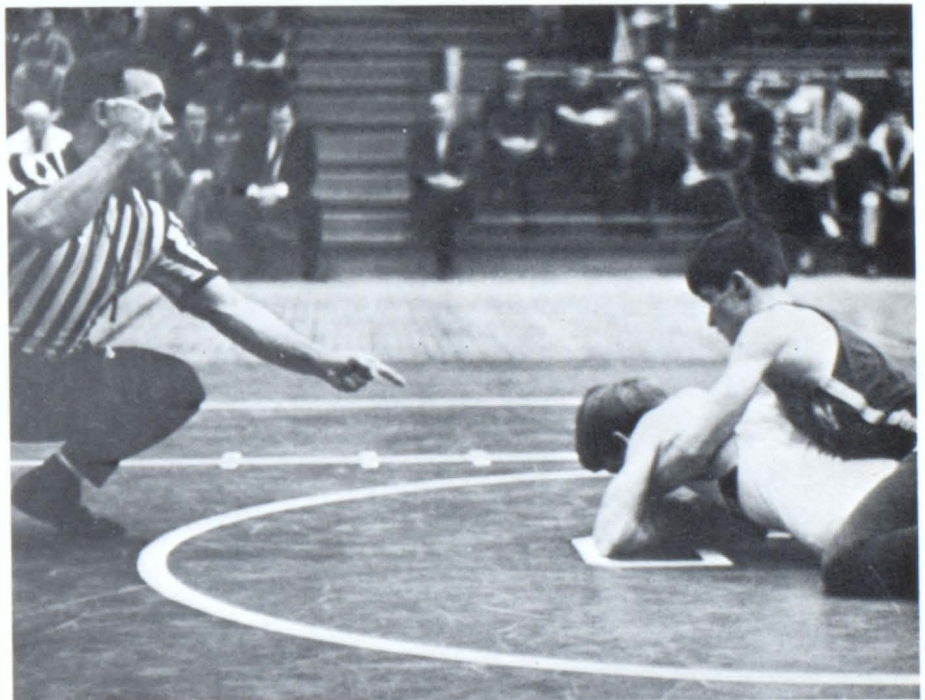

John Gunn compiled a record of eight first places and one second place during the regular season.

SINCERITY MARKED SEASON'S EFFORTS

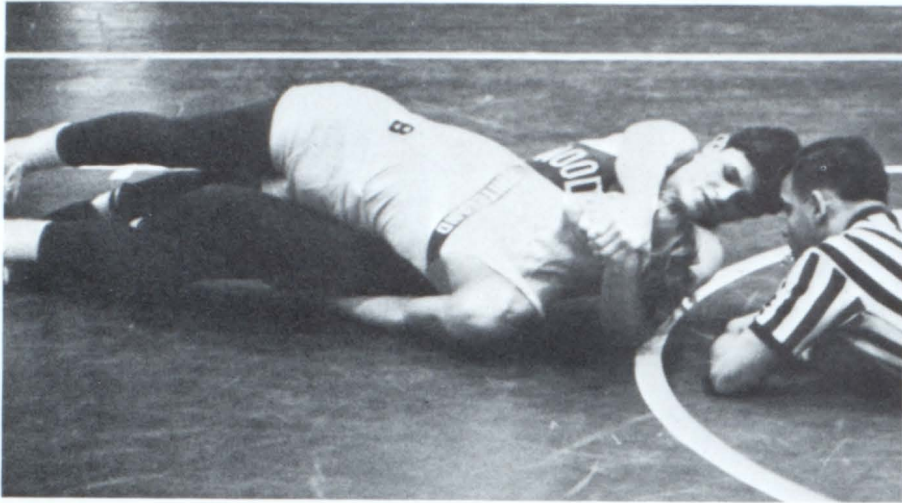

First row: Mr. Lawson, R. Morning, D. Morning, S. McGrew, C. Treadwell, R. Edwards, K. Apel, S. Adwell. Second row: Coach Irons, M. Davidson, M. Lakes, B. Whiteside, G. Gaede, J. Rankin, L. Edwards, G. Falconbury.

