Experiences are but an instant
While the memories last a lifetime

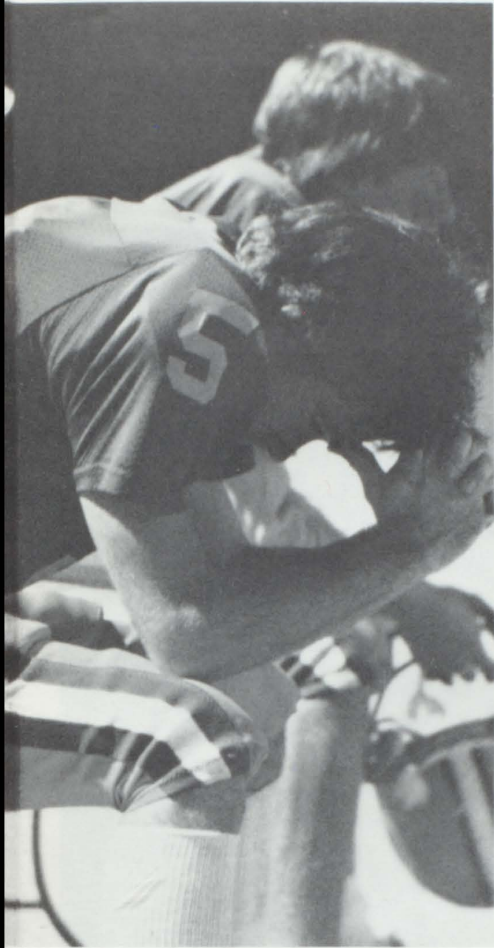

How often do we say, "Can't wait for summer! Can't wait until graduation! I wish spring break would hurry! Wait until I become a senior!" Before we know it time has rushed past — too quickly. Leaving us with only memories.

A memory is a feeling, a touch, a smile, a tear. A warm memory is a treasured moment stored away in the heart and recalled with joy, love and laughter.

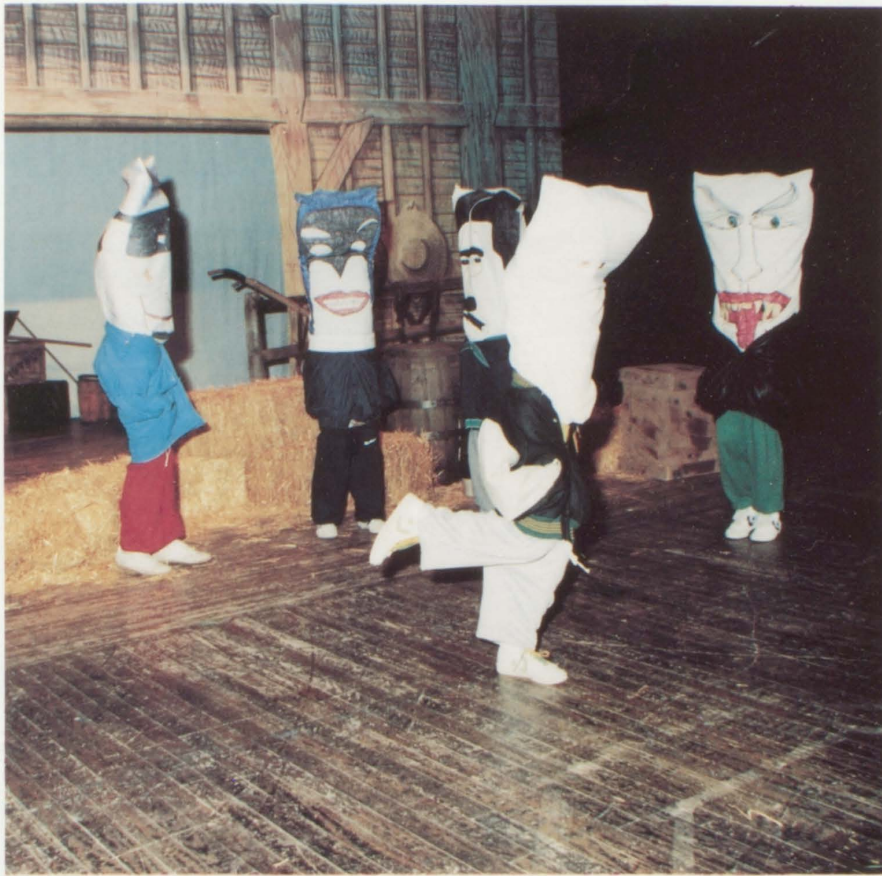

We all have memories of our childhood, that family vacation, a perfect sunset after the picnic in the park, that special friend you screamed at one minute and hugged the next, and soon high school will become a memory — a vivid and powerful memory that encompasses a world of feelings.

As we experience these moments, days and years, let us be mindful that all too soon these too will be gone, only to be cherished in the heart. The friends, the teachers, the tests, the vacations, the victories, the defeats, all blend together to form memories of our high school years.

We wish for everyone and everything to remain the same. To keep the closeness and affection of our friends, for time to stand still. If not. . . then for life to always be as good as it is now. So be still, take time to enjoy each precious moment and make this time together a special memory to be recalled with joy, love and laughter.

After school hours busy

Seniors participated in many activities after a day in the classroom. Athletic practices, jobs, shopping at the mall, going to McDonalds' were just a few of the activities of the Class of 1984.

Many Seniors held down jobs to finance upcoming college expenses. With the economy getting better, students found jobs more easily and worked many after school and weekend hours. Seniors said the high expense of future schooling, maintaining their car, and getting on the job experience in careers they hoped to pursue after high school were all reasons to work.

Athletics and extra curricular activities kept many students busy. While some practiced on the field or the hardwood, others practiced on stage, in the hall, or on the rug. Shouts from the cheerleaders practicing on the rug after school mingled with the sounds of feet running laps and the groans of the weight lifters as all worked toward perfection.

Stacey, Seniors reign

Homecoming 1983 was one of great excitement to all. The week began with the ever-popular dress-up days and the building of the floats.

Another event which generated alot of spirit was the Homelycoming Queen contest. In this event the winner was Bunny Lou Baker (Lonny Baker).

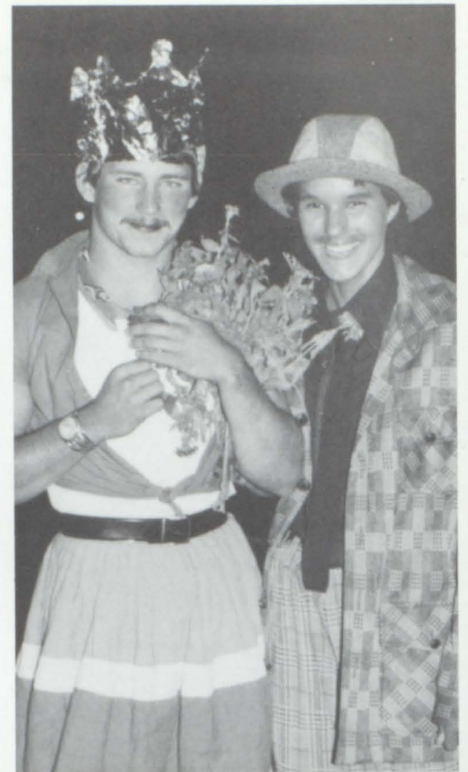

Also held during the rally was an apple eating contest, won by the Sophomores, and the tug-o-war, won by the Seniors.

The 1983 Homecoming Queen was Stacey Wood. She was escorted by Kent Kinnear. The court included Seniors — Paula Velez and Jennifer Docke; Junor — Sheila Albright; Sophomore —

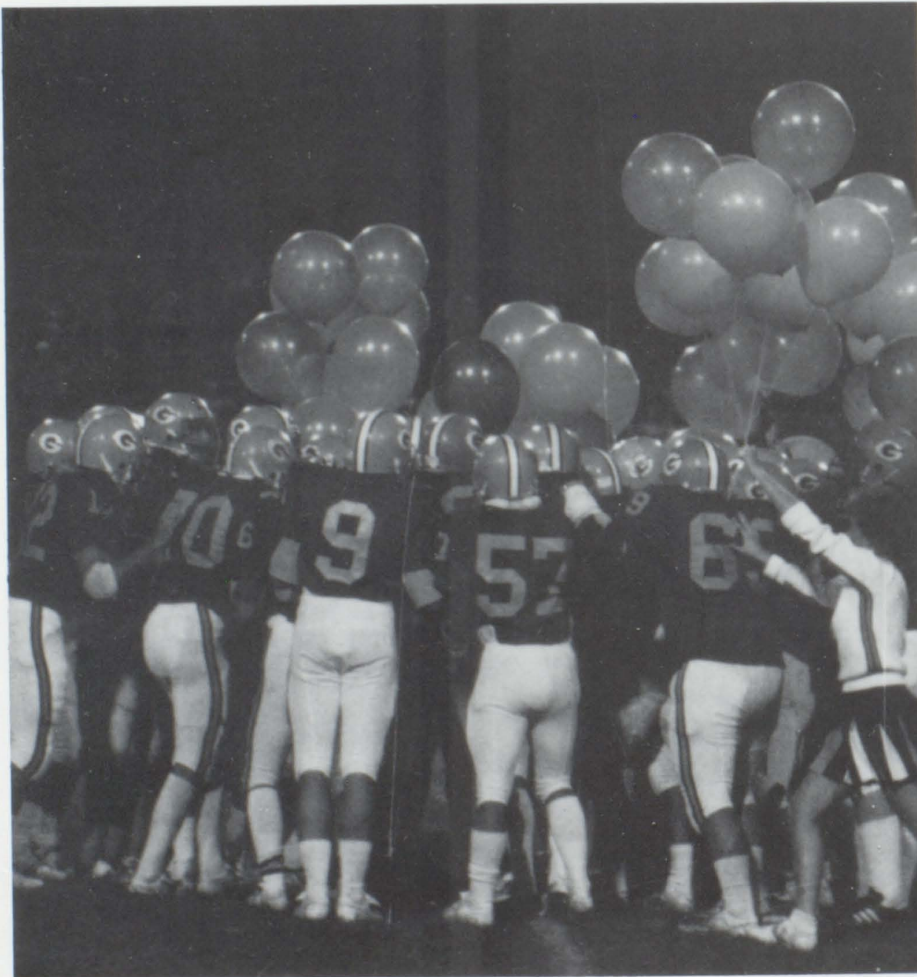

Angie O'Connor, and Freshman — Shelly Skeene.

The winners of the float went as follows — 1st place — Seniors, 2nd place — Freshmen. (sw)

With the prices of entertainment continuing to rise, many students found it necessary to take on part time jobs. These jobs provided extra spending money and/or help to pay for college.

Job opportunities were always opening up throughout the year. Greenwood Park Mall with its many retail and fast-food stores offered a variety of jobs to students. McDonald's, York Steak House, and the local cinemas also provided students with the much needed jobs.

Stu Rowe, an employee at The Athlete's Foot in the mall, said that he worked in order to have extra money for gas and entertainment.

Whether working simply for something to do or providing a means to take a date out on the weekend, the students at Greenwood High School spend a lot of their spare time working a part time job.

Spirits soar at Homecoming

Seniors, Stuart Rowe and Angela Kurtz reigned as the 1983 Homecoming King and Queen. The court included Juniors Sheila Albright and Russ Henry; Sophomore Angie O'Conner and John Settles and Freshmen Beth Williams and Kete Cockrell.

The Freshman took top honors for the banner contest followed by Seniors, Sophomores and Juniors. Dress-up days included Black 'em Out Day, Greenwood Defense Day, Bum 'em Out on the Beach Day and traditional Green and Gold Day.

Pep sessions raise spirit

The number of pep sessions was greatly reduced this year due to state regulations. This was a big discouragement to the students at GCHS, but the few the school had were definitely successes.

Planning a pep session took time from all cheerleaders, Booster club members, and their sponsors. Their job was to prepare enough cheers and entertainment to fire-up the mighty Woodmen. The students were to walk away feeling excited and ready to win.

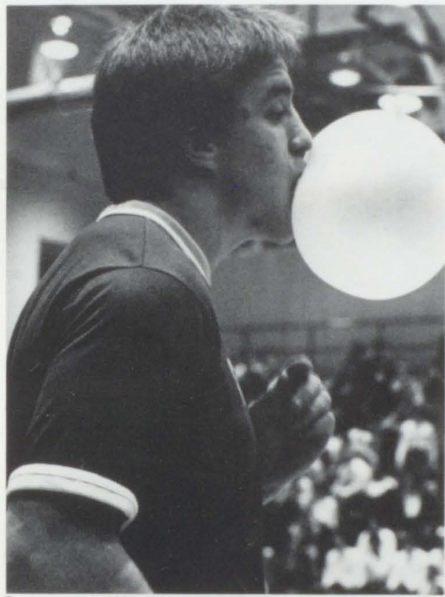

Pep sessions were an easy way to involve not only the cheerleaders and athletes, but also those who wanted to support the Woodmen teams.

Moonlight and Roses was the theme of the 1984 Prom held at Franklin College on May 5. Kent Kinnear and Marianne Naberhaus reigned as King and Queen from the Senior Class with Russ Henry and Kelly O'Connor as Prince and Princess from the Junior Class.

Decorated in blues, white, and pink, the room gave the feeling of a moonlit evening in the Spring. Couples danced to the music of Hand Shadow seeming to enjoy dancing.

Sponsored by the Junior Class, the evening was one to remember for all who attended.

1. Couples enjoyed conversation at the decorated tables while the band took a break. 2. The Senior Court included Jeff Linder, Angela Kurtz, Mike Grable, renee Jacks, Kent Kinnear, and Marianne Naberhaus. 3. Mike Spray and Tami Schoolcraft danced the evening away. 4. Craziness adds to student day

During those five minutes between classes, a lot of fun times can happen, and many did happen this past year. Whether it was people romancing in the halls, chasing each other around the lockers, or those golden glove bouts which electrified the fans, Greenwood students still managed to have a good time among all the studies. Not a day went by without seeing the familiar scenes of lines at the water fountain or students rushing to class in order to avoid tardies. Those five minutes were also critical for catching the latest gossip and keeping up with the ever changing world of fashion. (rcr)

Our

Woodman staff creates book

Many times, gathering memories of "your days in high school" can be difficult to do. When you look back on those eventful days, you want to re-live the color and excitement. The best way to feel those nostalgic days is to take a look at your old high school yearbook.

This year's Woodman staff has been creative and hard working. Editor, Toni Alspaugh; Copy Editor, Julianne Butler; Photo Editor, Nan Bohlsen; Design Editor, Jon Adams; and Business Manager, Jill Reynolds head up the 1984 Woodman staff along with other talented students.

All of these students along with the creativity and hard work, make it possible for you to relive those golden memories.

Weekly newspaper becomes daily deadline

Putting out a weekly newspaper is not an easy job according to the 1984 staff. "Sometimes there just isn't enough happening around school for a newspaper," said Editor Libby Abel. The months of January and February are the hardest to find copy.

The newspaper was headed by Libby Abel with Kim Sedam as Feature Editor and Gary Knight as Sports Editor. "The staff was very inexperienced," said Advisor Susan Edwards. "Most had never thought about what was in the newspaper and hadn't planned on being on the staff." This was the first year in which the newspaper staff was separated from the year-book staff with different journalism periods.

Thespians set stage

Greenwood Thespians produced a year of new and different events along with exciting productions. A successful season came with the help of Thespian president, Linda McCue; vice president, Linda Pauszek; secretary, Georgie Albright, and treasurer, Aaron Voyles.

The year's events included participating in a mock disaster drill at the Indianapolis Airport and several parties throughout the year.

The Greenwood Thespians, sponsored by Ms. Carol Wharton, added an opportunity for student creativity and expression. It gave students the chance to display their hidden talents through the theatre.

SSS serves community

Community service, hard work, and participation are but a few choice ingredients that make up the Sunshine Society. It is an organization that benefits both our school and the surrounding area. Sponsored this year by Mrs. Joan Follmer, the club has taken on several projects. Each year SSS is concerned with helping Riley's Children Hospital; this year they made toys; SSS helped Key Club with the annual canned food drive, raised money for other charities, and planned on sponsoring a starving child in another country. It took time and effort, but each member was willing to dedicate themselves to serve others. (slr)

Key Club adds girls

The 1983-84 school year was one of change for the Key Club. For the first time, the Key Club was almost 50% girls. There had been girls in the club before, but never as many as this past year.

The club again, as every year, did many social projects and special activities. The Key Club did the usual jobs of cleaning up the football field and surrounding areas. They also participated in the annual can food drive, Kiwanis Travelogue, and had dinner with Kiwanis's at MCL. Some social activities included activities with Sunshine like a putt-putt tourney as well as a bowling tourney. Something new that the Key Club had in April was 10k run. They also participated in the haunted forest at West Side Park.

As in the past, Mr. Steve Lane was the sponsor for the Key Clubbers. His assistant last year was another change for the club, as Mr. Bill Mellencamp filed in doing a nice job and taking activity in the club.

Boosters raise spirits high

Although Booster Club membership had declined in the past years the efforts to boost the spirit at GCHS had been strong. Booster Club supervised Basketball Homecoming and made spirit-inspiring posters that hung in the halls. Money made from selling chains, baby contests, and Homely Coming Queen contests was spent on sectional victory cakes, team dinners and flowers.

Council activity increases

Invocation, enthusiasm, action; the three new factors in the working of the GCHS Student Council. Under the leadership of a one year veteran sponsor, Mrs. Jackie White, the student council undertook new tasks to help improve the school, as well as improving themselves.

These new ideas and spirit led to an extremely successful blood drive, a Sadie Hawkins dance and an exciting video convocations. The Council also provided another student service by keeping the Council's Corner operating. These activities were done all with the student body in mind.

Spanish club picks apples

Spanish Club began their yearly activities with the annual apple pick at Anderson Orchard. The project was a fund raiser which enabled the members to enjoy a year full of activities. The highlight of the apple pick was the break down of Angie Pallanez's truck, which at the time had a bed full of apples. Other activities included a Christmas party and dinner at Chi-Chi's.

Officers were senior Tony Weiske, President; junior Carol Hatfield, Vice President; and senior Linda Kephart, Secretary and Treasurer. The club's sponsor was Mrs. Suzanne Schulz. "Juan y Carlos" were their mascots.

Q&S honors journalists

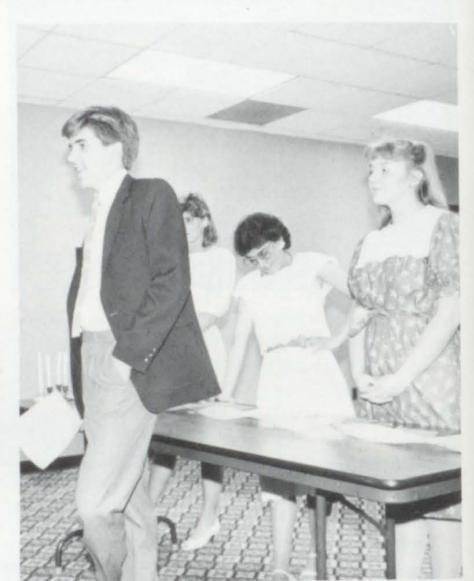

Quill and Scroll is a journalistic society organized to encourage and recognize outstanding student accomplishments in the area.

Students from all across the nation and 32 foreign countries are accepted as members each year for their contributions to high school journalism. Several students from Greenwood Community High School were selected this year for membership by the society.

Each person offered membership to Quill and Scroll must pass several qualifications. They must maintain at least a "B" average, have done superior work in some phase of journalism, be recommended by the school advisor, and be approved by the Executive Secretary of the society.

Academic recognized

National Honor Society recognized Seniors who excelled in academic and extracurricular activities in high school. These individuals had worked and studied hard. They had gotten involved in many extra activities. These students were chosen as NHS members on a basis of three things: their grade point average, teachers ratings, and their involvement in school activities. These Seniors provided leadership and enthusiasm at GCHS and deserved the recognition

Cheerleaders set spirit pace

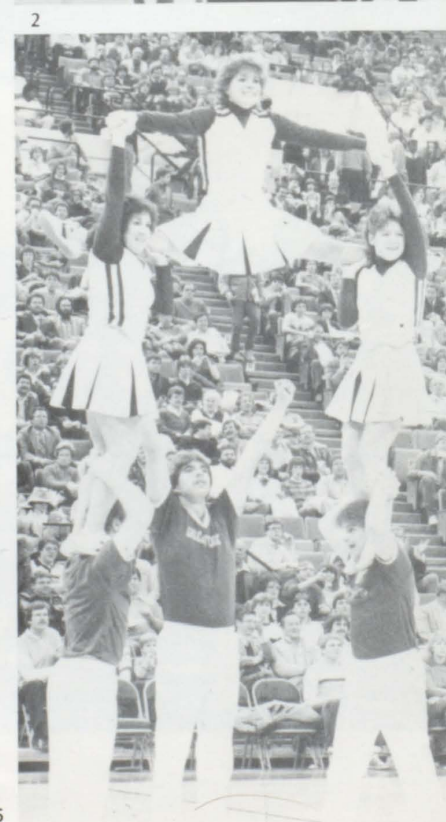

A year of learning, sharing and growing was the best way to describe the Varsity Cheerleading squad.

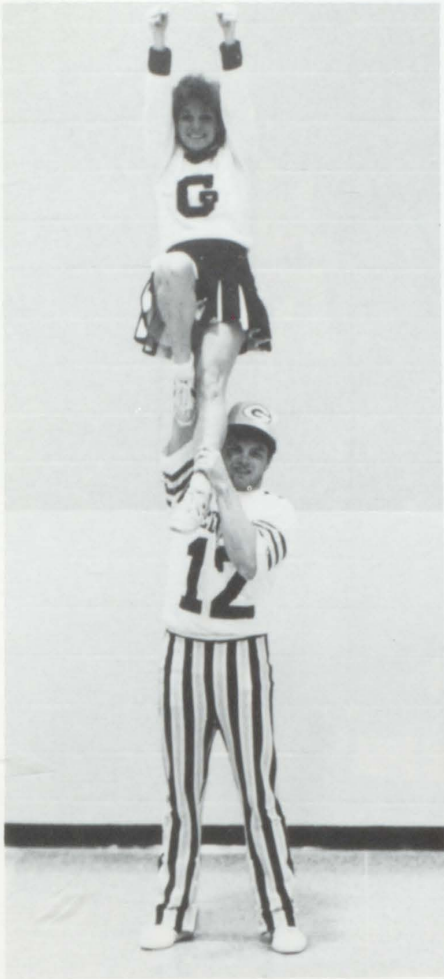

There were many long and hard hours put into practice. A second at camp, and second at Johnson County Fair and a thirteenth at State Fair and a chance to cheer at half-time of the Pacer game were all accomplishments of this years' squad.

The male half of the squad added a great deal of fun and excitement to the games. They were hard working and really helped to promote school spirit.

During the summer camp Paula Velez and Toni Alspaugh were awarded Miss Cheerleader and Miss Tumbler respectively. They also received applications from the National Cheerleading Association. (ta)

One junior and four sophomores cheered for the Reserve teams during the 1983-84 school year. Elected by the students the previous year, these girls had a number of commitments they had to attend to.

Starting in the summer, the girls practiced about twice a day to get prepared for camp. They worked hard during their week stay at Vincennes University. After returning from camp, the girls were really fired-up and captured first at the Johnson County Fair. (ta)

I-Arts changes

The 1983-84 year was a year of change for the Industrial Arts Club, which had been around since 1970. Mr. John Hallet took over as the sponsor of the club. His responsibilities were to invite guest speakers, plan industrial field trips, and to supervise the activities of the club.

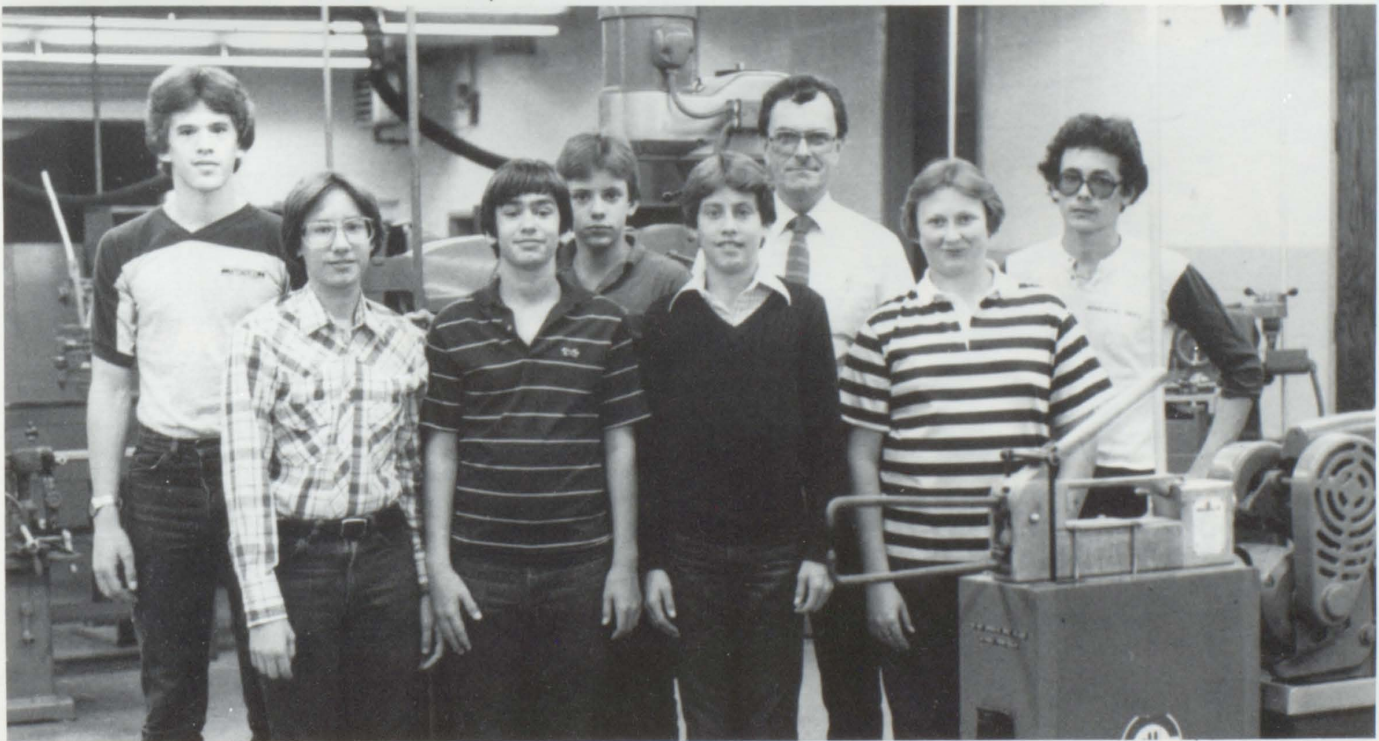

The club had many educational activities this past year. They invited speakers who talked about silk screening, robots, computer lathes, and liquid nitrogen. Their field trips consisted of trips to Past and Present Body Works, the "Daily Journal," and Sanjo Steel.