The wrestling team enjoyed its first successful season. The team had two outstanding achievements: second in the Johnson County Meet, and individual victories in sectional semi-final competition. Individual success was attained by Steve McGrew with a record of 15-3 and a Mid-State Conference Meet Championship. Also Don Morning achieved a record of 18-3-1.

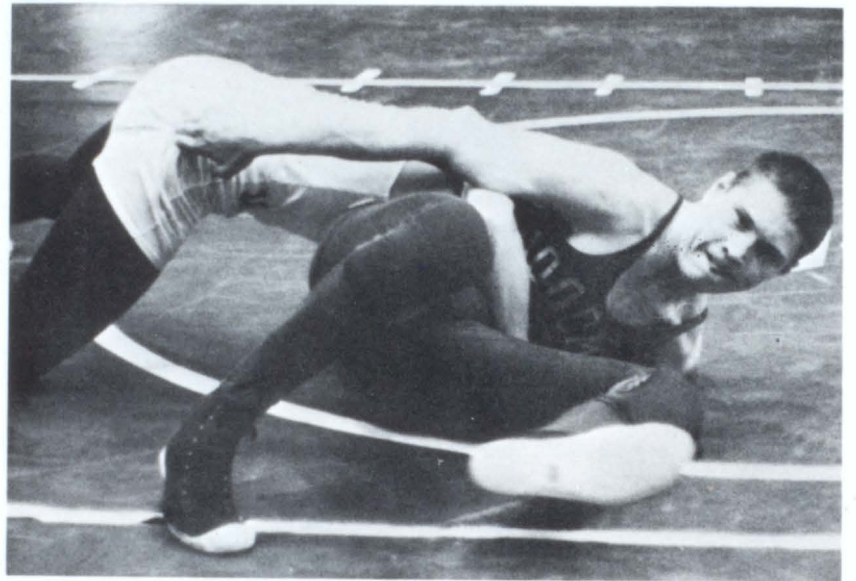

McGrew struggled to increase his point margin.

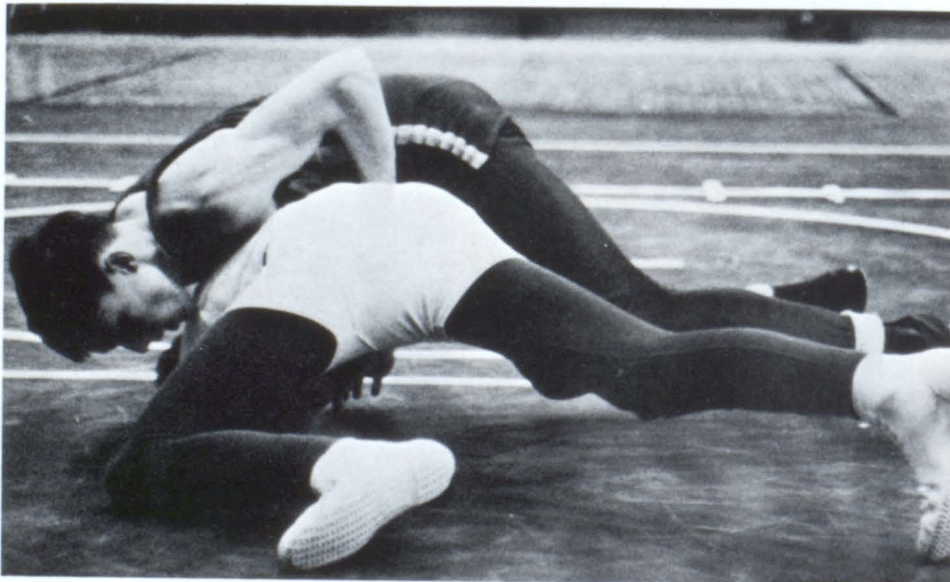

MUSCULAR STRENGTH AND MENTAL COORDINA

Charles Treadwell displayed his agility by outmaneuvering this opponent.