The Industrial Arts Club is a fun and educational club which had no particular officers. It also takes only Industrial Arts credit to be in the club.

Intramurals provide fun

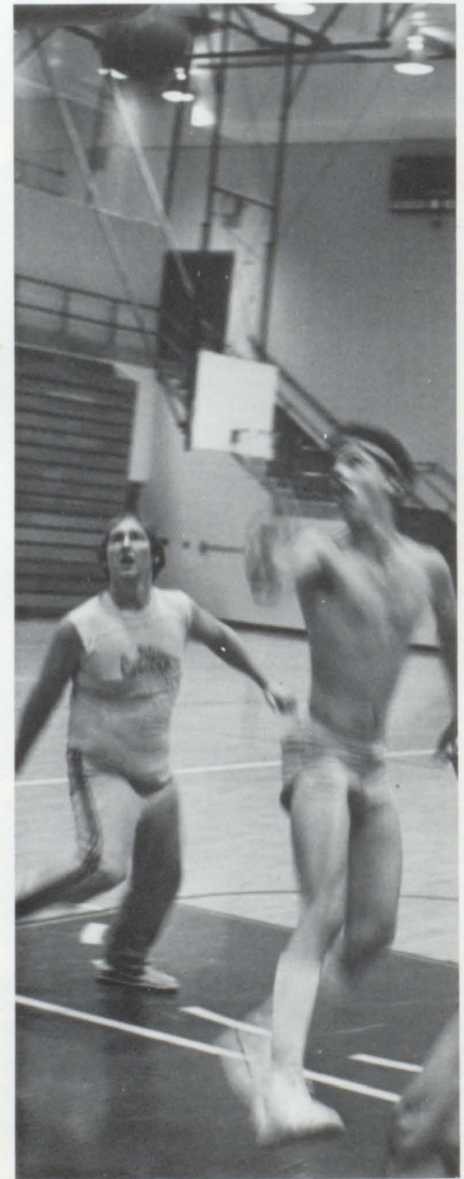

The Intramural Basketball league is one of the many extra-curricular activities in which students can participate.

Mr. Don Riley was the sponsor and did a very good job. He was responsible for setting the times for the games, finding some students to referee the games, and most importantly, breaking up the fights.

The league is set up by having the students sign-up to be either captains or players.

Some of the stand-out players included Pat Murphy, Mitch Johnson, Tim Donnar, and Lonny Baker.

Woodmen earn 4-6

The Woodmen gridders closed out their 1983 season with a 4-6 record. They were 3-1 in cluster play, going into a 4-down overtime system before falling away from the play-offs. They also had a 3rd place finish in the Mid-State Conference.

The defense, led tackler Mike Warner, and the Neely Award winner, and MVP, Jeff Linder, had a exceptional year. They halted many would be scoring drives. John Padgett and Lonny Baker followed Linder respectively.

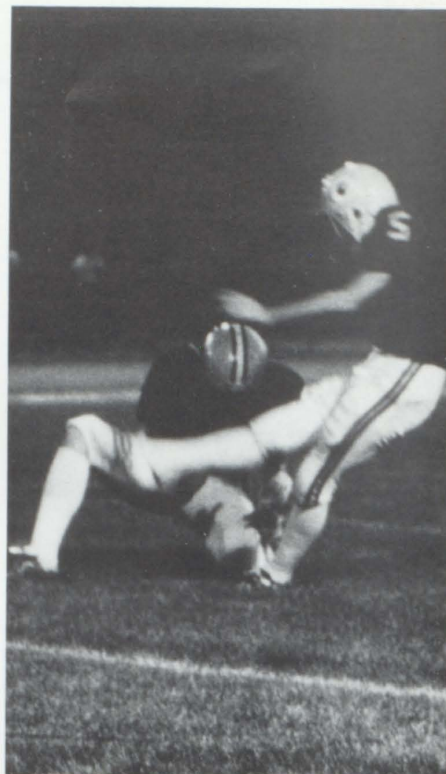

The Woodmen had a permanent threat in 1st-Team All-State place-kicker Mike Warner, who also received the Rick Machledt Award. Warner closed out an outstanding high school career with his All-State selection.

Greenwood had six players make the All-Conference squad. They were seniors Linder, Padgett, Baker, Warner, and Dave Tyler. The sixth member, Jeff Hotopp, was one of only five juniors to be named. (rdb)

Woodmen learn basics

The Freshmen, Football team finished the season with a 3-5 record. "I feel the season was an overall success." said head coach Dave Walden. He also said, "There is a lot of developing still needed in fundamentals."

The Talbott twins, Kelly and Kevin, led the offense and defense. Eric Scott, after sitting out last season with a knee injury, showed some impressive potential in the later half of the season.

"We were never in every game." said Walden. "We were never blown out or routed. There were some coaching mistakes along with some player inexperience. I felt though the season was a good learning experience for all" he said. (gk)

Netmen win first Regional

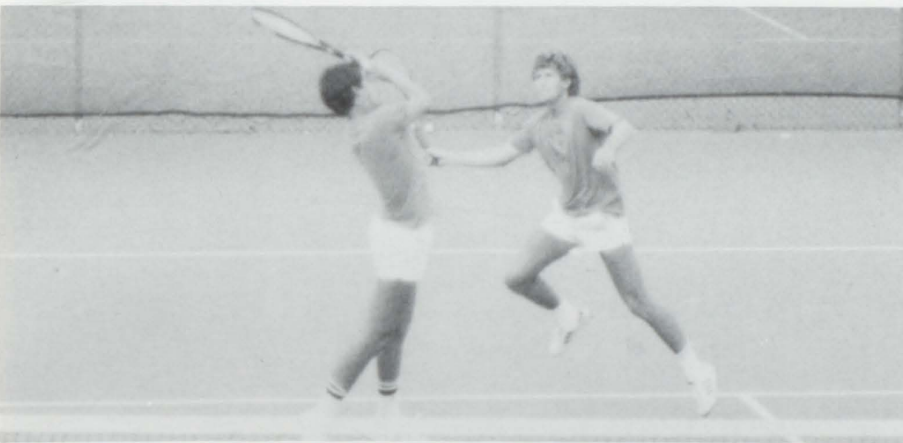

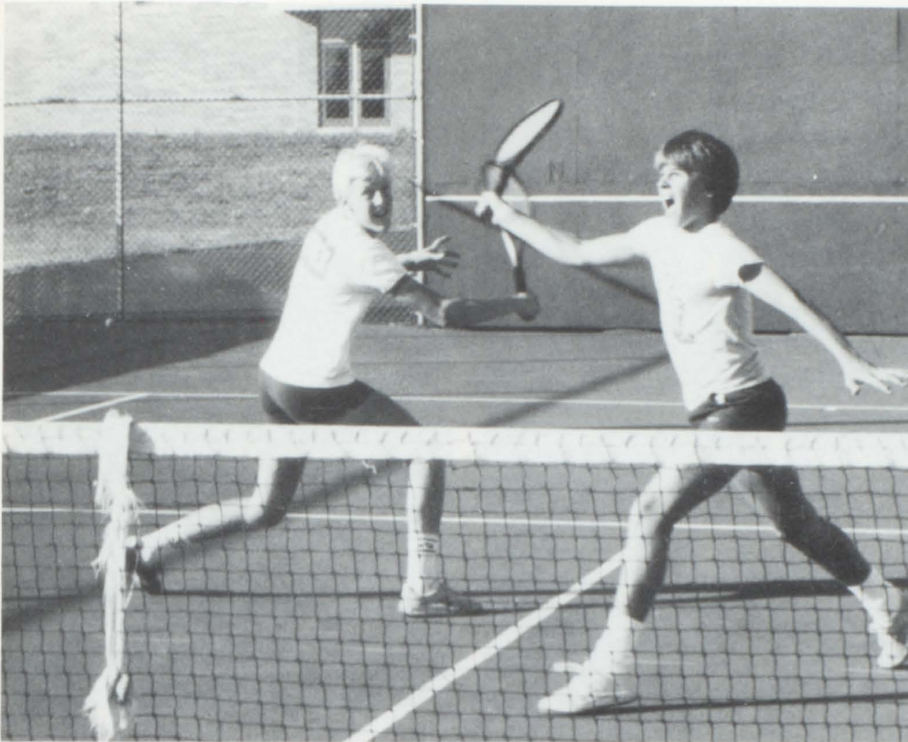

The 1983 boys' Tennis season proved to be a season of thrilling victory. A season that saw the team win a record twenty victories (over 12 state-ranked teams), climb their way into the semi-state finale, and finished in a record sixth position in the State polls.

Part of the Woodmen denomination of the regular season was due to the championship play of three outstanding sophomores. Lance Vaziri filled the number two singles slot with an unbelievable 22-1 regular season record. The other two super-sophs filled in number one and two doubles. Steve Bright played at number one doubles and finished the year at 14-10. Kit Robbins, at number two doubles, finished the year at 127-8.

Experience began to shine through as a key factor in Greenwood's run through the IHSAA post-season tennis tournament. Junior Ryan Smith provided several key victories in the Sectional and Regional matches to help the Woodmen make their way to the semi-state finales and closed his year at 21-3. The three seniors on the team, Kent Kinnear (24-2), Jeff Smith (14-11), and Jon Burgbacher (16-9), provided the leadership as well as excellent play necessary for victory.

1. Ryan Smith completed his Junior year with an impressive 22-3 record. (nb) 2. Powerful forehands propelled Lance Vaziri to a winning season. (rs) 3. Senior Kent Kinnear ended his four year career with a 95-10 record. (rs) 4. The tandem of Jon Burgbacher and Kit Robbins converged for a put away. (rs) 5. Row one (left to right): Lance Vaziri, Kit Robbins, Doug Grady, Keith Garris; Row two: Trevor Gibson, Ryan Smith, Steve Bright, Kent Kinnear, Jay Smith, Jon Burgbacher, Coach Gerry Steinhagen. (se)

The team record itself shows the discipline, dedication, and hard work, put in by the team. The first two weeks of morning and afternoon practices consisting of drills, running, and more running proved worthwhile. The team finished a 20-3 season by capturing their 4th consecutive Mid-State title, 3rd consecutive Johnson County title, 2nd consecutive Perry Meridian Sectional title, and their first ever Regional title. The team also fought hard to make it into the semi-state finale where they were finally eliminated from tournament play by top-ranked Indianapolis North Central.

The loss to North Central not only ended the teams breath-taking season, but it also marked the end of the long and illustrious career of Senior Kent Kinnear. In his four years at Greenwood, Kent had been a big influence on tennis. As he graduates, he leaves behind a tradition of a winning attitude both on and off the courts. (rs)

Netmen ace 11-4 season

Experience was the name of the game for the Reserve netmen. The young team, composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores, gained a vast amount of experience while compiling a 11-4 record against opponents who were mainly upperclassmen.

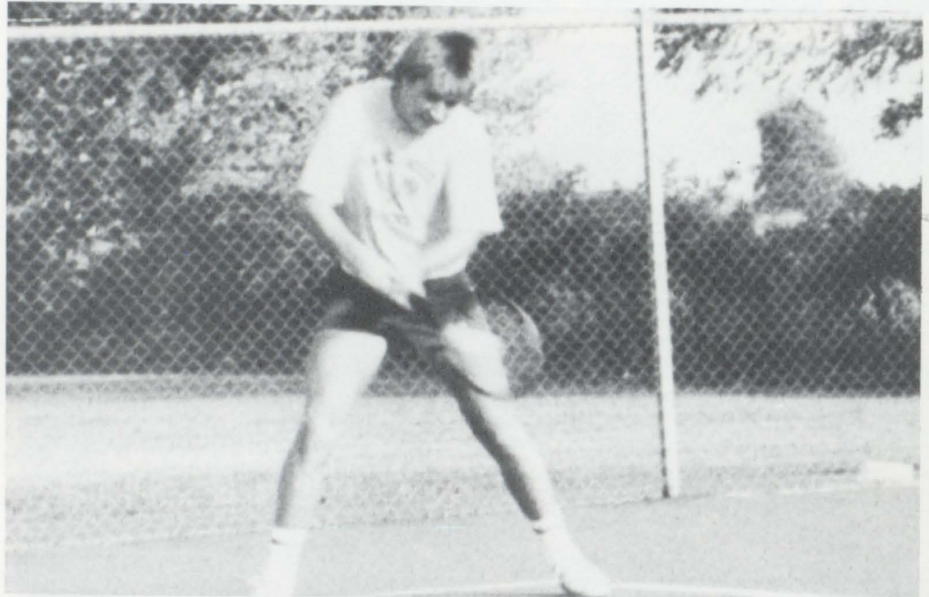

Several reservist will be called upon to replace the outgoing senior trio. Players that could possibly fill these positions include Doug Grady, Steve Neuffer, and Keith Garris. Being deep in talent with players like these, Greenwood can once again look forward to another exciting year. (rs)

C.C. runners endure

The boys' Cross Country team was basically disappointed by the closing of the season. Never running with the top 5 runners until the last three meets, they ran themselves in the ground, to a 5-53 record.

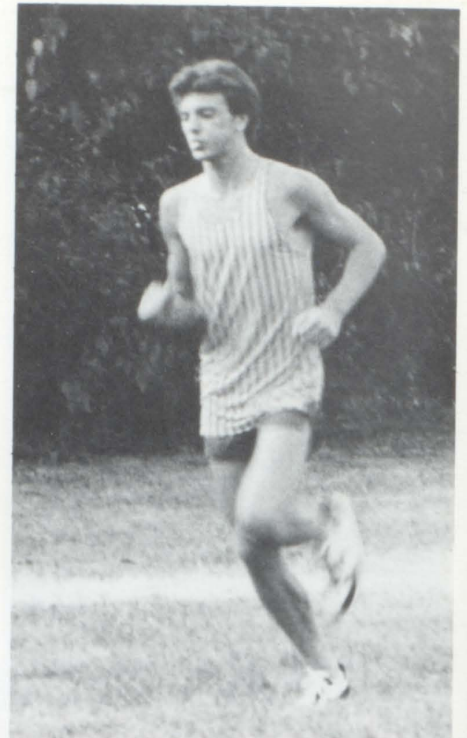

The runners seemed to peak at the Johnson County Meet, which was at Hillview Country Club in Franklin. Placing fourth, the team placed three runners in the top twenty. The County meet was also the first meet with the top seven runners together.

The last two meetings of the season were the Mid-State Conference, and Sectionals. Those two meetings summed-up the whole season as they showed the disgust and hard times the runners went through. All the effort the runners gave, they still came out short, finishing last in Conference and 10th in Sectionals.

The awards banquet seemed to lighten things up a little for the runners as they tried to put the season behind them. The following were the top seven who received varsity letters: sophomores — Steve Dalton, Curt Irons, James Rutherford; juniors — Brian Durkalski, Scott Pasch; seniors — John Irons, Stu Rowe. Special awards went to Steve Dalton, Scott Pasch, John Irons, Stu Rowe for the 500 Mile Club. Stu Rowe received Most Improved as well as Most Valuable. (sr)

The 1983 season was an injury prone season for the girls' Cross Country team, just as it was for the boys'. Although the team only had two girls with serious problems, this hurt them as they only had six runners.

The girls' started the season healthy, but in the third meet Jennifer Skeel pulled a muscle and was out until the last two meeting of the year. Next was Marianne Naberhaus, who about half way through the season, found out she was anemic. Marianne sat out for two weeks taking iron pills, and returned as strong as ever.

Despite these facts, the girls' managed to improve throughout the year, and finished with a 4-33 record.

Gladish leads at net

The Varsity Volleyball team had a victorious season as they finished with a season record of 10-7. Their Mid-State record was 3-4.

The Woodmen were "awesome" this season, as they won the "Country Crown" for the second year in a row. They were also runners-up in the Sectional.

The offense was led by Karen Gladish in spiking. She was terrific as she was 360 for 401 spiking with 199 kills. She also led in receptions.

Mickey Cook led the serving attack as she was 173 for 189; serving for 106 points. Steph Estell was on top in setting with 178 assists. At the awards banquet Gladish was named MVP. (ks)

Spikers gain poise

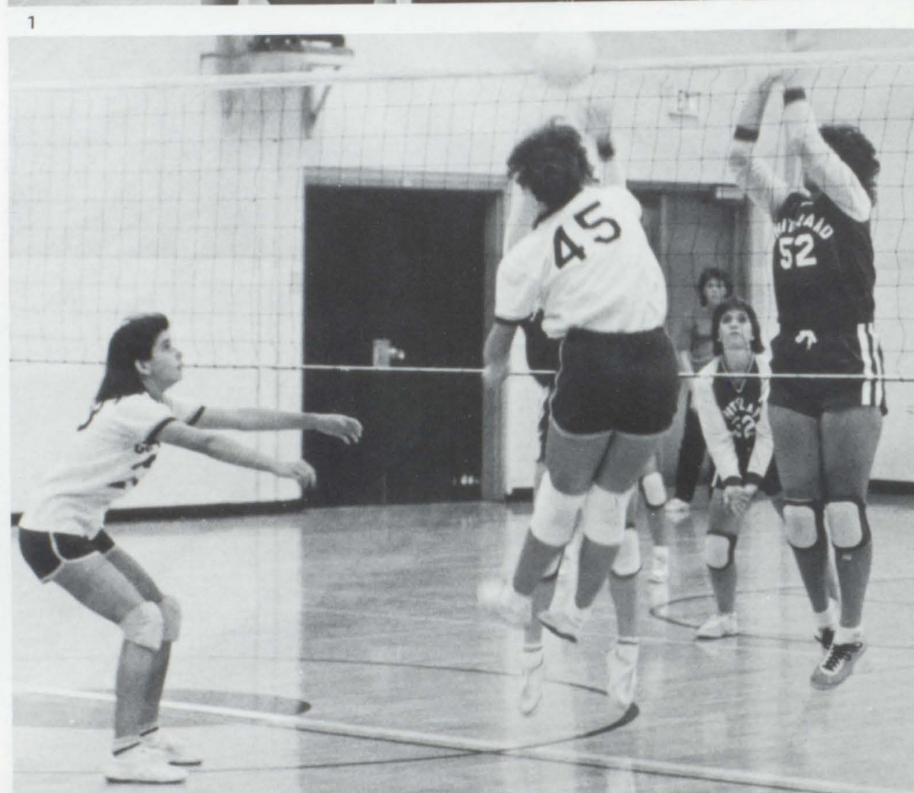

The Reserve Volleyball team started out the season winning their first six matches and playing exceptionally well, but ended on a dismal note losing six of their last nine matches. They ended the season with a 9-6 record.

The Woodman had many outstanding players. Freshmen setters Stacie Richards and Marcie West played well for the Reserves considering their inexperience as high school players. Richards also led the serving, scoring 76 points over the whole year with 32 service winners.

Shannon Springer and Michelle Story led the Woodmen in Spike-kills and block-kills. Springer had 37 spike-kills and five block-kills, and Storey got 20 spike-kills and four block-kills.

Michelle Zeis did an excellent job leading the Reserves with an 85% reception rate.

Overall, Coach Barbara Otte summed it up this way, "They played inconsistently, but had matches where they played exceptionally well." (kh)

Smith, Kinnear lead team

The Greenwood Varsity Basketball team encountered a season of ups and downs due to lack of experience. "With the inexperience we had, the record was respectable, but I thought we could have done better," commented Coach Gary Vandergriff.

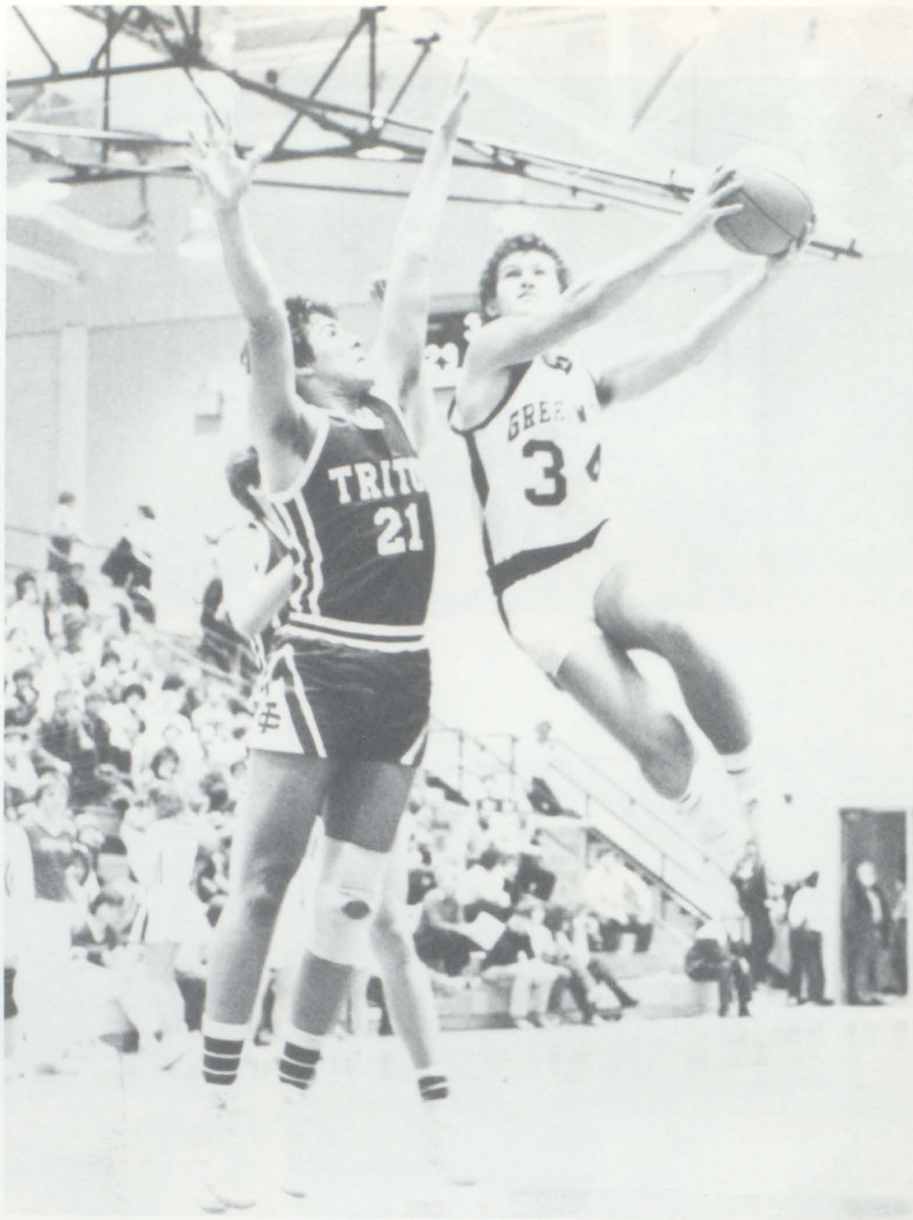

The team finished the season with a respectable 11-10 record. The Woodmen played one of the toughest schedules in recent years with highly regarded teams such as Noblesville, Tipton, Franklin, and Decatur Central.

The two bright spots for the Woodmen were returning lettermen Jeff Smith and Kent Kinnear. These two players received many honors.

Jeff Smith was the first member of the Woodmen's dynamic duo. Vandergriff said, "Jeff's stats speak for themselves, being the first player from Greenwood to reach the 1,000 point plateau since Bobby John in 1978." Jeff was also the county's "Player of the Year" while capturing the county scoring title. Jeff was also named to the All-Mid-State and Suburban teams.

The other member of the duo was Kent Kinnear. "Kent played very well inside for us this year," proclaimed Coach Vandergriff. Kent was named to the All-County and All-Mid-State team being Greenwood's only other representative on the respective teams.

Reserves gain experience

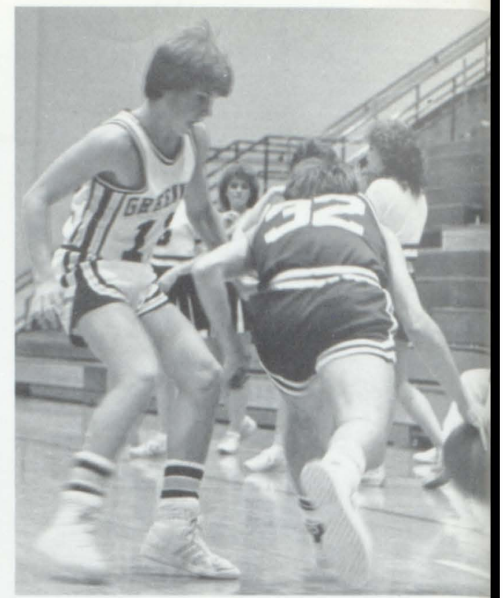

Although the Reserve Basketball team finished with what seemed to be a disappointing season, 7-13, Coach Keaney Sloop was pleased with the fact that, "All players were very coachable". Sloop noted that the team showed much improvement over the course of the year, winning three of their last five games. Coach Sloop also stated that for the first time in three years the Reserve team won their last game of the season.

One indication of the closeness of their season was, the Woodmen averaged 32 points per game and gave up only 33. They lost five games by four points or less and had one overtime loss.

The only fact that was disappointing to Sloop was that the team failed to put together good back-to-back games on Friday and Saturday nights, saying, "Inconsistency from Friday to Saturday was the only thing that displeased me."

Sloop was impressed with the individuals on the team. John Settles played well all-around. He rebounded, scored, played defense, and handed out assists with consistency. Dean Mattick was a great offense player. Floor leader for the team was sophomore Kit Robbins. Giving 100 percent and having a good attitude, the Talbotts were always a boost for the team. Brent Rickards became the most improved player as he was more consistent at the end of the season. (rdb & dt)

Freshmen develop skills

The Freshman Basketball team consists of two teams, the A and B team. Mr. Jim Mitchell is the coach of the B team, and Mr. Gerry Steinhagen coaches the A team. But as Mitchell said, "this year was really combined into two teams. They really never knew who was going to start the A or B team."

Steinhagen said that this was the best overall balanced team. He also said that there was really one stand out - David Lessaris - who led in every statistic. Steinhagen said that the quickness at the guard position with Steve Nuhfer, Darren Habig, and Rick Diaz, helped win a lot of games.

The B team's record was 9-3 overall, while the A team's was 9-7.

The leading scorer of the B team was Rick Diaz with 9.4 points per game. David Lessaris led the A team with a 11.1 points per game average. Rick and David led the way in free throws also.

Swimmers make waves

Both the girls' and boys' swim teams spent the year rebuilding and gaining experience. The girls finished the season with a 3-6 record while the boys finished with a 8-2 record.