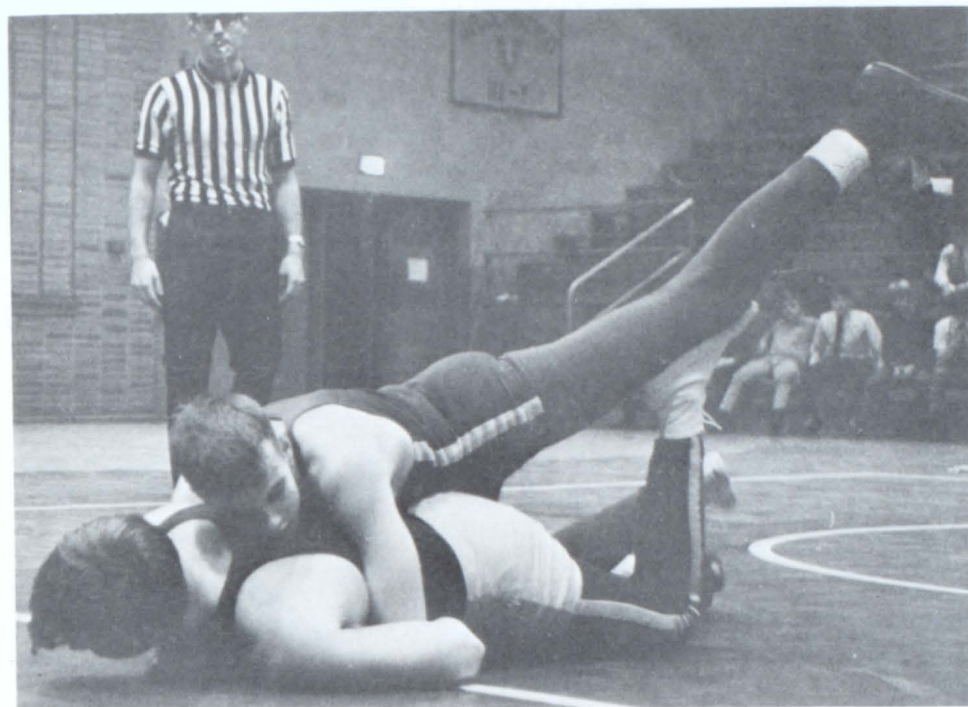

Mike Lakes revealed the agony and destitute of a wrestler.

Jim Rankin checked to see what his opponent had up his sleeve.

TION ARE DEMANDED FOR THIS ANCIENT SPORT

Edwards tried to gain control of his opponent with poise.

First row: T. Davidson, S. Bergman, D. Goetcheus, S. Windisch, D. Gaede, C. Pendleton, L. Overton. Second row: B. Phelps, M. Bunch, B. Stahl, S. Groff, J. McGuire, Mr. Irons, Coach.

YOUNG AND INEXPERIENCED PREPARED FOR FUTURE

First row: E. O. Davisson, R. Ferrand, T. Collins, D. Zimmer, J. Abel, E. Parrish, J. Dougherty, M. Mitchell. Second row: Coach Nay, B. Beason, L. Cooper, G. Koch, R. Boner, D. Neal, J. Bass, J. Higdon, S. Dilk, Assistant Coach DeHart.

The varsity team was young and inexperienced. With only 5 returning lettermen the younger team members were forced to fill the void. Hard work and the capable guidance of coaches Nay and DeHart helped mature and build a team nucleus through the year.

Boner flipped the ball skillfully into the basket as a rough opponent watched in awe.

HOOSIER HYSTERIA ENHANCED SPECTATORS

Parrish dribbled quickly around his pick and set up the play for two points.

Bass leaped high into the air and scored in the game against Franklin.

Koch followed every move made by his man and kept the team fired up.

HUSTLE, DESIRE, AND SPIRIT

Boner maneuvered himself into position for two points.

Koch grabbed the rebound and prepared to whip the ball downcourt.

Ferrand broke through the opponent's defense and layed the ball gracefully into the basket.