The girls' swim team, which broke every record except one, was led by Co-MVP Candy Broady and Mimi Macy and Mental Attitude winner, Paula Velez. Coach Mary Sauer said, "I had a lot of very talented swimmers who were willing to put in a lot of effort."

She added, "It had been a rebuilding year for the boys' team with 20 first year swimmers and only five experienced. It was a good group. They were easy to work with, and they worked hard."

Swimming MVP, Tony Constantino, led the team by breaking many records. Diving MVP went to Bob Koch and the Mental Attitude to Stacey Wiggins.

Most Improved swimmers for the year were Cindy Bass, Wendy Dale, Chip Whittaker, and Kevin Jones. (jr)

Grapplers gain experience

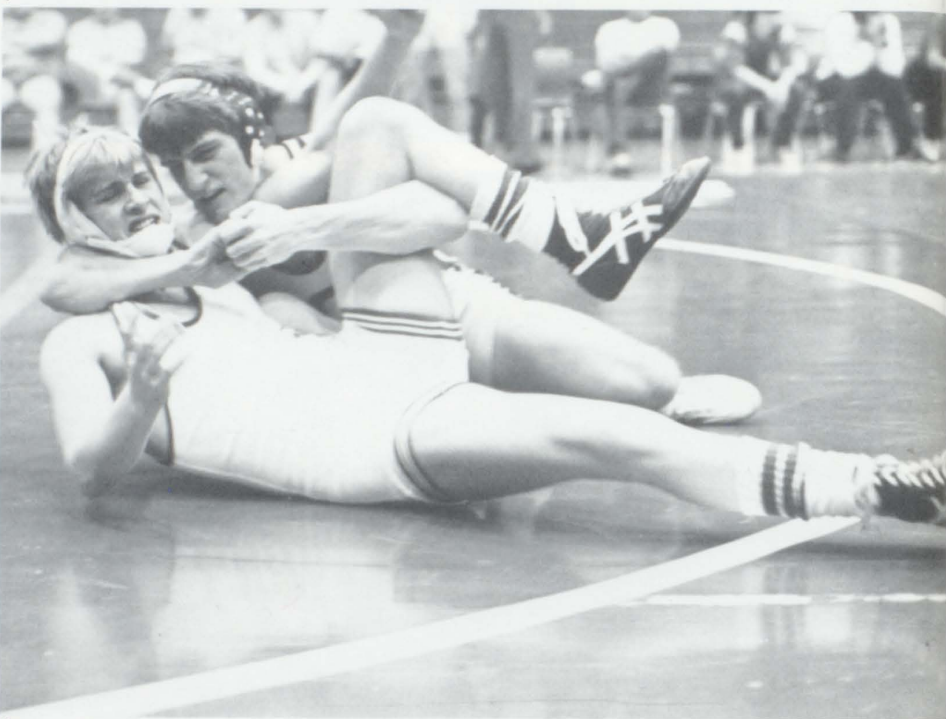

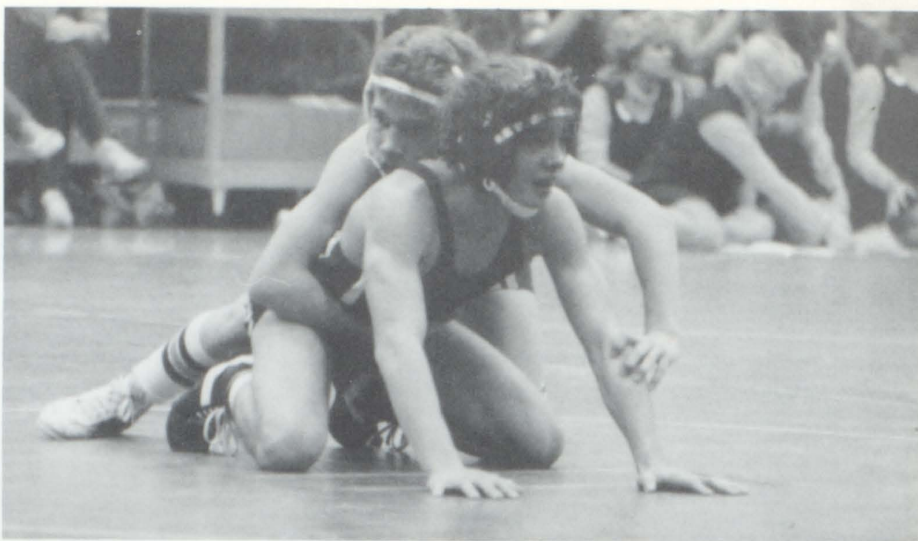

The Varsity Wrestling team finished the season with disappointing 6-9 record.

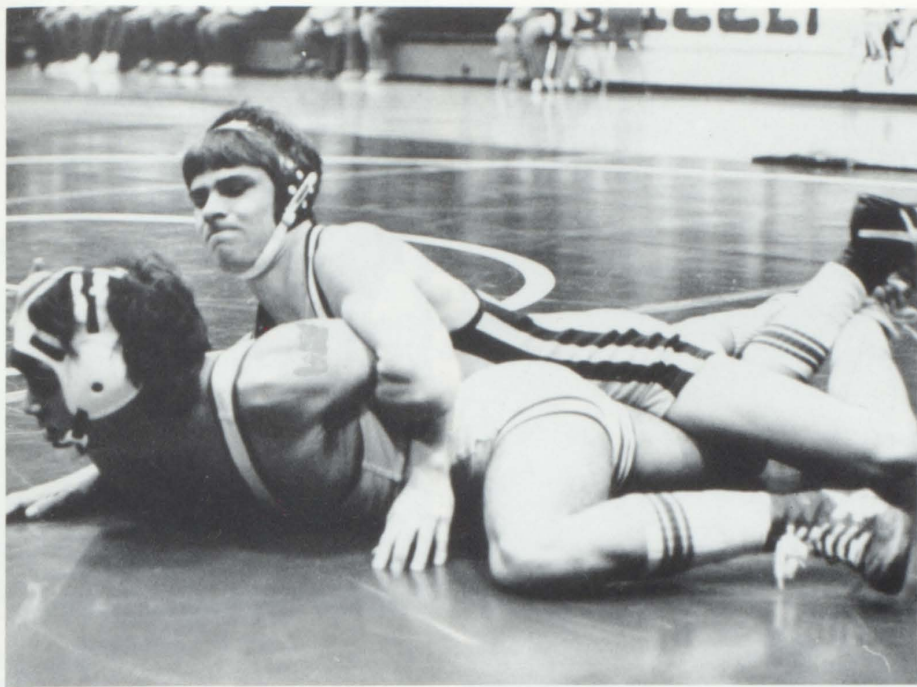

Captain Brian Grabhorn finished the year with a 26-3 record and led the team in every category. He was named MVP by his teammates. Junior Jeff Hotopp also had an excellent record; he finished with a 20-8 record.

The grapplers placed 2nd in the Sectional and sent 10 wrestlers to the Regionals. Sophomore Tim Ader was the only Woodmen who advanced to the Semi-State finishing out the season with a 17-7 record. The year's champions were slim, but they included Grabhorn and Hotopp as Sectional champions and Derek Cox as a Mid-State champion.

Varsity girls finish 7-10

The 1983-84 girls' Varsity Basketball team finished the year with a disappointing 7-10 record. There were many individuals who performed well in spite of a losing record.

MVP, junior Steph Estell finished second on the team in scoring and was first in both steals and assists. Steph also came close to breaking many Woodmen records. Karen Gladish was the team's leading scorer with a 9.5 average; she was also the leading rebounder with a 7.3 game average. Dawn Davidson, Kim Phipps, and Shannon Springer also contributed heavily in the rebounding department. Phipps was the team's leading shot blocker. Junior guard Kim Sedam was second in steals and assists. Sedam set free throw shooting records for both a season, .723, and a career, .717. In addition, she got the fifth highest point total with 21 against Center Grove in the Sectionals.

A highlight for the team this year was a 5-2 record and a second place finish in the Mid-State Conference.

Coach Barb Otte said, "We improved very well as a team throughout the season as well as having individuals perform well."

Inexperience plagues girls

The girls' Reserve Basketball team ended their season with a record of 4-14. The team consisted of two sophomores and nine freshmen this season.

Miss Cleone Heebner felt the girls improved and matured a lot from the first game of the season to the last, learnings such strong fundamentals as helping out on defense, taking a charge, and basic shooting form.

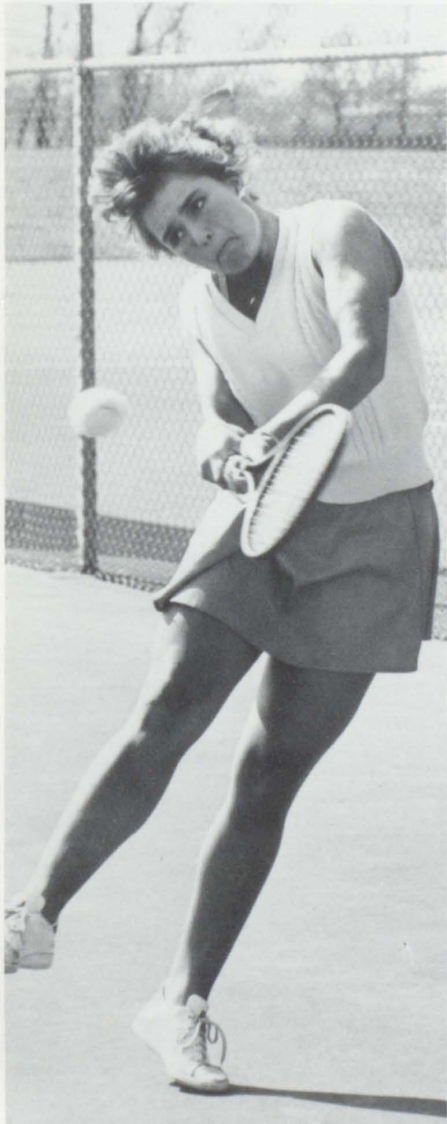

Heebner also commented on this being a rebuilding year. Developing basic fundamentals was the most important thing. Learning to play as a unit was also a job done very well, according to Heebner.

Docke leads champion netters

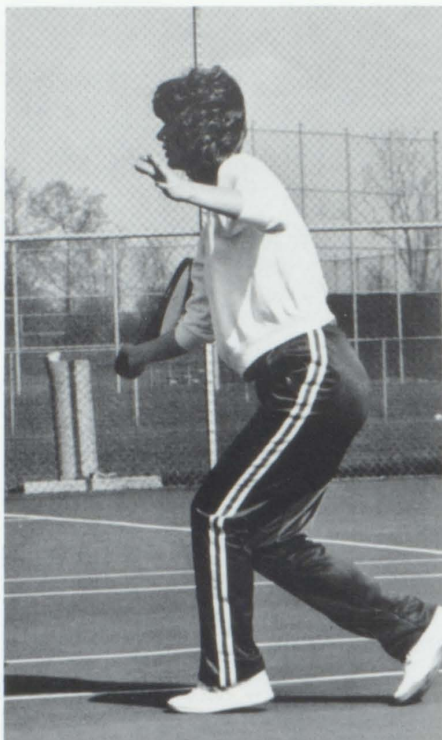

Once again the girls' varsity tennis team took the County, Mid-State, and Sectional titles posting a 21-2 record. The two losses came to state ranked Brebeuf and Park Tudor.

The outstanding Woodmen were led by Jennifer Docke and Jill Cockrell, who now hold the most wins records for the County.

Following the one and two singles players were Kris Garris and Linda Pauszek, who switched places at the number three singles and number one doubles positions late in the season. Cheryl Schaefer joined them at number one doubles.

Woodmen win Sectional

The 1984 Woodmen won their third consecutive Sectional crown defeating rival Center Grove in the final game 5-2. The Woodmen finished the season with an overall record of 12-14, finishing second in the County and sixth in the Mid-State.

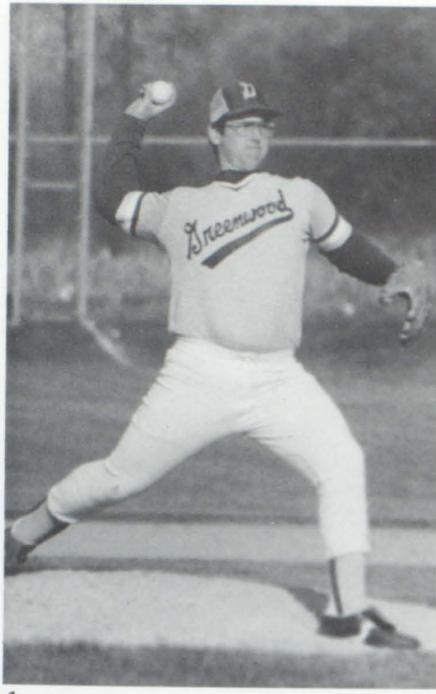

According to Coach Ed Roush, the best game of the season was in the Sectionals as the Woodmen downed Triton Central 3-2. The Woodmen executed perfectly, he said. It was absolutely the best of the season. He also said the final game against Center Grove was a rewarding game for the Woodmen.

The team was strongest in overall team defense, according to Roush. The weakest points were in pitching and team leadership.

Jerry Williams led the hitting with .432 followed by Jeff Smith at .319, Butch Norris at .307, Kit Robbins at .302, and Kevan Woodcock at .297.

Pitching was led by Williams with a 5-5 record and an ERA of 2.64. Woodcock followed with a 2-0 record and an ERA of 4.10.