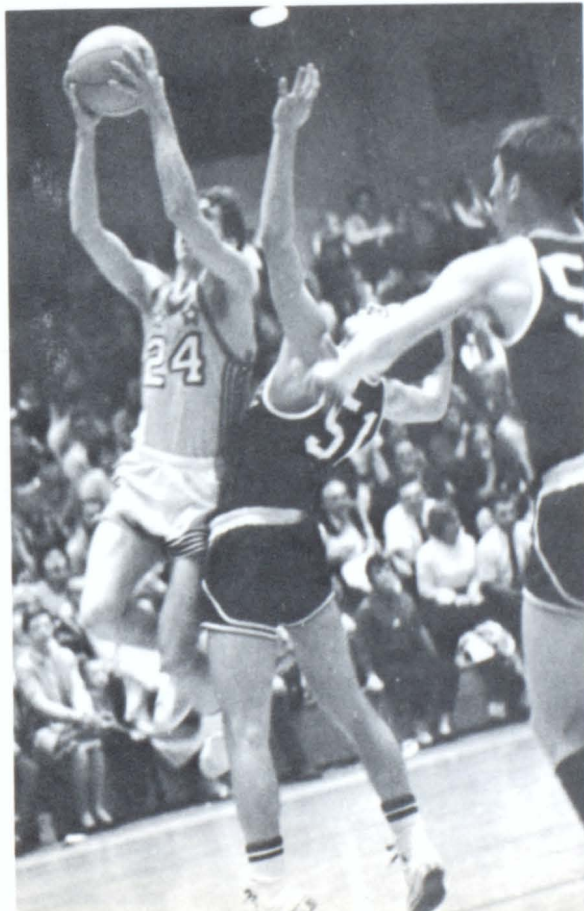

PERSONIFIED TEAMWORK

Ferrand shot his long shot after he had faked out his opponent.

Bass worked his way under the basket and jumped high above his man for the score.

Parrish moved with rapid changes of direction to get his opportunity to score.

PEP SESSIONS HELPED BOOST SCHOOL MORALE

Mrs. Betty Mellencamp portrayed the innocent Spirit of Sectional Victories Past. Mr. Morris Rosenbaum portrayed the Evil Spirit working against the spirit of sectional victories past.

Beth Ann Mellencamp, class of 1979, was intrigued by Diana Towles' musical ability.

"Loyalty", alias Mr. Larry Oswalt, struggled with the Evil Spirit for control of the Woodman as the Spirit of Sectional Victories Past screamed with fright.

RESERVE AND FRESHMAN PREPARED FOR FUTURE

A MOMENT OF SENIORITY

This year was the last year for the class of '67 at Greenwood Community Junior Senior High School. For the Seniors there were special privileges such as going out to lunch, occupying the front row of bleachers at the conventions, and having class keys. Everyone awaited graduation with mixed emotions as we ordered senior pictures, cards, and graduation announcements. This year came only once for the graduating class—and it was one to remember.

Eighth grade, more than any other grade, is important for the change of junior high life to that of the high school. Life in the eighth grade varies from good basketball games to hard experience in science. It's a time when people learn more of themselves and of the people around them. It is an important year all around.

Barbra Rawlings and Beverly South lead booster sections with great vigor.

A MOMENT OF BUSINESS

Sixty-five seniors applied their knowledge of the business world as they sold ads for the 1967 Woodman. Previous classroom instruction in the art of conversation and good manners proved essential in the seniors' day as salesmen. The responsibility of representing G.H.S. was successfully accomplished by the senior salesmen.

"It has been a privilege and a pleasure to photograph Greenwood High School for the 1967 Woodmen."

'WELL DONE; BE THOU AT PEACE'

Astronaut Virgil I. Grissom in one of his quieter moments.

Gus Grissom symbolized hope to the nation's youth.

Apollo Astronauts Gus Grissom, Ed White, and Roger Chafee before their fatal accident.

A moment of youth — one that shall now last forever. They had lived together; they had worked together; and they died together. Now their smiling faces, talented hands, and brilliant minds have passed from the earth's face. But this was not the end. It was a beginning — a beginning that shall end in man's conquest of space.