Diamondmen pound bases

The reserve baseball team finished with a 4-10 record. The season was full of ups and downs with the reserves playing a lot better than the season record indicated, losing four games by only one run.

Standouts for the team were Brian Ford who won the batting title. Rod Richards was tied with Ford this year in hitting.

Coach Robert Silcock was pleased with the season. "I felt the team improved from the first game to the last. We hit the ball every game this season, but we didn't have real strong pitching."

The reserves finished 3rd in the Reserve Tourney. The first game the Woodmen lost to Center Grove in the bottom of the last inning, but redeemed themselves in the afternoon game by knocking off Whiteland 14-7. (tg)

The freshmen baseball team experienced a season of ups and downs and ended up with a 4-8 record. The loss of freshmen being moved to the reserve team made a tough year, according to Coach Jim Mitchell.

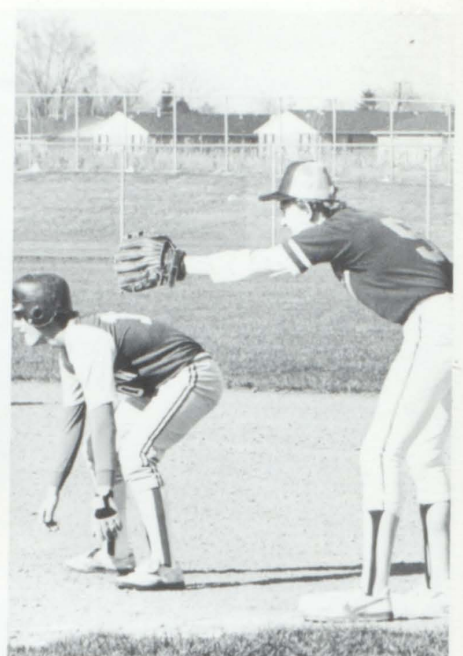

Kelly Talbott ended the season with a .419 batting average which led the team. Mike Hyatt followed with a .400 and Kevin Eck had a .375 average.

Buddy Sims was the outstanding pitcher for the team. Besting the fielders were Rick Diaz, Hyatt, and Kevin Talbott. (mq)

Baker sets, breaks records

Pain, sweat, exhaustion; each of these go into the making of a track season, but for the boy's track team it was worth it.

The team captured its first County title in five years. Surprising everyone but themselves, the team came from behind and a 5th place seeding to top such teams as Center Grove and Indian Creek.

The rest of the season was also a success as the team finished a good year which included a 4th place finish in the Mid-State Conference and a 6th place finish in the Sectionals.

Thirteen qualifiers were competing in the Sectionals with four advancing to the Regionals: Brian Durkalski in the long jump, Lonny Baker in the 200 m dash, Brad Rae in the pole vault, and John Micketts in both the discus and the shotput. (rs)

Naberhaus leads team

"This team has been one of the most successful years we've had at Greenwood in girls' track," said Coach Marti Reece. Coach Reece felt that much of the success was due to "a combination of senior leadership from Marianne Naberhaus and Nan Bohlsen, and a lot of enthusiasm from an otherwise youthful team."

The combination worked well for the Woodmen as they brought home the first Mid-State win and placed second in the County and third in Sectionals

In Regional competition the Woodmen placed seventh overall with Karen Ledford winning the title in the 100 m hurdles, Nan Bohlsen in the 400 m hurdles, and Linda Skaggs went on to State in discus.

Individuals also were outstanding for the Woodmen. Senior Marianne Naberhaus was County, Conference and Sectional champion in the 1600 m, also running a leg on the 1600 relay team. Naberhaus was County champion in the 800 meter.

Nan Bohlsen was the County, Conference, and Sectional champion in the 300 meter low hurdle. She also ran a leg of the County-Conference 1600 m relay team.

Sophomore Karen Ledford and Kim Wallace were also strong performers throughout the season. Ledford was the top 100 and 200 meter sprints and won the Conference and Sectional title in the long jump. Wallace consistently won points in the sprints and was part of the winning 1600 m meter relay team. Bridgett Foy, the final member of the 1600 meter relay team, was Conference champ in the 400 meter dash.

Freshman Stacie Richards was second in the 100 meter hurdles in the County. Lisa Warner ran on the 400 m relay team. Shannon Springer was the top high jumper. Nancy Fabricius was a consistent point winner in the long distances. (nb)

First softball team takes field

The first girl's softball team ended the season with a record of 3-5. Young, but with much potential, the team showed progress in learning fundamentals and progressed to beat Center Grove, Warren Central, and Roncalli.

Leading the hitting were Mickey Cook, .391; Kim Sedam, .471; and Susan Waddell, .421. Top fielders were Karen Gladish with two errors and Steph Estell with no errors. Susan Waddell and Nancy Middleton led the pitching.

The MVP went to Debbie Cordova. Mickey Cook was named Best Hitter, Susan Waddell, Best Pitcher; Karen Gladish, Best Fielder; and Robin Roy, Mental Attitude. (ks)

REVUE

"HARVEY"

In the limelight

Band rate first class

The 1983 season was a return to the traditional competitive excellence the Greenwood Marching Woodmen are known throughout the nation. Long hours of grueling practice, and the dedication of 150 exceptional students made the dream of being the best a reality.

Because of their hard work and dedication, the Marching Woodmen produced a season of great success. Their highest achievement came at Indiana State University with a placing of third in the State, only .9 of a point behind the winner.

Yet this year, the Woodmen learned there is more in the world of competition than winning. There is a feeling of closeness with fellow bandsmen and most importantly, a feeling of self-satisfaction.

The Greenwood Marching Woodmen are a 'Class Act.'

Guard changes show style

The 1984 Irish Guard took on a new look for it's competition season. The familiar toy soldier look was dropped in favor of the ever popular punk rocker. The traditional classic music was replaced by more contemporary artists such as Van Halen, Def Leppard, Cheap Trick, and Night Ranger. Irish Guard director Pam Smith again put together a crowd and judge pleasing show. Difficult tricks and exciting dance numbers brought the crowd to it's feet week after week.

The guard placed very well throughout the season, 2nd at Wapahani, 6th at Decatur Central, 3rd at Center Grove, 3rd at Shenandoah, 3rd at Muncie South, 2nd at Blue River, 4th at Brownsburg. Finally on March 24 here at GCHS, IHSCGA State Finals were held. At the end of preliminary competition, the Irish Guard was in 5th place. the Finals contest proved to be exciting with the guard jumping over Brazil and Brownsburg into 3rd place, capping off an exciting and rewarding year. 'Harvey' brightens stage

Have you ever had an imaginary friend? The friend was real to you, but no one else could see it. This was the story behind this year's fall play, Harvey.

Elwood P. Dowd, (Kris Boggeman) had such a friend. Elwood's dreams and fantasies were represented through Harvey. Only Elwood's sister (Linda McCue) and niece, (Carol Miller) knew about Elwood's "problem."

The madcap continued at Chumley's Rest, a mental hospital. There, one could find a mixed-up doctor, his sophisticated wife, a young, arrogant doctor, a lovesick nurse and many more characters. Harvey was a well-produced comedy enjoyed by everyone.

Other cast members included: Aaron Voyles, Georgie Albright, Shan Rugherford, Teri Tobey, Johnathan Smith, Bart Everson, Stephanie Black, Vic Vallowe, Gisela Westwater and of course, Harvey, played by Miss Janet King.

1. Judge Gaffney (Bart Everson) listens to the debate on Elwood's sanity. (se) 2. Veta Louise (Linda McCue) talks to the Society Editor as Myrtle Mae (Carol Miller) listens. (se) 3. Revue Goes West

The 1984 "Woody's Wild West Show", the All-School Review, certainly captured that good old country feeling. Leta Thompson was the first to enrapture the audience with her song "Desperado", but equally popular items were soon to follow. The versatility and ingenuity involved ensured nothing less than success. Rowdy cowboy scenes contrasted effectively with the delicate footwork of dancers. Humorous numbers like that of the male cheerleaders highlighted the more serious numbers, such as "Ode to Squid", played and composed by Butch Barclay, a sophomore. Not to be forgotten, though, was the Seniors' presentation General Hospital skit and the meeting between Cletus, the Martian, and Mr. William McFerran, as interpreted by Kent Kinneer and Shan Rutherford. The show went from strength to strength, ending in a climatic finale when Melissa Burdett received a standing ovation. (cf-m)

Musicians continue winning

The Music Department at Greenwood High School is regarded as one of the best around. Their accomplishments are endless, not to mention the excellent reputation which they have obtained.

The band, one of the two areas of the department, is broken down into three smaller bands - Concert Band, directed by Mr. Gary Fields; Symphonic Band, under the direction of Mr. Jon Sutton; and Wind Ensemble, directed by Fields. The band starts their season competing as the Greenwood Marching Woodmen, going to various contests from September to November. After marching season, the bands begin to work on their concert season. The main objective is the ISMA band contest in the spring. Here, the bands compete in concert form. This year, the Concert Band received a 2nd division rating and both Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble received 1st division ratings..

Jazz Band, directed by Sutton, is a group of hard working musicians that perform at basketball games and compete in several jazz contests. The Jazz Band adds an extra spark to the Music Department and to the school.

Choirs sing to 1st place

The choir, the second part of the department, holds equal importance. Like the band, the choir is broken into five separate choirs. The Renegades, Girls Glee, Mixed Chorus, Advanced Girls, and Concert Choir are all under the direction of Mr. Ron Bell. Four of the choirs received 1st division ratings at contest this year. The Renegades were not in competition. All choirs perform at concerts throughout the year. Their big activities included the spring musical, "The Sound of Music", and the Madrigals.

This year, a new addition was given to the Music Department. Money was raised and donated to purchase a new grand piano. The addition will help to make the Music Department even stronger and the reputation will remain excellent. (jb)

'Sound of Music' fills air

Inspirational, exciting, sentimental, and well-performed. These are only a few of many words used to describe Greenwood High School's 1984 musical, The Sound of Music.

Months of preparation and dedication paid off for the over fifty member cast. The production drained the students and directors emotionally and physically, but in the end the acclamation and praise was well earned.

However, the "show could not go on" without the technical crew, make-up people, and a full orchestra. Their hard work and dedication added to the tremendous success of the musical.

Heading up the cast was Linda Pauszek as Maria and Shan Rutherford as Captain Von Trapp. Becky Mellencamp portrayed Liesl, the eldest of the Von Trapp children, with Aaron Hawes as Friedrich and Louisa, Karri York. Max Detwiler was played by Kris Bogeman and Leta Thompson portrayed Elsa. Joining the others was Paul Fendley as young Rolf Gruber.

The inspirational Mother Abbess was played by Melissa Burdett. Joining Mother Abbess were Rhonda Snider, Julie Van Deman and Susan Marel who try to decide the ultimate question, "How do you solve a problem like Maria?"

The Sound of Music was a truly memorable event to add to a long list of fine productions produced by Ms. Carol Wharton, Ms. Susan Edwards and Mr. Ron Bell. This year's musical will certainly be one remembered by all.

Madrigals signal holiday

This year saw a return of the traditional Madrigal Dinner to the GCHS stage. After a year's absence, the dinners again played to sold-out audiences and standing ovations.

The carols and smell of wassail through halls are the signals to the start of the Christmas season. The table singers for this year were: Jeff Gentry, Paul Fendley, Sherri Ell, Pam Schoolcraft, Becky Mellencamp, Aaron Hawes, Linda Pauszek, Kris Hoeltke, Phil Mellencamp, Shan Rutherford, Tami Schoolcraft, Rhonda Snider, Todd Clevenger, David Hummel, Michaelle Holder, and Jan Mutchman.

The rest of the cast included, Kevin Kennedy as the Jester, Aaron Voyles and Chamberlin, and Teri Tobey, Susan Pinckert, Jack Jeffries, Brian Zabarowsky, Stephanie Black, Kim Borer, Darla Stilly, Cheryl Schaefer, Melissa Burdett, Susan Marvel, Julie Van Deman and Kris Bogeman.

Director Ron Bell summed up the dinners by saying, "This year's cast continued the tradition of excellence that our audiences have come to expect."

C-9 aids career training

Central Nine Vocational School was offered for juniors and seniors, chosen on a rating system by teachers and counselors. Central Nine offered several Vocational courses including business, medical, electronics, welding, and building trades.

Central Nine offered a co-op program which was on-the-job-training in the senior year.

After spending the junior year in class, seniors practiced their learning while earning money. Many Co-op jobs became permanent employment after high school.

Central Nine was an opportunity to select career training as an option to academics. The major problems was C-9 enrollment was limited and not all Vocational Students had the chance to attend.