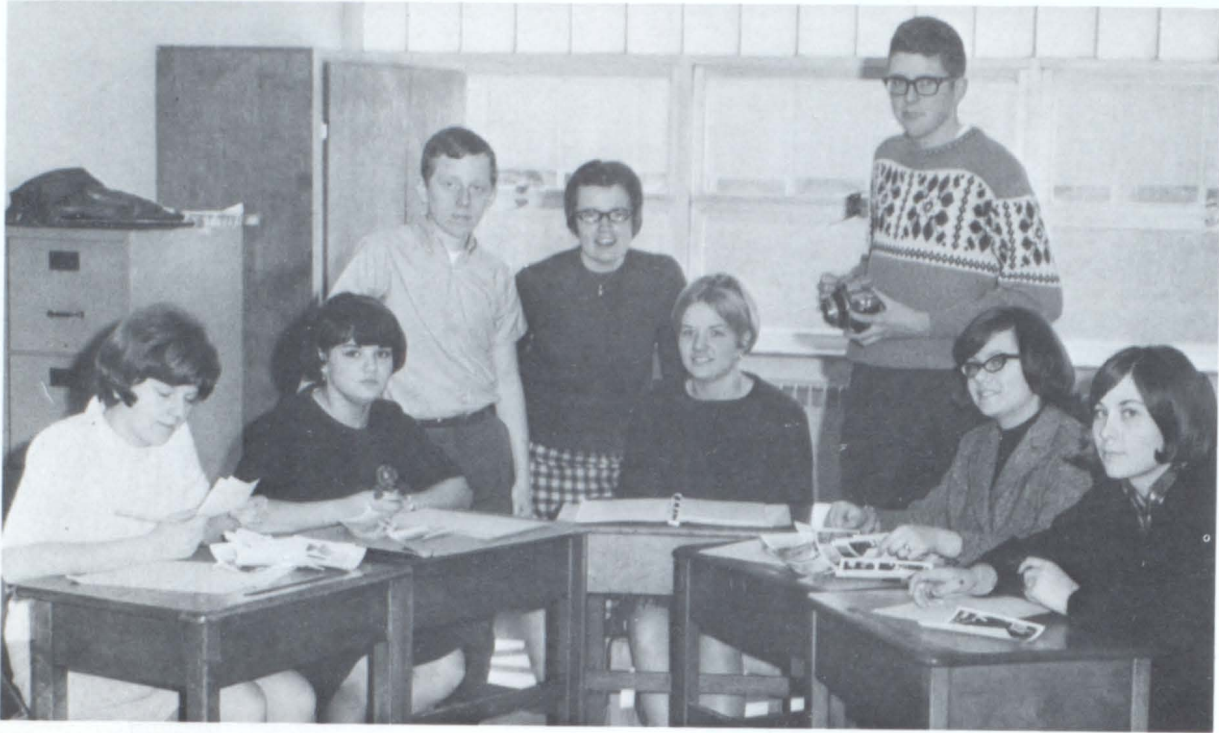

The world was shaken by this unbelievable tragedy. But the State of Indiana was even more stunned and shocked. They had not only suffered the loss of a hero, but the loss of a son. Hoosiers, like the rest of the world, had just recovered from the assassination of President Kennedy. Now Gus Grissom and two of his fellow astronauts, Ed White and Roger Chafee, were torn from their midst.

But the world did not stop, nor was the space program abandoned because of their deaths. Even in death they supplied vital information.

So shall we mourn them as fallen astronauts? No. Instead, let us praise them as unselfish men who did their duty. We shall remember them as they were, not as they are now. Their memory shall live as long as there are brave men who are willing to sacrifice their lives for mankind.

No more fitting an epitaph than that of Ed White's Alma Mater could be said of these men: "And when our work is done, our course on earth is run, may it be said, 'Well done; be thou at peace'."

WOODMAN STAFF ATTAINED THEIR GOAL