Computer lab expands

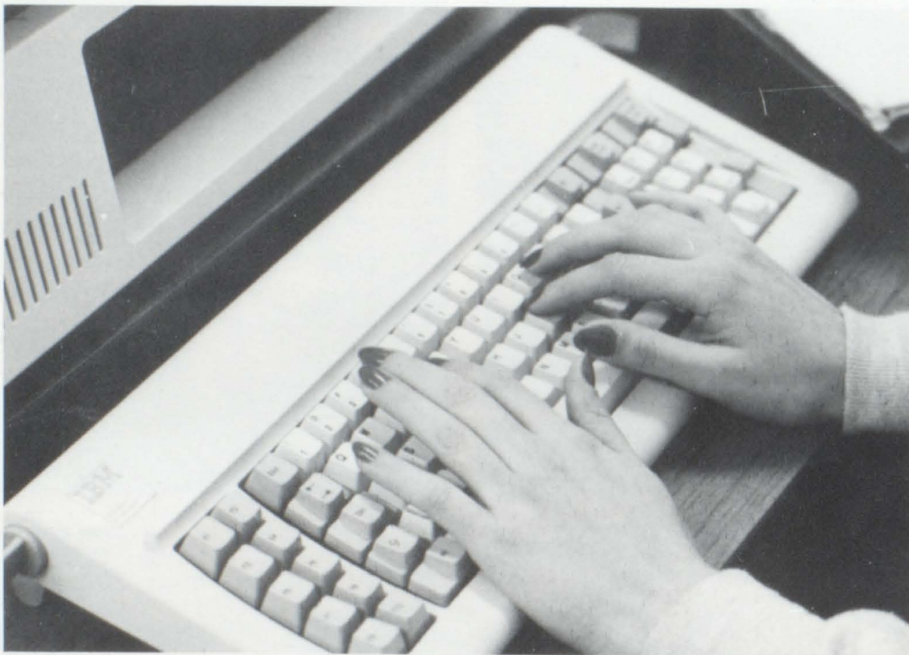

This year Greenwood added a completely new computer lab to its facilities. This new lab contains 24 IBM PC's, 14 of which are double disks drivers while the other 10 are single disk. Compared to the small lab of the past years, which consisted of only four computers, this new system has been a definite improvement.

The students in the computer math classes are now able to sue computers on a one-to-one basis every other day. There are also several business classes that use the computers at various times during the year.

Presently, there is only one level of computer study which is offered, but in the next few years it will expand to include a more detailed study of computer programming. There is also a possibility of expanding even further to include the teaching of other computer languages besides BASIC, such as FORTRAN and COBAL.

Practical skills stressed in business

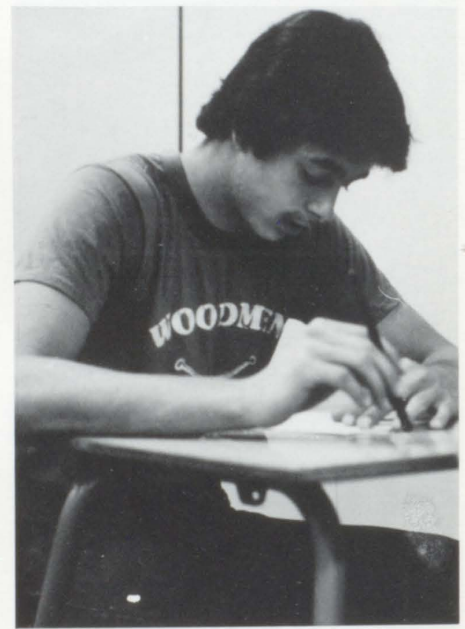

Assets = Liabilities + Capital
ASDFGHJKL;

0 (1/0) . . .

These were just a few of the basic concepts of first year business classes. These and many more were carried on to the more advanced level courses.

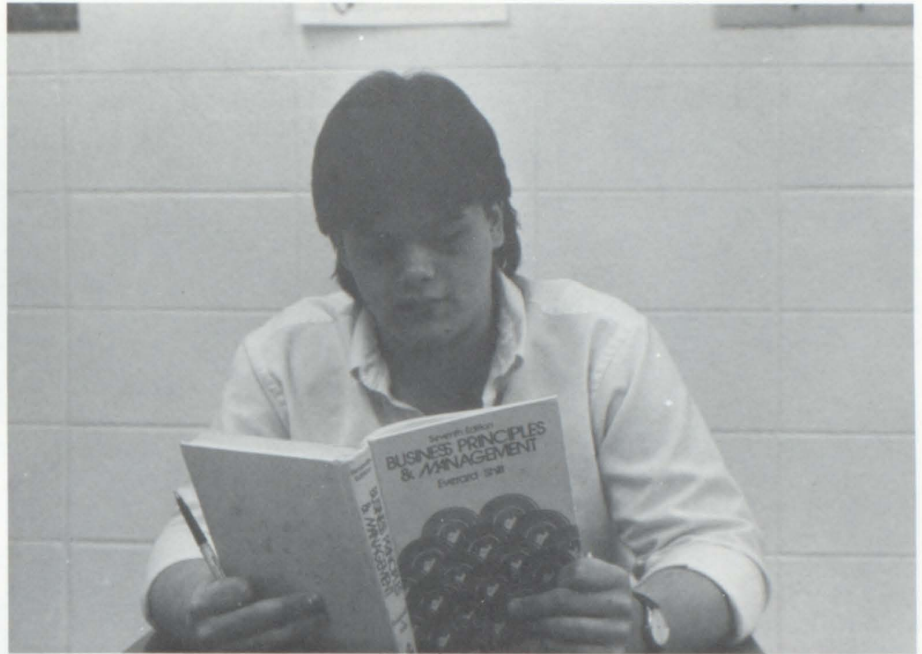

The variety of business courses offered here at GCHS allowed the student to prepare for the business world or for further studies. The accounting classes had two simulations during the year in which they took on the "job" as accountants for a make-believe company. The typing class was a wise choice if a student planned to go into any type of computer courses. The keyboard was the basic for all computers. A good strong business background was helpful if a student planned to go on into the business field.

The beginning business student may have chosen from classes such as General Business, Typing I, Accounting I, and Shorthand I. If they wished to further their business education, they could have chosen to take second year courses, such as Typing II, Shorthand II, or Advanced Accounting. (ns)

College credit offered

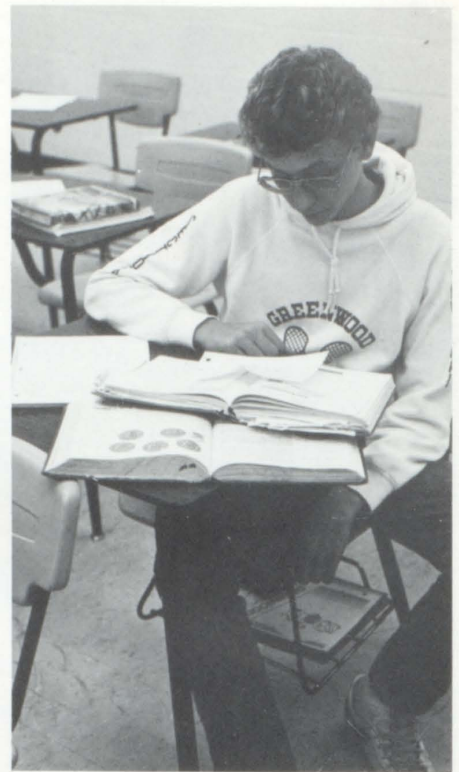

Many new courses were introduced to GCHS students during the 1983-84 school year. Among those offered to math students were new and updated computer courses and Calculus as a college credit.

Because of the growing need for the use of computers, an updated computer math course was taught by Mr. William Mellencamp, head of the Math department, and Mr. William Hurt.

Calculus was offered to students as usual, but with an added advantage of college credit. Mr. William McFerran taught the class in association with Indiana University.

Language skills vital

The English department offered a variety of classes to choose from. Basic English skills were taught in General English and English 9A and 9B. Advanced classes, such as Introduction to Writing, and Advanced Grammar offered a more in-depth study of grammar.

The English department also offered the opportunity to become fluent in other languages by studying French or Spanish. Advanced classes were offered to those interested.

For those who had prepared for college, many felt Research, English or College Literature and Speech were great assets. These classes were not only essential to many while still in college, but they also had a great importance on their life after school. (sr)

Scientists study universe

The Advanced Chemistry class was offered for the first time during the 1983-84 school year as a pilot program from Indiana University with high school students earning college credit. The student could receive 5 credits to be used toward almost any college. Mr. Gary Vandergriff taught the class as an adjunct professor.

The Science department had always had the element of participation that was hard to surpass in the classes—the science labs. Many students enjoyed this over the regular lectures. As a result approximately 48% of all students graduated with a science major. (sc)

Social Science examines world around us

The Social Studies department was much more exciting than it appeared with Mock Congress, map working, playing the stock market, debates, and many other were included in the classes.

One starts out as a freshmen or sophomore with the choice of taking World History, Values and Issues, or Geography. As a junior, U.S. History is required. One course that was not very well known was Current Problems, offered to juniors and seniors. Newsweek magazine was used as a text and national and international current events were studied. Seniors were required to take Government and had a choice of taking Sociology, Psychology, or Economics.

Special education added to program

"It's a big adjustment implementing a new program, but I feel there have already been many positive results. The cooperation of the faculty and administration has been a real plus," said new Special Education teacher, Ms. Renee Dewey.

The most important factors concerning the new Special Education program at GCHS was the way the students felt about it. Most felt they were more a part of the school, since they were at GCHS all day. Others were glad they didn't have the long bus ride to Center Grove High School each day.

The biggest concern was the attitude that other students had toward "special education". Most of the negative feelings were the result of a lack of knowledge and understanding of the school population concerning learning disabilities. A learning disability has little to do with basic intelligence. Overall performance is usually average to above average. One definition of a person with a learning disability is "someone who learns in a different way, and at a different speed than the average person".

P.E. stresses lifetime activity

Physical fitness was a trend that hit us all in 1983. Walking, jogging, and aerobics were only a few of the many exercises that exploded on the scene. It seemed everyone was ready to become more physically fit.

Physical education, as always, was included in the curriculum at Greenwood. GCHS offered the regular freshmen and sophomore gym, as well as the full credit advanced class. Also included in the physical education department was swimming, a required unit in P.E. classes. (sw)

Home Ec., I-Arts teach skills

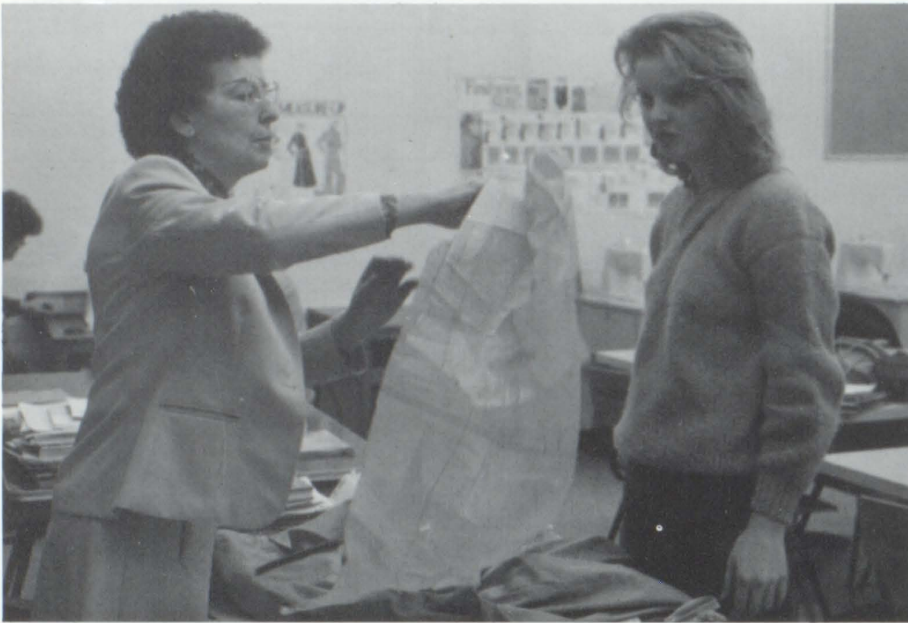

Home Economics and Industrial Arts are two departments which teach practical skills for the future. In the Home Ec. department, classes such as foods and clothing are traditions. But the GCHS department also offers classes in Child Development, Family Living, and Interior Decorating to further extend the values of Home Economics. The courses are for everyone and every level because someday all students will face the problems covered in these courses.

In Industrial Arts, courses cover woods, metals, electricity, power mechanics, and printing. A course added this year was in Home Maintenance which taught students to fix and repair many areas they will find around their own homes.

The Industrial Arts department offered something valuable for everyone. The department gave opportunities for students to go on to vocation school or a skilled trade school and become a professional.

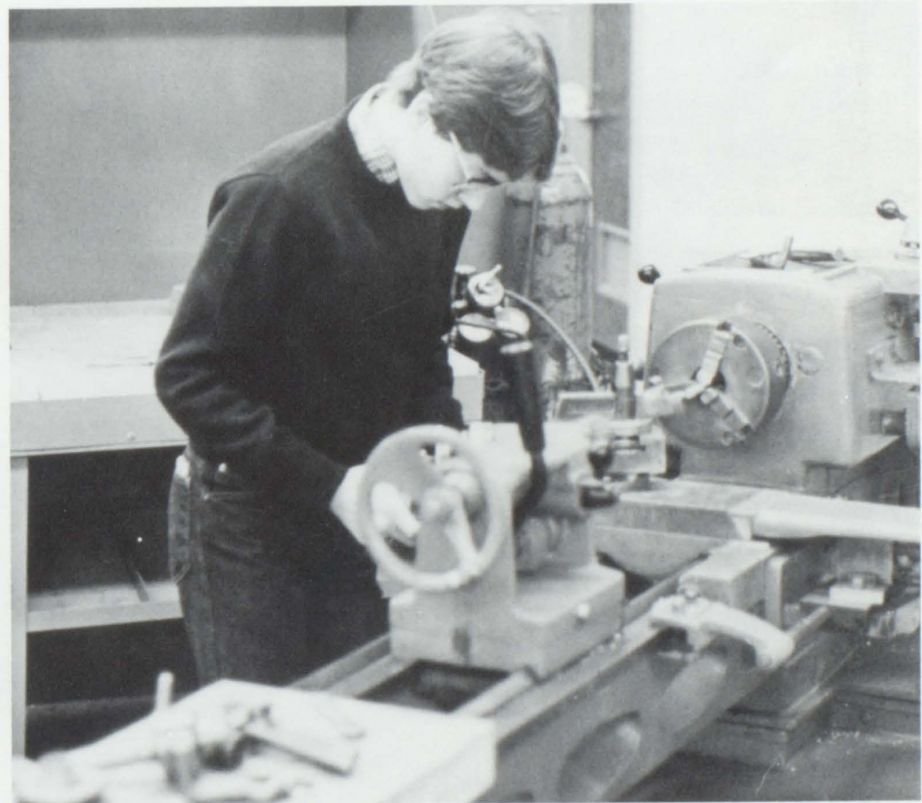

The department offered a wide range of courses which included Electricity I and II, Metals I, II and III, Mechanical Drawings, Architectural Drawing, Graphic Arts I and II, Power Mechanics I and II, Woods I, II, and III, and a one semester course of Home Maintenance and Repair.

Two classes were offered for the first time in Industrial Arts. These were Home Maintenance and Repair and the Metals III course. The home maintenance course, was designed to give students some basic skills for simple jobs around the house. The Metals III course, taught by Mr. John Hallet, was designed to sharpen and develop skills for more complicated projects. (sr)

Artists win Scholastic Gold Keys

Department head, Mr. Joseph Reynolds, had an exceptionally good year as he instructed several students in producing award-winning works of art. Students receiving Scholastic Gold Key finalists awards were Jeff Hotopp in jewelry, Adam Sparks and Nan Bohlsen in photography. The Gold Key winners were Jill Cockrell and Jon Adams in jewelry and Adam Sparks in photography. Students receiving honorable mention were Jill Cockrell in jewelry, Trevor Cook in painting and Carol Miller, Marianne Naberhaus and John Irons in drawing.

Enrollment in the introductory art classes were up somewhat. Mrs. Judy Adamson taught many students the basic art fundamentals. She hopes for the art department to maintain its consistency through the spring show.

Exchange students bring variety, enthusiasm

The year 1983-84 saw four foreign exchange students in Greenwood High School, more than ever before. They were Annegnet Beese and Venena Scharf from Germany, Uik Ian Andersen from Denmark and Cate Frasier-Mackenzie from Zimbabwe. Both Annegnet and Venena had two or three more years of schooling to complete on their return while Ian and Cate were intending to go to college.

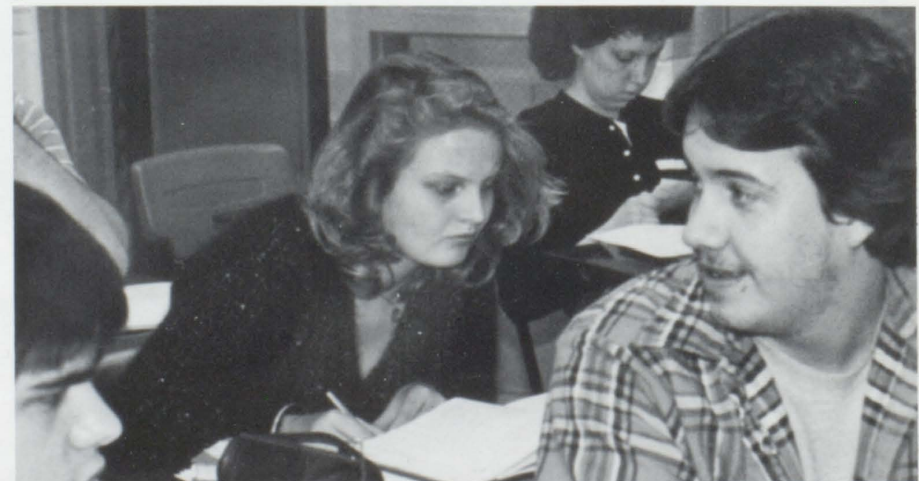

Although their year in the United States did not count academically, each of them said all of their other experiences had certainly made it worthwhile. Annegnet said, "The practicality of the subjects offered is what I like the most about American schools."

For Ian it was the sports, while Venena appreciated the opportunity to learn about America and its people.

As for Cate, she said "coming from Africa, it's the snow I love - not to mention all your shops."

For all of them, their year in America will be unforgettable. Each of them described their experience as an exchange student as "one not to be missed." (cfm)

Anne's command of English improved as she learned to type. Anne participated in Thespians and French Club while at GCHS. 5. Cate Frasier-Mackenzie, Zimbabwe, studies her Spanish before a vocabulary test. 6. Cate gets help from Dawn Davidson on her computer math problem. Cate participated in Thespians, and Woodman staff. 7. Verena Scharf, West Germany, sets up her typewriter for a times writing. 8. Verena addressed several student groups during the year. (se)

Administrators set school policy

Greenwood High School was composed of a variety of students with different desires and abilities. After high school, their outlooks also varied from technical schools, to colleges, to going directly into the job market. Because of this, each student required a high school education that would cater to his or her own needs.

It was impossible for a school to cover every need of a student, but Greenwood attempted to accomplish this job by offering a wide course selection that included mechanics, home economics, and academic classes for college bound students. Along with this, Greenwood offered a generalized education to help teach students the responsibility of being good citizens and to make them valuable assets to the community. They also gave students an awareness of the standards and needs of society today.

The responsibility of regulating the school system lay with the School Board. The utmost authority in the corporation, this five member panel set general policies to be followed.

Decisions made by the Board were passed down to the Superintendent, Dr. Earl Blemker and Asst. Superintendent, Dr. Robert Brenton for execution. They saw that all facets of the school system ran smoothly. (rs)

1. School Board members for the year were (front) Mr. Norman Meier; (standing) Mr. Richard Wood, Mr. Dale Mitchell, Mr. Phil Jackson, and Mr. Larry Allen. (bb) 2. Dr. Robert Brenton (left) and Dr. Earl Blemker (right) oversee the daily running of the school corporation. Brenton handles the curriculum while Blem-

kere manager personnel and finances. (bb) 3. Lighter moments are a part of the teaching day as Mr. Keith Corow is serenaded by the Balloon Man on his?? birthday. The birthday greeting came from Conrow's family during his preparation time. (se)

There is not a day that goes by that we do not thank God for giving us a son like yourself. We want to say thank you Mike, for four years of Scholastic and Athletics achievements that we have enjoyed.

May God bless and watch over you in your future years at the University of Cincinnati.

We are very proud of you...

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Sandy,

Congratulations on a job well done!! We are very proud of you. Follow your dreams and someday they will all come true.

Lots of love,
Mom and Dad

Angie Pogue,

Congratulations! We never had any doubts that you would make it with flying colors.

May God bless and keep you.

Much Love,
Mom and Dad

Terry Whitaker,

Congratulations! We love you and we are proud of you. We hope your future will always be bright and your life happy.

"Good Luck and May God Bless You"

Love,
Mom, Dad and Tammy

Dear Brian Skjodt,

Thanks for all the special times we have shared. We're very proud of you and know that many good things lie ahead.

Much love,
Dad, Dana, Jim and Greg

Kent,

You and your classmates are to be commended on four years of achievement. All of you have made a good start. May the Good Lord bless you during the days to come as He has in the past.

Mother and Dad

Tiger,

You know how much you mean to us, Son, so you must know the happiness we wish you for graduation and always!

Love,
Dad and Mom

Dear Kelley,

We love you dearly, and are so proud of you. Go on to all the good things the future has in store for you.

God Bless,
Mom and Pop

David R.W. Streepy,
CONGRATULATIONS DAVID!

We are extremely proud of you and hope your future endeavors are as rewarding to you as your graduation is to us.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Awesome!

To Bonita Cummings

You are our First Granddaughter.
On that August day we were so proud of you, a beautiful baby girl, that we have enjoyed and loved more each day.

The respect and love you show to us and others has truly made you a lovely young lady.

Stay as you are whatever your future. We are behind you all the way.

On this May 30, 1984 as you graduate, May God Bless You honey.

Always remember Grandma and Grandpa love you very much.

Grandma & Grandpa Far-Away

To Bonita

You will stand many times at the crossroads in your life just as you're standing now, and no one can tell you which way to go or what you should do or how. Yours is the choice. May you follow your dreams and believe in yourself. We want you to know just how proud we are; that day by day our love and thoughts will always be with you.

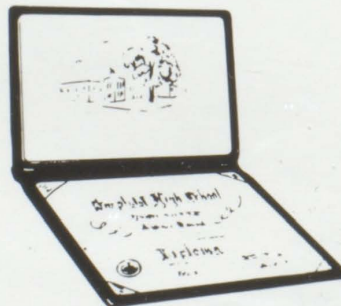

Congratulations Honey.

Love you,
Mom, Daddy, Jack

Nina

Follow your heart and you will find your dreams, And search not for the rainbow's end— for you hold the rainbow.

Congratulations and our love
Grandma & Grandpa C.

Dear Angela,

We have some good news and some bad news. First, the bad news: Upon graduation you are closing a door behind you that can never be reopened. Now, for the good news: You are opening a door to a bright, new world—the rest of your life. Make it a good one!

We love you,
Mom and Bill

Gary Knight:

The rest of your life is like money in a savings account. Use it wisely and you will be happy and successful. We are very proud of you.

Jeff,

Congratulations to a very special you. We wish you all the love and happiness and success your lifetime can hold. May all your hopes and dreams come true.

Loving you,
Mom and Dad

Boogie,

I'd rather be a COULD BE...
If I COULD NOT BE and ARE.
For a COULD BE is a MAYBE... with a CHANCE of reaching PAR.
I'd rather be a HAS BEEN...
than a MIGHT HAVE BEEN has NEVER BEEN...
but a HAS was once and ARE!

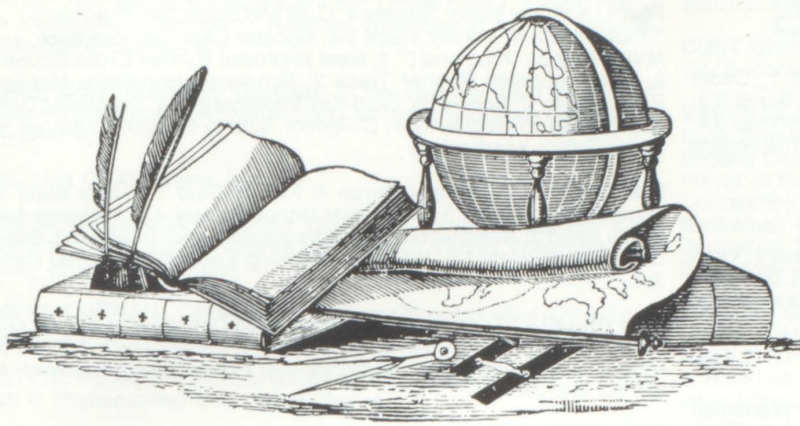

We love always and always!
Mom, Kaka, and Booper

Steve Springer,

We've really enjoyed watching you grow from a small boy into a fine young man. We are very proud of you and wish the best in life for you! We know that you're going to be a successful loving person.

Congratulations on your graduation from high school!
May God Bless You.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Stacy, Shannon, Shawn

Bill,
We are very proud of you, our only son, for completing 12th grade. We also hope you do well in the Marine Corps.

Bob (Brammo)
Congratulations and thanks for being our special son. With great pride—we wish you happiness and success in your future. Remember you are:
"Not to the top—but climbing."

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Pamela Pierce,
You made it and that has made me very proud of you. Please enjoy and make the best of your life.

Love,
Mom

Dear Don,
You know how very proud we are of you. We pray that your life will be happy and by hard work you will achieve. Remember this:

If you can't be a highway—be a trail;
If you can't be the sun—be a star,
It's not by size that you win or fail;
Be the best of whatever you are.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Tony,
Words can't begin to express our pride in you—as a son and as an individual. It just goes to show "Nice guys don't always finish last."

Love,
Mom, Dad and Kim

Well, Jimbo, you finally made it. We just wanted to let you know we are very proud of you. Hope you do as well in racing as you did in school.

Lots of Luck in the future.
Love,
Dad, Mom, Mike and Dustin

Congratulations to Larry Jr. upon your graduation from Greenwood H.S. Your graduation is special since you are the last of our three children to graduate from Greenwood. So, a special Thank You to GCHS! To Larry and all the other graduates—May you achieve your dreams and find happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry M. Burmeister

Lauri,
Congratulations! We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Howard, Lisa and Natalie

Jill,
Congratulations! I'm so proud of you!

Love,
Mom

Julie,
Congratulations!
We're so proud of you!
Look not behind you,
But in front of you.
The future is yours,
Use it wisely.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Demaris Van Orman

We are very proud of your accomplishments and wish you great success during your college years and future life.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Will

To Jill Reynolds:
You are definitely FIVE,
And we are SO PROUD!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Brad,
We're very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Candy, Jay, Courtney

Marina,
Thank you for making us very proud parents. Thank you for being a friend and daughter. Congratulations and the best of luck in the future. We will always be with you.

Love,
Dad and Mom

Stacey Wood:

Eighteen years have come and gone so quickly. The seven pound little girl I held in my arms is now 5'9" tall and looks down on me.

Stacey, thank you for eighteen years of happiness and struggles too! I am very proud of you!
Best of luck at Ball State University.

Your friend,
Mom

Derek D. Cox—Senior

You are a super son who has brought much joy and happiness to our lives. Congratulations on the achievement of an important milestone and good luck in your pursuit of higher education at Ball State.

Love,
Mom and Dad
